ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1914.

- I. In this year there will be four eclipses, two of the Sun and two of the Moon.
- I. The first will be an annular eclipse of the Sun, Feb. 24th, invisible in the United States, visible throughout the South Pacific Ocean, and the Antarctic continent.
- I. The second will be a partial eclipse of the Moon, Mar. 11th, visible in the United States as follows: Moon enters penumbra, 8 o'clock, 41 min.; Moon enters shadow, 9 o'clock, 42 min.; middle of eclipse, 11 o'clock, 13 min.; Moon leaves shadow 12 o'clock, 44 min.; Moon leaves penumbra, 3 o'clock, 45 min., Eastern Standard time.
- III. The third will be a total eclipse of the Sun, visible throughout Europe, eastern Africa, western Asia, eastern Canada, Labrador, and north eastern United States. The path of totality passes across northern Greenland, central Scandinavia, Russia, eastern part of Turkey in Asia, and southern Asia. Throughout New England and the middle states a very small portion of the northern limb of the sun will be eclipsed about sunrise.
- IV. The fourth will be a partial eclipse of the Moon, Sept. 2-4, invisible in the United States.
- V. There will be a transit of Mercury over the Sun's disk Nov. 7, partly visible in the United States, the Sun rising with Mercury on its disk. The time of beginning is 5 o'clock, 0 min., (before sunrise), the end 9 o'clock, 10 min. morning. Nearest approach of centers 10' 31" Sun's diameter, being 32' 17".

The calculations for this Almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia, and are expressed in Eastern Standard Time. For places not on the standard meridian where standard time is kept, the following rule applies: For places west of the 75th meridian, add in the proportion of four minutes for each degree of difference of longitude; for places east, subtract. For moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, simply reduce from Eastern to required Standard.

FOREWORD.

The year 1913 was our Jubilee Year. It was a year of anniversaries. We recalled the past. We retold the story of the origin of our beloved Church and marked her progress; and then in gratitude, by a sincere effort, tried to deepen the spiritual life of the people, develop the lay activity of the Church and put our local and benevolent work on a scientific and Scriptural basis. More new members were added to the Church than any year since 1905. More money was given for benevolent and congregational purposes than any year in the Church's history. But what was done last year should only cheer us to go on and do still better things. By a united effort throughout the Church we should honestly try to enlist every member of every church to pray, to pay, and to work that the Kingdom of God may come everywhere and Christ's will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

ZURICH, SWITZERLAND, AND THE ALPS.

ZURICH, THE BIRTHPLACE OF THE REFORMED CHURCH.

Last July the beautiful city of Zurich, Switzerland, was again the centre of Protestantism. The great World's Sunday School Convention met there in July. Zurich has always been a great democratic city,—a religious and educational centre. In no city, therefore, could the leaders of the World's Sunday School movement find themselves more at home. For the Sunday School is one of the most distinctive and democratic religious institutions in all the history of the Christian Church. The Convention whilst in session honored Ulrich Zwingli, our first great Reformed leader. In doing so, the Convention honored itself. Zwingli was the most modern in spirit of all the Reformers. He was a lover of men and of civic righteousness. The Convention marched in a body to lay a wreath before the Zwingli monument. That wreath is seen at the foot of the monument as represented in the frontispiece of this issue of the Almanac and Year Book.

ST. ANNA CHAPEL (REFORMED), ZURICH, SWITZERLAND.

TONHALLE, ZURICH, SWITZERLAND, THE PLACE OF MEETING OF THE WORLD'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

THE CHURCH'S PRESENT TASK IN AMERICA.

The Protestant Churches of America are face to face with one of their greatest religious problems. They must do their share to help bind together in one single democratic religious people the score of races now coming to our shores speaking forty languages and inheriting all kinds of social and religious ideas and traditions. The Church is God's appointed institution for the regeneration of Society. Through it, the gospel of justice, of kindness, of faith and love expressing God's will concerning us all, must be preached.

Our Share of the Task.

In this general work, the Reformed Church has a particular work. More than any other Church, she is called to minister to the Hungarians and Bohemians and their Slavic and Polish neighbors. The present needs of the Hungarian mission work are,

1. More Missionaries. There are 100,000 Reformed Hungarians in America. There are but 75 missionaries for all these. There are 18 colonies in Westmoreland County in which there is no Protestant mission work being done. There are 10 such colonies in Somerset County and a number of similar colonies in Ohio.

2. Our Synods, especially the Eastern, Pittsburgh, and Ohio Synods, should employ travelling missionaries, able to speak the Hungarian and Bohemian languages. The support of such a missionary would not cost more than $1000 a year.

3. We should employ deaconesses trained to work among these people.

4. The missionary societies and missionary committees of our English congregations in whose neighborhoods there are such colonies should make a survey of these communities and by personal touch get the foreigners to attend English services.

PROFESSORS AND GRADUATES, 1913 THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, LANCASTER, PA.

THE MASTER NEEDS THE BEST.

Anyone who studies the work of the Church of Jesus Christ today and takes part in it, trying to obey the Lord's command, is persuaded in his heart that the Church today needs not only more men in the ministry but she needs men of the biggest and the best type. There is room in the Church today for men of the greatest ability. In no calling of life are there such opportunities for doing good just now as in the pulpit and in the practical work of the Church. We need preachers, thinkers, administrators,—men who can do things,—men with statesmanlike ability.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CHURCH.

In May of this year, the General Synod, our oldest legislative body, meets in the First Reformed Church of Lancaster. The General Synod is made up of ministers and elders elected by the Classes. It meets every three years. Government is as necessary in the Church as in the State that good order and righteousness may prevail. There are three forms of Church government,—the Episcopalian, or the government by Bishops; the Congregationalist, or government by independent congregations; and the Presbyterian, or government by elders and ministers. Our form of government belongs to the last. It is very democratic, very much like that of the State, where you have townships and counties and the city and general government. We have the single congregation with the consistory; a number of congregations with Classis over it; and a number of Classes comprising a Synod; and all the Church under the General Synod. Every church-member should own a Constitution and be familiar with the laws and customs of our government.

UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY HELD IN HIBIYA PARK, TOKYO, JAPAN, APRIL 7, 1913.

¶ Foreign Mission Day, February 15th, 1914.

¶ Foreign Missions presents the widest scope for the exercise of faith in God and love for humanity.

¶ The people who do most for Foreign Missions are the people who do most for everything else,—for Home Missions, and for home charities.

¶ A comparison of our contributions for Foreign Missions from 1838 to 1912, a period of seventy-five years, affords an index to the growing interest among our people in this great cause.

From 1838, the organization of the Board, to 1878, approximately $40,000; an average of $1000 per year.

From 1878, the beginning of the Japan Mission, until 1900, $353,880.49; an average of $16,085.47.

THE PROPOSED SCHAFF BUILDING.

In 1844 a young man, just graduated from the Berlin University came to Mercersburg. For nearly twenty years he labored in the institutions of the Reformed Church, wrote constantly for the church papers, and published books, including a "History of the Apostolic Church" and "A Catechism for Little Children." Then he was called to a greater work in New York City as Secretary of the New York Sabbath Committee, and later, for many years, served as Professor in Union Theological Seminary. The Reformed Church gave him to the Christian churches of the world; for the young man became known as Dr. Philip Schaff, the Church Historian and author, the mediator between the Biblical scholarship of Europe, Great Britain, and America, and as the prophet of Church Unity.

Dr. Schaff was largely instrumental in organizing the Alliance of Reformed Churches Holding the Presbyterian System. His was a controlling influence for years in the Evangelical Alliance. He organized and became chairman of the American Bible Revision Committee.

REV. ADONIRAM JUDSON, MISSIONARY TO BURMAH 100 YEARS AGO.

The Publication and Sunday School Board, in recognition of the eminent services of Dr. Philip Schaff, has resolved to erect a larger Reformed Church building in Philadelphia, to be known as the SCHAFF BUILDING.

A representative committee has been organized, on the membership of which more than ten denominations are represented. The scholars and men of affairs in this country and abroad, have gladly accepted membership on the committee.

The new building will cover an area of 120x120 feet and will be from seven to twelve stories in height. It is proposed, in addition to housing the Boards of the Reformed Church, to make it an Inter-Church building and to have centered in the building, various philanthropic and civic and charity organizations of the city of Philadelphia. On the first floor there will be a large auditorium for public use. The Schaff Building will be a worthy monument to a great and useful man and will be a source of enlarged usefulness and helpfulness in the work of the Reformed Church and the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ.

THE JUDSON CENTENNIAL.

Last year the Christian world united in celebrating the Livingstone centennial. And now the attention of Christendom is called to the work and character of Adoniram Judson, one of the great missionary heroes of modern times. The small Christian mission planted by Mr. and Mrs. Judson one hundred years ago in Burma has grown to splendid proportions.

OUR CHURCH AND SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE.

It takes more than five carloads, holding thirty tons each, to furnish the paper used by the Publication and Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church, in publishing its twenty odd periodicals. More than four and a half million copies of these periodicals are circulated each year. Who can estimate the good accomplished? Next to the influence of the preacher and his spoken word, is the printed page. Are you familiar with this English Church literature and do you use it in your home? It includes the Church papers, the Young People's paper "The Way," the Children's paper "Leaves of Light," and "Sunshine" for the little ones, and a dozen or more Sunday School Lesson papers at the head of which stands the "Heidelberg Teacher."

Hungarian Vacation Day School, Homestead, Pa.

HUNGARIAN WEDDING, HOMESTEAD, PA.

Eighty-seven children from the foreign ward of Homestead were gathered in this school, and taught during the summer months, for eight weeks, by Rev. Alex. Harsanyi, our missionary and his son Andor. The splendid work, carried on among the foreigners in Homestead, by our Church, was very much praised by the local Press as well as by those, who visited this vacation school and are interested in the spiritual welfare of the Magyars.

The Board of Home Missions enters the second half of a century of its history amid encouraging conditions. The work was never in better shape. There are 140 Missions on the roll and besides these there are 85 under the care of the German Boards.

Nine of our Missions are Hungarian, three Bohemian, one Japanese.

The Board last year assisted the schools for colored people at Louisville, Ky. and at Bowling Green, Ky. to the amount of $500 each.

During the fifty years of its history over 500 churches have been helped by the Board of Home Missions.

JAPANESE MISSION, SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., REV. J. MORI.

Last year ten new mission churches were built. This was made possible by timely aid from the Board.

Over 300 Church-building Funds of $500 each were secured last year.

The Mission in Rochester, N. Y. erected two church buildings during the year. The congregation outgrew the temporary quarters within a few months and made a larger building necessary.

It is estimated that there are 57,000,000 people in the United States who are not identified with any church. Does the Reformed Church have no obligation to these?

The tide of immigration is rising again. Over one million foreigners came to this country last year. There are 30,000,000 foreign-born people in the United States. Our Church is responsible for her share of these.

The Japanese Mission in San Francisco, California, Rev. J. Mori, pastor, recently came into possession of a splendid church building which the Board purchased for them from the Plymouth Congregationalist Church. The property is located in the Japanese quarter of the city.

HELB ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE (REAR).

A Reformed church has been started in Los Angeles, California. Rev. A. P. Steinebrey, who went there in search of his health, has gathered the nucleus of what promises a splendid congregation. There is room for several Reformed churches in that city.

The value of our mission properties exceeds one million dollars. The yearly income of the Board is about $140,000. Half of this amount is paid out in salaries to the missionaries and the rest is loaned to missions on good security.

REMEMBER THE CHURCH.

Remember the Church in your will, but make sure that your will is correctly made: (1) A reasonable amount, (2) in the charter title of the Board, (3) at least thirty days before death and (4) two subscribing witnesses—these are the essential things.

WHAT WE NEED.

We need in the Church today the passion for reality and a great enthusiasm for the things which belong to the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. This will come if we re-study the life of Jesus and His gospel and in the light of that, face the task which today confronts His Church. For ourselves, we must believe His religion is a final, absolute religion for all men and for all time. That it is sufficient to save every individual, remedy every evil and right every wrong. We must believe that the Church of Jesus Christ is absolutely necessary for the preaching of His gospel and for the application of its principles to all the needs of the world. We must see to it that the Church represents her Lord, that in her work and her professions she represents the principles of His gospel. The Church must be what she professes to be. Then there will be a great reformation and a mighty advance.

REV. JOHN F. WINTER,
ORPHANS' HOME, FT. WAYNE, IND.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MISSION CONFERENCES.

There are more young people in the Churches ready for service at home or on the foreign field than the Churches can send. This is the result of Mission Study. This is a growing work in our Church. Besides the work done in the local churches each year there are missionary conferences at Linwood Park, Vermilion, Ohio, Mt. Gretna, and Indianapolis. At Linwood Park, 174 delegates were enrolled; at Mt. Gretna, 176, and at Indianapolis, 645. Our Church also sent 13 delegates to the conference at Silver Bay, N. Y. This is to be, "A Year of Reformed Mission Study." Rev. Chas. E. Schaeffer has written a book on our Home Mission work. Dr. William E. Lampe, a text book on Foreign Mission work.

AN EVIDENCE OF CHRISTIANITY.

In the sight of Jesus every human life was infinitely precious. The maimed, the halt, the blind, the sin-oppressed, appealed to Him. He loved them most who needed Him most. And we will continue to be interested in the orphan children of the world and do all we can for them just as long as we are Christians. When our fathers and mothers remember the orphans in their wills, they are doing a Christ-like thing. At Christmas, let the children give their gifts to the fatherless.

OBITUARIES

REV. GEORGE W. AUGH-INBAUGH, D.D., born in Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 12, 1819, died Aug. 28, 1913, in his 95th year. In 1841 he entered Marshall College, Mercersburg, Pa., graduating 1844. After two years spent in the Theological Seminary, at the same place, he was licensed in 1846 and the same year was ordained by Maryland Classis as pastor of the Emmitsburg Charge. In 1856 he opened a classical school at Bedford, Pa. In 1859 he accepted a call to Edinburg, Va., and in connection therewith conducted a Girls' School at Orkney Springs, Va. He then accepted a call to Riegelsville, Pa., resigning after two years to assume the Presidency of Heidelberg College, Tiffin, O. Because of ill health he left Heidelberg College and returned to his former pastorate at Riegelsville, Pa. In 1873 he became President of Palatinate College. He next undertook the work of reviving Mercersburg College and remained there from 1884 to 1893. Since then he has lived in retirement.

REV. JOHN JACOB FISHER, D.D., pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, Tamaqua, Pa., fell dead on Wednesday afternoon, Jan'y 22d, 1913, whilst delivering an address on the 350th Anniversary of the Heidelberg Catechism, in Trinity Reformed Church, Pottsville, Pa. He had been speaking about two minutes when he suffered a stroke of apoplexy. He was born in Pottsville, Aug. 30th, 1855. Soon after his birth his parents moved to Mahanoy City, where he received his early education. He went to Collegeville in 1873 and was graduated from Ursinus College, the second in his class, in 1878. He finished his theological course in the same institution in 1879. On June 2d, of the same year, he was licensed by the Classis of Lebanon. On Feb'y 1, 1880, he was ordained and installed pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, Tamaqua, of which congregation he remained pastor to the time of his death. He was also pastor of the Reformed church in Rush Township and of the Reformed church at Tuscarora. He is survived by a widow and two daughters.

the Methodist Episcopal Church, where he did much of the pioneer work. In Missouri he served at one time 15 congregations, all organized by himself, and had to travel 300 miles in making his appointments. This distance he covered every three weeks for $50 a year. During the Civil War he came to Indianapolis, Ind., where he entered the ministry of the Reformed Church, serving a number of charges in Indiana Classis. In 1895, when 80 years old, he withdrew from the active ministry. He died Sept. 15, 1912, aged 96 years, 11 months, and 3 days. Four sons and four daughters survive him.

REV. SEBASTIAN C. BARTH was the oldest minister in the Reformed Church. Almost 70 years had passed since he was ordained as a minister of the Gospel and on the 12th of October he would have reached his 97th year. He was born in the year 1815 at Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, and in his 15th year he came to America, locating at Louisville, Ky. German Hospital

3305 FRANKLIN AVE.

CLEVELAND, O

The purpose of this institution is the care of the sick and needy under the direction of an Association organized for this purpose. In connection with the Hospital a Training School for Nurses is being conducted. Accompanying picture shows the new nurses' home recently purchased and ready to be occupied by November 1st, 1913. Here a thorough training is given to young women who desire to prepare themselves as trained nurses.

The Hospital as well as the training school have an enviable reputation for the splendid work done. A new addition to the Hospital is planned for 1914, which will materially increase our equipment and facilities, with the plan of a free medical and surgical dispensary in connection with the greater institution. German Hospital is a distinctively Christian institution. The Board of Trustees are members of the Church. It is hoped that the liberal support of our friends will enable us to carry on this noble work on a larger scale than ever before.

Barlow's Indigo Blue

THE TRIED AND TRUE
WASH BLUE OF AMERICA

It is over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for a half century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard Blueing throughout the country.

Trade Mark is registered and we caution the trade against handling goods imitating style and appearance.

Little's Cross and Crown System

Doubles. Sunday School Attendance and Offerings

How to Use the System

Begin by presenting every scholar with the No. 0 celluloid pin. For every term of three months' uninterrupted attendance the pupil earns a reward. For the first term the No. 1 pin; for the second the No. 2 pin; for the third the No. 3 pin; for the fourth the No. 6 pin. Thirteen consecutive Sundays may be considered as three months. Pupils absent without a satisfactory excuse lose the interrupted term, but may begin a new term the next Sunday they attend, continuing to wear the pin already earned.

Each pin obtained is to be worn until the next higher grade is earned, but surrendered upon receiving the new one. The No. 6 solid gold pin is presented outright, and with it a handsome lithographed certificate, 9x11 inches, with seal and ribbon attached (for framing). For each additional reward earned another seal and ribbon is attached. These certificates are free to schools. Send for sample.

The System pays for itself by increased offerings as evidenced by numerous testimonials, and may be started successfully at any time. This has been repeatedly proven by actual results.

ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1913.

- In this year there will be five eclipses, three of the Sun and two of the Moon.
- I. The first will be a total eclipse of the Moon, March 22nd, partly visible in the eastern United States, the moon setting eclipsed. The beginning will be visible in western North and South America, the Pacific Ocean, Australia, and the eastern border of Asia.
 - II. The second will be a partial eclipse of the Sun, April 6th, invisible in the United States except in California, Oregon, and Washington. Visible over the north eastern Pacific Ocean and Alaska.
 - III. The third will be a partial eclipse of the Sun, August 31st, invisible in the United States; visible in New Foundland, Labrador, and Greenland.
 - IV. The fourth will be a total eclipse of the Moon, September 15th, partly visible in the United States, only a small portion of the beginning being visible in the eastern states before the moon sets. The whole of the eclipse visible over the Pacific Ocean, Australia, and eastern Asia.
 - V. The fifth will be a partial eclipse of the Sun, invisible in the United States, visible on the southeast coast of Africa, Madagascar and the Antarctic continent.

The calculations for this Almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia, and are expressed in Eastern standard time. For places not on the standard meridian where standard time is kept, the following rule applies: For places west of the 75th meridian, add in the proportion of four minutes for each degree of difference of longitude; for places east, subtract. For moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, simply reduce from Eastern to required standard.

OUR YEAR OF JUBILEE.

The year 1913 is our year of jubilee. First and foremost, we are called upon to celebrate the 350th anniversary of the publication of the Heidelberg Catechism. Two hundred years ago, the first Palatins were building their homes in the Schoharie Valley in New York. Then there are other more modern events which it is well for our people to recall. The year 1863 was in many respects the most brilliant in the history of the Reformed Church in this country. That date marked the close of the formative period of our history and the beginning of an epoch of growth which in 1913 gives the Reformed Church a communicant membership of over 300,000. The celebration in that year of the 300th anniversary of the publication of Heidelberg Catechism stirred the whole Church and roused her to unusual activities. In the same year, the General Synod was organized. At that Synod, the Home and Foreign Mission Boards were re-organized, the Sunday School Board was created, and action was taken which led to the founding of Bethany Orphans' Home. These events should be recalled by our people in a spirit of thankfulness to God, and with a re-dedication in faith, unity and zeal, to the furtherance of His kingdom on earth.

HEIDELBERG AND THE CASTLE, GERMANY.

THE REFORMED CHURCH ALMANAC AND YEAR-BOOK.

Fifty years ago Dr. Harbaugh was at work on our first English Almanac. It was one of the first fruits of the spirit of the Tercentenary Celebration. It was published late in 1863 and was, of course, the Almanac for the year 1864. It was heralded with delight as an annual messenger "well calculated to do good and advance much profitable religious intelligence concerning our Church." It contained thirty-eight pages. It was unornate. But it is interesting as the beginning of a day of bigger things. Each year since then, the Reformed Church Almanac has been printed. In more recent years, there has been a second Almanac printed, under the auspices of the Ohio Synod. This year again there is one English Almanac for the whole Reformed Church, and is known as the Almanac and Year-Book of the Reformed Church in the United States.

With its exhibits of the varied and multiplied activities of the Reformed Church along all lines, at home and abroad, with its illustrations, its statistics, and its summaries, it is sent with a greeting to the families of the Reformed Church, and with the hope that it may be a sign of unity, generous co-operation, and enthusiasm in the work of our common Master.

UNIFICATION.

At different times in the immediate past efforts have been made to bring about the publication of such an Almanac and Year-Book as is now presented to the Church. The present spirit of the Church seemed to justify it. The desirability of such a united publication was still further emphasized by the fact that the Publication and Sunday School

THE COURTYARD, HEIDELBERG CASTLE—GERMANY.

Boards of the Church, during the year 1912, carried into effect that union approved of by the General Synod and endorsed by the three district Synods. Both these Boards for years had been rendering good service. Along some lines, however, they were rivals in business. Now they have become one in the Publication and Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church, the aim of which is to further every interest of our Reformed Zion by publishing good literature and by lending substantial aid wherever found practical. The Publication and Sunday School Board, together with the Board of Foreign Missions, the Board of Home Missions, the representatives of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and of the Mission Study Department are housed in the Reformed Church Building at Fifteenth and Race Streets, Philadelphia, a picture of which is found opposite our first calendar page. This picture represents not only the building in its present form but the property adjoining, which now belongs to the Publication and Sunday School Board, and which ground, it is expected, will soon be entirely covered by the enlarged Reformed Church Building. This in many ways will be advantageous. It is highly desirable if the Building is to house all the Boards of the Church, free of rent, that there be additional room by which a revenue can be secured for the maintenance of the Building itself. The project is worthy the generous financial aid of the Church.

Fifty thousand dollars in direct gifts or in the form of annuities would justify the Board in beginning work on the new addition. This sum should be contributed during this jubilee year.

THE PALACE AT AUGSBURG, WHERE ELECTOR FREDERCK III, DEFENDED THE CATECHISM.

THE 350th ANNIVERSARY OF THE PUBLISHING OF THE HEIDELBERG CATECHISM.

During this year, the 350th anniversary of the publishing of the Heidelberg Catechism will be celebrated by the Reformed Church. The Classes and Synods will hold anniversary services. The anniversary should be observed by every local church. This will furnish a fine opportunity to remind our people of the origin of the Reformed Church, to tell the public at large whence we have come, and to stir the Church to renewed and united effort along all lines of practical work.

It will be profitable to examine again the reasons for the publication of the Heidelberg Catechism.

The Heidelberg Catechism is the fairest flower of the Reformation. In many respects it is unexcelled. It is in a class by itself. "It has Lutheran sincerity, Melancthonian clear-$110,000 were given to the various benevolent objects of the Church. Nearly $40,000 were received by Franklin and Marshall College. It was the beginning of an epoch of growth and advancement. It would be a splendid thing if, during this year, there could be a practical revival of faith and of good works. Surely the time is ripe now when the Reformed Church should as one body, with united force, with renewed zeal, with a fresh consciousness of her mission under the leadership of Jesus Christ, go forward upon a new epoch of growth and advancement.

THE ORGANIZATION OF GENERAL SYNOD.

Following the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the publication of the Heidelberg Catechism the General Synod, which is now the highest legislative and executive body of the Reformed Church, was organized. It met in Grace Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., of which Rev. Dr. George B. Russell was pastor. Rev. Dr. John W. Nevin was elected President. Rev. Isaac H. Reiter was the first Stated Clerk. The General Synod became the official expression of the unity of the Church. Together with the Tercentenary Celebration, it marked the end of the formative period of the Reformed Church and the beginning of her modern history. Since then, as a Church we have been making real history and genuine progress. We have had our differences, our conflicts, our hot debates, but we have come through them undivided and strengthened. We will continue to have our differences and maintain our liberty, but in all and through all, we will remain one Church, with a history of which we can, in a godly way, be proud.

THEN AND NOW.

Fifty years ago when the General Synod was organized the Reformed Church had 447 ministers, 1099 congregations, and 98,775 members. She gave for all benevolent purposes $19,528,841. According to the latest statistics, the Reformed Church now has 1209 ministers and 34 licentiate, 1750 congregations, 300,952 members, a Sunday School enrollment of 299,950, monies contributed for benevolent objects $492,411, for congregational purposes $1,989,110. Surely the Lord has blessed us and made us strong. But what He has done for us and what we have become are but guarantees of the things

He has in store for us if we will now and in the future faithfully serve Him.

THE HUNGARIAN DAILY SCHOOL AT HOMESTEAD, PA.

The picture on page 19 represents the children of the Hungarian Vocational School at Homestead at their annual picnic. Such daily religious schools are held in each of our Hungarian missions during July and August. Besides the usual subjects taught in the ordinary school, the young people are instructed in matters pertaining to religion. In this particular school 56 children were enrolled, 20 taking catechetical instruction from the pastor and were later confirmed.

Jenners and Acosta, Somerset Co., Pa., new mission points, are typical new mining towns. The population of Jenners is about 1800; of Acosta, about 1200, of which a large part are foreigners.

Neither place has a church so the field is wide open. A hall at Jenners and a remodeled company house at Acosta are used for services. There should be a church at each place.

DAVID LIVINGSTONE.

DAVID LIVINGSTONE.

In Westminster Abbey the visitor, wandering about studying the monuments and inscriptions, comes in the middle of the nave upon a large black slab set in the floor bearing these words:

Brought by Faithful Hands over land and sea
here rests

DAVID LIVINGSTONE,
Missionary, Traveler, Philanthropist, Born March 19, 1813,
at Blantyre, Lanarkshire.
Died May 4, 1873, at Chitambo's Village, Luala.

On the right border of the stone is a Latin sentence, and along the left border:

Other sheep I have which are not of this fold, them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice.

This is the resting place of the body, but not of the heart, of the Scotch weaver lad who went out from his simple home unknown and died as one of the greatest and most honored of men.

The centennial of his birth will be celebrated this year throughout Europe and America and on all Mission Fields. He belongs to the Church Universal. The story of his life is a splendid one. It should be read and studied by all who are interested in the extension of the kingdom of Christ throughout the world. A copy of his life should be in every church, Sunday School and family library.

THE SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCES.

The Summer Training Conferences of the Missionary Education Movement of the United States and Canada were inaugurated July 18, 1902. Such conferences are now being held by 47 Mission Boards, including the Home and Foreign Mission Boards of the Reformed Church. During the close of 1912, the Missionary Education Movement urged the study of a text book on Home Missions as a preparation for the Home Mission Week—November 12-24, 1912. Beginning with January 1st, 1913, it urges the study of a text book on Foreign Missions to continue until March 19 when will be celebrated the centennial of the birth of David Livingstone.

THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

At Pittsburgh, in '63, the General Synod created a Sunday School Board and appointed the following members: Rev. Dr. J. H. A. Bomberger; Dr. E. V. Gerhart; Dr. S. H. Giesy; Dr. B. Bausman; Dr. G. W. Williard; Dr. P. C. Prugh and Elders C. Santee and G. S. Griffith. Dr. Schaff gave a donation of $500 to be used by the Sunday School Board for German Sunday School publications. At that time there were in the Reformed Church 894 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 17,404. During the half century since then our Sunday Schools have prospered so that today their membership is practically equal, if not larger, than the communicant membership of the church. This is a splendid growth. Many Schools have been enlarged and made stronger through the establishment of the Home Department, the Cradle Roll, Teacher Training Classes and the Organized Adult Class. From infancy to old age everyone is expected, in these modern times, to be a member of the Sunday School. The business of the Publication and Sunday School Board, among other things, is to foster the Sunday School and so care for the children of the church.

TEACHERS AND GRADUATES, 1912, LITERARY AND THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENTS, NORTH JAPAN COLLEGE, SENDAI.

The year 1913 marks the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the Board of Foreign Missions. Such an anniversary deserves recognition on the part of the Church by special gifts for the work in Japan and China.

Foreign Mission Day on February 9th, 1913 will afford a fine opportunity for our congregations and Sunday Schools to attest their interest by liberal offerings in the spread of the Gospel among the non-Christian peoples of the world.

There are 410 students in our North Japan College and 145 in the Miyagi Girls' School at Sendai, Japan. A better class of students and more thorough work are encouraging signs.

TEACHERS AND GRADUATES, 1912, NORTH JAPAN COLLEGE SENDAI.

GIRLS' SCHOOL,

The new Girls' School building at Yochow City cost $7,053.34.

The Chinese people are doing in a few years what Christian nations have done in generations. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the great leader in the New China, said: "I hope that by obeying the voice of heaven and the people, I may be able to establish a Kingdom of God on earth and make the government of the Republic pure and righteous."

The queue has been worn in China since 1644. Today none are to be seen in the cities on the coast and very few even in the interior.

The Famines in China impose great burdens on the missionaries. Dr. William Kelly did heroic service during the past year in ministering to the needs of the starving millions.

The need for physicians, nurses, teachers and evangelists in China is great. Who will go to work in our Stations at Yochow or Shenchowfu?

TEACHERS AND GRADUATES 1912, GIRLS' SCHOOL, SENDAI, JAPAN.

To do the work that needs to be done now in our two foreign missions will require $250,000 annually. There is only one way to obtain this amount, and that is by a large increase of individual givers.

The new Emperor of Japan, Yoshihita, who is only 33 years old, has chosen for the motto of his reign, "Taisei" (Great Righteousness).

Two out of three people in the world live in non-Christian lands. Two out of three of these non-Christian people have never heard of the Gospel. Two out of three people in the Christian Church give nothing toward the work of Missions at home or abroad.

There are nearly five million Christians in the Protestant Churches alone in the heathen world.

A low estimate of the property of our Church in Japan and China is $275,000.00. We have a Christian constituency of about 5000.

Rev. Elmer H. Zaugg of our Japan Mission is the Christian Endeavor Missionary. Our Young People's Societies are invited to contribute towards his support.

The Station plan is a most attractive form of helping the work in Japan and China. The cost of an out-station varies from $200 to $600.

Japan has over 1,000 missionaries.

China has 1,500,000 native Christians.

More than 5,000,000 Bibles have been circulated in Japan.

There are about 20,000 Christian missionaries in the world with 100,000 native helpers.

There are 1558 walled cities in China. Only 400 of them have resident missionaries.

The Missionary Societies at work in China have over 950 ordained missionaries and 178,000 communicants.

THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

Its Origin and Character.

The church historian, Dr. Schaff, divides Protestantism into two branches, the Lutheran and Reformed. They originated about the same time, in the second decade of the Sixteenth Century. The leader of the Lutheran branch was Martin Luther of Germany (1483-1546); and of the Reformed branch, Ulric Zwingli of Switzerland (1484-1531). After Zwingli's death John Calvin became the controlling personality of the Reformed churches.

The two branches of Protestantism are subdivided into numerous denominations. The Reformed movement spread over Europe and became an organized church in many countries. In Holland we have the Dutch Reformed; in Germany, the German Reformed; in France, the Huguenots; in Scotland, the Presbyterians. The churches of the Reformed type, unlike the Lutheran, did not keep one name or one confession to bind them together. They are, however, animated by a common spirit which appears in their cults, polity and doctrine, and which makes them members of one spiritual household. The names given to the various Reformed churches were taken from the land in which they were established, or from the form of government, or from some other prominent characteristic. In the broadest sense, then, the Reformed churches are all those Protestant denominations which are not Lutheran nor Anabaptist. Their membership throughout the world is according to Professor Kattenbusch, 100,000,000—57,000,000 in America.

HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY, TIFFIN, O.

The Reformed Church in the United States is a member of the Reformed family of churches and is composed mainly of the descendants of German, Swiss and French Reformed people who settled in this country. The prevailing national elements are German and Swiss; but these, in the last 175 years, have been so thoroughly Americanized and Anglicised that the official name was changed in 1863 from "The German Reformed Church" to "The Reformed Church in the United States." Historically its nearest kin are the Dutch Reformed, the Presbyterians, and the Congregationalists. Yet it differs in some respects from these churches, a difference which is largely due to the German genius and to the development of a distinctive type of doctrine and life since the Sixteenth Century.

The characteristic doctrines of this denomination are found in the Heidelberg Catechism, published in the Palatinate, Germany, in 1563. It is considered one of the most irenic confessions of Protestantism, and on that account has been designated as a most acceptable basis for the reunion of Reformed Churches. It avoids the extreme of Calvinistic predestination on the one hand, and of the Lutheran corporal real presence on the other. It lays stress upon the mystical union of the believer with Christ through the word of God. In this way it escapes a lifeless ecclesiasticism, a lawless fanaticism, and a magical sacramentarianism. While it has the highest regard for church organization—the ministry, the sacraments, and the forms of worship—it considers these only as means by which the truth of the Gospel is revealed and confirmed in the mind and heart of the believer. "The Holy Ghost works faith in our hearts by the preaching of the Holy Gospel, and confirms it by the use of the Holy Sacraments." (Heid. Cat.) It is a tolerant church, recognizing the authority and equality of other denominations. This it can do consistently because it does not find the essence of Christianity in a particular doctrine, rite, or polity. It does not limit the true Church by a definition of the real presence, by a mode of baptism, or by a form of organization. These are matters of secondary import, not essential to the being of the Church. The basis for Christian fellowship between the churches is the Christ-life in the believer. Where that exists we find brethren, regardless of the name; where that is wanting we have no fellowship, however lofty the claims may be.

It is an educational church. True to the ideal of "the Church of the Word," it has always practised Christian nurture in the family, in the school, and in the catechetical class. Children of Christian parents are to be reared as members of the Church and children of God. It has insisted on an educated ministry. Alongside of the mission church a school house was usually erected by the early settlers. Colleges and seminaries were founded as soon as possible by their descendants. It believes in a preparation of the child for confession of faith and full church membership by educating the reason and conscience in the word of God. It is not by ecclesiastical performances, or by fanatical excitement that faith is wrought in the heart, but by the light and warmth of God's truth and love. True enthusiasm and piety are the fruit of the Word in the believer.

It stands for applied Christianity. Patriotism and religion cannot be separated. The industrial life must be permeated by the principles of the Gospel. The indisputable evidence of conversion is Christian morality. It is not enough to get men into heaven; we must get heaven into men. The purpose of the Church is not simply to reach the individual, but to bring society and government under the power of the Christ.

In point of time, the Reformed Church in the United States is among the oldest Protestant churches. In point of its past history, it is the martyr Church of Protestantism. In point of its genius, it is the most liberal and yet most protestant of all churches in Christendom. Owing to its German origin, it has not advanced as rapidly as the English denominations. Yet it has taken a noble part from colonial times in the education, civilization and Christianization of a substantial portion of our great Republic.

ITEMS OF EXCEPTIONAL INTEREST GLEANED FROM LAST YEAR'S RECORDS.

The Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mission completed its $7500 church.

¶ What the trade journal is to the merchant, or the technical paper to the manufacturer, or the literary magazine to the student,

The Religious Paper Is to the Christian.

He simply cannot do without it and not suffer loss.

He needs its news of the kingdom.

He needs its reports of his own church.

He needs its solutions of the practical problems of Christian life and religious work.

He needs it as a school of methods.

He needs its inspiration as, like a shuttle, it weaves the scattered threads of religious news and spiritual influence into one great fabric.

Rev. Gerard B. F. Hallock, D. D., says:

"Let me urge all to include in their reading good religious periodicals. They are the trade journals of the Kingdom. The religious newspaper is both a medium of communication and a herald of Christian achievement. It is an absolute necessity if one would keep informed of the progress of Christ's Kingdom in the world. A good religious periodical tends to expand the intellect, open the heart, incite to more diligent study of the Bible, lead to greater interest in Sunday-school, church and mission work, and widen the whole mental, moral and spiritual outlook, thus proving a powerful stimulus to spiritual growth. Every young convert taking such a publication would find it confirming his faith, widening his horizon, and strongly promoting his growth in grace. Every Christian young man or young woman alone in a great city would find it bringing welcome and helpful companionship, and a fine source of intellectual and spiritual uplift. No young married couple, next to the Bible and family altar, can afford to do without a thing so desirable as a good Christian periodical."

GERMAN HOSPITAL :- 3305 FRANKLIN AVE. CLEVELAND OHIO

¶ This institution is under the supervision of a "Society for the Relief of the Sick and Needy."

¶ Our Training School for Nurses affords most excellent opportunities for young women who wish to devote themselves to nursing.

¶ Our Hospital has thus far proven itself to be one of the best of its kind. During the past year we have been crowded for room. The Society for the Relief of the Sick and Needy therefore decided at its last annual meeting to erect a suitable fire-proof addition as soon as possible. It is to be ready for occupancy by the spring of 1913. We feel assured that our friends will stand by us in the erection of this addition which will cost no less than $30,000, thereby enabling the institution by the help of God to continue its blessed work for the sick and needy.

¶ For further information respecting admittance to the Training School, and nursing and medical attendance, etc., address the Superintendent of the institution.

Barlow's Indigo Blue

WASH BLUE OF AMERICA

It is over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for a half century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard Blueing throughout the country.

Trade Mark is registered and we caution the trade against handling goods imitating style and appearance.

In this year there will be two eclipses, both of the Sun.

I. The first will be an annular eclipse of the Sun, February 13th, invisible in the United States, visible in the southern Indian ocean, Australia, New Guinea, and the western Pacific ocean.

II. The second will be an annular eclipse of the Sun, August 10th, invisible in the United States, visible in the Pacific ocean; the path along which it will be seen as an annulus beginning about 700 miles south of Japan and extending southeastwardly across the ocean to the south of the Sandwich islands and north of the Marquesas islands. It will be seen as a partial eclipse in Sendai, Japan, about seven-tenths of the Sun's diameter being covered, the eclipse beginning about 3:20 P.M., and ending about 5:15 P.M. Eastern Standard time. In eastern China the end of the eclipse will be seen as the Sun rises.

The calculations for this Almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia, and are expressed in Eastern Standard Time. For places not on the standard meridian and where standard time is kept, the following rule applies: For places west of the 75th meridian, add in the proportion of four minutes for each degree of difference of longitude, for places east subtract. For moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, reduce from Eastern to the standard in use.

HOW WE GROW

When we compare ourselves with ourselves, and that is the only just comparison, we need not be discouraged, but rather cheered. Just note our comparative progress. At the first meeting of the Coetus in Philadelphia, on September 29, 1747, there were present 4 ministers and 28 elders representing 21 charges. When the first Synod met in Lancaster on April 27, 1793, there were 13 ministers present and 9 absent. Under the Synod there were 100 congregations, with a membership of 11,680. The number of congregations not under the Synod was 78, with 13 ministers and 4000 members. The Church then, in 1793 had a total membership of 15,680. In 1863, when the General Synod was organized, the following statistics are given: Classes, 27; Ministers, 460; Congregations, 1134; Members, 107,394.

The growth of the Church since then is a familiar story. Turn over to the records given in the later pages of this book exhibiting the reports of last year, and the reports of this year which are still better. 1913-1914 has been our banner year. Our last year has been our best year. The records are cheering; the outlook is encouraging; our inheritance is a fine one; our present resources are adequate. Our future is bright, but we need today for that very reason to dedicate ourselves with increased energy and faith and with renewed courage to the Lord and his work.

COMPARING OURSELVES WITH OURSELVES

The time was, and that not long ago, when the members of our Church objected to speakers or editors comparing us and our Church, and our work, and our growth, with the work and growth, and members of other communions. But that time is past. Other churches are our sister churches. Their members are our relatives in the Lord. We all belong to the one big Church of Jesus Christ; and we can each learn from the other. We have, let us acknowledge, learned some things and we have still some things to learn from other churches, and other churches have, and can continue, to learn some things from us. But, as has been stated so admirably in the survey recently given of the Church, in making an estimate of our resources and our strength, it is more profitable to compare ourselves with ourselves. In making estimates of our resources and our comparative strength, we should bear in mind certain characteristics of our German, to mark the anniversaries which fall in each calendar year. In this year, 1915, we should recall the 500th anniversary of the martyrdom of John Huss, the 300th anniversary of the slaughter of the Huguenots—French Reformed—near the present city of St. Augustine, and the 150th anniversary of the death of Col. Boquet, a hero of the Indian Wars and a member of the Reformed Church.

JOHN HUSS—THE BOHEMIAN MARTYR

It is simply a matter of history that Zwingli, Luther and Calvin, in principle, taught nothing new. The same truths were taught by others long before them. But these men succeeded in their work and the Church profited mightily by their service, whilst such men as John Huss, Jerome of Prague, Wickliff and others, who were the morning stars of the Reformation, failed. Times had changed. There had been a revival in learning, a revolution in society, in travel and in trade. The men and the times in God's providence met. The other men lived before their times and paid the penalty with their lives.

John Huss, of Bohemia, was born in 1369. He was summoned before the council of Constance in 1413 and was condemned to death on July 6, 1415. He went, it is said, to his death singing hymns of praise and prophesying the Reformation. His death brought about a revolt against the Church of Rome which, in spite of the slaughter of a great number of nobles in Prague in 1421, resulted in lasting effects on the spiritual life of Bohemia which, though it is in large part today Catholic, yet regards Huss as a national hero. With the exception of the followers of Zinzendorf, who became Moravians, the followers of Huss identified themselves with the Reformed Church. The life and work of Huss, therefore, should be re-studied and honored by our Reformed people.

AMERICA'S FIRST PROTESTANT COLONY

Another anniversary which should be marked by us and the whole family of Reformed people is the massacre of John Ribaut, a distinguished naval officer, and five hundred French Reformed Protestants, near the present city of St. Augustine, by a Spaniard, Admiral Menendes, in the fall of 1565, after they had surrendered to superior forces, on the promise of being returned in safety to their native country. They were sent by Admiral Coligny to found a colony that would be an asylum for the persecuted Reformed Christians of France. This was the earliest Protestant colony on this continent. The blood of these Reformed martyrs dying for their faith consecrated the land of this new world long before the Cavaliers and Puritans of England landed in Virginia and Massachusetts. The place where they died should be visited by representatives of the families of the Reformed Churches and a memorial should be set up marking the place of their martyrdom. At the same time, the story of this and all the other anniversaries should be studied and re-told to our people; for we should never allow our people and their children to forget by what great sacrifices and at what a cost of life and treasure our civil and religious liberties have been bought.

THE REFORMED HERO OF THE INDIAN WARS

In 1764 hundreds of white captives—women, boys and girls, held by the Indians in the valleys of the Ohio—were returned to civilization and to Christian homes in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia. We can easily imagine the rejoicing on the part of their friends, nor is it difficult to recall the conditions of the widely scattered colonies, the lonely frontier garrisons, and the horror of the Indian Wars. These things are here recalled this year because of the 150th anniversary of the death of Col. Boquet, of Reformed faith, great military renown, and wise statesmanship, at Pensacola, September 2, 1765, where he had gone to settle further Indian disturbances after he had been promoted to be Brigadier-General by the King of England because of his great victory at the battle of Bushy Run, August 6, 1763, when he defeated the Eastern Confederates of the great Indian chief Pontiac, and thus guaranteed the supremacy of the Anglo-Saxon nation in the valley of the Mississippi. Col. Boquet was a Swiss by birth and a Reformed by faith, and so were many of his soldiers. Others were settlers from Pennsylvania and Maryland. By many Boquet is considered the greatest soldier of colonial times, so wise and intelligent that had he lived he would have been one of the commanding figures, if not the commanding figure, of the American Revolution.

FOREIGN MISSION NOTES

Foreign Mission Day February 14, 1915.

In an attractive booklet Rev. J. G. Rupp, Foreign Mission Field Secretary, tells where to invest one's money in order to get rich returns. If you would like to know more about it, address the Foreign Mission Board.

In The History of the China Mission by Rev. Wm. E. Hoy, D.D., which was published last year, the Doctor has given the Church a splendid record of its work in China.

If all the financiers of all the world were to discuss for one hundred years the best methods of church missionary finances they could not improve on the divine plan of a proportionate weekly offering from every Christian as an act of worship.

"A Survey of the Reformed Church in the United States" is a splendid volume of 212 pages, the result of a painstaking labor of four commissions, and presents a most complete exhibit of the work of the Reformed Church in all its varied activities. It is a very mine of valuable information and should be in the hands of every intelligent member of the Church. Address the Foreign Mission Board.

REV. E. H. GUINThER.

MRS. E. H. GUINThER.

Five years ago, in its Foreign Mission Policy, our Church assumed responsibility for the evangelization of three million souls in the Moslem World. This fact has been incorporated in the literature of other Foreign Mission Boards, and we are under solemn obligations to fulfill this part of our world task. Very little effort has been made on the part of the Church to discharge this responsibility. Shall our Church much longer appear derelict to her trust?

ONE CENTURY'S WORK

A century ago nearly every country in Asia and Africa was closed to the Gospel; there were practically no missionaries; now there are 22,000 missionaries.

Then, the Bible had been translated into sixty-five languages or dialects; now, into more than 500.

Then, there were contributed a few thousands of dollars a year; now $25,000,000.

Then, there was no native ministry; now, nearly 93,000 native pastors, evangelists, etc.

Then, there were no single women missionaries; now, there are over 6000.

Then, there were just a few mission schools started; now, there are over 30,000 Protestant schools and colleges.

Then, there were no mission presses; now, there are 160 publishing houses and mission presses, and 400 Christian periodicals published on the mission field.

Then, not a solitary mission or charitable institution; now, 400 mission hospitals, and over 500 orphanages and asylums.

Then, Judson, Carey, and Morrison had to labor from seven to ten years for a first convert; now, there are more than 2,000,000 Protestant Christians in heathen lands, besides all who have passed on.

HOME MISSION NOTES

The total receipts of the Board were $151,250.

During the entire history of our Home Mission work the sum of $2,747,530 has been received from the Church.

The Board has 438 Church-building Funds representing more than a quarter of a million of dollars.

REV. ALEXANDER RADACSI, PASTOR HUNGARIAN REFORMED CHURCH, UNIONTOWN, PA.

The Board of Home Missions has 238 missions on its roll; 94 of them are under the direct care of the German Boards, 12 of them are Hungarian, three Bohemian, one Japanese, one Italian, two Colored and one Harbor.

During last year the Board enrolled 11 missions and assisted in the building of 13 churches for the missions.

Evangelism and Social Service have been assigned to the Board of Home Missions, and special departments to develop these phases of the work have been created.

Mission work among the Italians has been carried forward by the Board in connection with Messiah Mission, Philadelphia.

The Board has assisted in work among colored people at Louisville, Ky. and at Bowling Green, Ky. to the amount of $1000 at each point.

The Gift Funds of the Home Mission Board amount to $25,000. These are given as outright gifts to Missions. There is urgent need for a largely increased number of Gift Funds.

The Board of Home Missions has projected a plan whereby most of the missions in Philadelphia will be adequately equipped with buildings and will go to self-support within a period of five years.

"Our Home Mission Work" is the title of a Mission Study Text Book giving a complete survey of the Home Mission work of the Reformed Church in the United States. It is indispensable to students of our own denominational work at home.

The largest single Fund the Home Mission Board ever received is $11,000. The second largest is $10,000.

The largest Home Mission field is among the Germans in the Synod of the Northwest. The General Synod's Board is contributing one out of every $15 of its receipts to the German work.

The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod completed 41 Church-building Funds.

The Evangelical Reformed Church of Frederick, Md. has twenty Church-building Funds to its credit.

In the five English Synods of our Church 54.8-10 per cent live in the country; 45.2-10 per cent in towns and cities. In the three German Synods 37 per cent live in the country and 63 per cent in the city. Taking the whole Reformed Church we find that just one-half of our people live in the country and exactly one-half in the city.

THE WALDENSIANS

The Waldensians are the Protestants in Italy. They have an interesting and honorable history. They lived for centuries in the lovely valleys of the Cottean Alps, near Turin, on the border of France. In the past they suffered great persecution, but the centuries of persecution only increased their religious faith. In 1848 the house of Savoy granted them their liberty. Today they are a free church in a free state. They now have self-supporting churches in the larger cities of Italy. They have their mission churches, their schools and their orphanages. In Rome, besides the church in the Via Nazio Nale, there is a fine new church opposite the Palace of Justice, which is the gift of the late Mrs. John S. Kennedy, of New York.

RURAL SUNDAY SCHOOLS

More than one-half of the Sunday Schools in the United States are in the country, with a membership of less than 100 and an average attendance of about 65. Our own Reformed Church has more than 300 Sunday Schools in the country. But the Sunday School, wherever it is located, can be an up-to-date and efficient Sunday School.

Many people of large and small means are contributing to Missions, Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Orphans' Homes, Ministerial Relief and many other fine charitable objects. The work of the Publication and Sunday School Board, the Board that cares for the children, should not be forgotten. Remember it while you live and in your will.

TEACHER TRAINING CLASSES

All over the country Teacher Training Classes are being organized. At the completion of the course in Teacher Training, graduation exercises are held. These are among the most popular services of the year. The graduation essays and addresses are proofs of the practical help obtained from the course of study. The whole Sunday School work is placed in a new light and upon a higher plane. The Teacher Training graduating exercise has become an interesting feature in our church year.

The largest Teacher Training Class graduated at any one time in the Reformed Church is that of New Knoxville, Ohio. Rev. Josiah Friedli, the busy pastor, meets with the class, which is divided in two sections, each week.

Last year 1500 students were enrolled in the Teacher Training Classes of the Reformed Church.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF PEACE

The centenary of the treaty of Ghent, signed on Christmas eve, 1814, which marked the beginning of one hundred years of continuous peace between Canada and the United States, was widely observed. Let us remember that during all this time the Sunday School Army, under the leadership of the "Prince of Peace" has been growing until now it is the largest organized army in the world. More than thirty millions are enrolled in the Sunday Schools of the world. Of this number there are nearly two million officers and teachers in the schools of the United States and Canada and more than sixteen million scholars. Let us rejoice that in the last nine years this great Sunday School Army of children and young people and grown folks has been increased by the enrollment of nearly three million men in the Organized Men's Classes.

Our Reformed Sunday Schools everywhere are organizing Adult Bible Classes.

DO YOU KNOW THESE THINGS?

Do you know that we have in this country 16 Academies, Colleges and Theological Seminaries with property worth $2,954,000, and with endowments amounting to $1,378,909?

We have 5 Orphans' Homes which take care of 415 fatherless and motherless children at a cost of $51,887 a year, and own property worth $410,636.

Our Home Mission Board has Church-Building Funds amounting to $244,210.

The property of our Foreign Missions in China and Japan is worth $282,747.

The membership of the Reformed Churches throughout the world numbers 26,200,000.

The minimum salary of a minister in the Reformed Church should be $900, according to the action taken by several of our Synods. Accordingly, the average church should raise its pastor's salary at least 20 per cent.

As Christians we should spend as much for the salvation of others as we do for our own salvation. Our rule of giving, therefore, should be, "As much for others as for ourselves."

The apportionment should be considered as the least the Church asks of us in order that she may conduct the Lord's business. After paying the apportionment there is abundant opportunity for free will offerings.

Every member of the church should not only contribute to the local church but to the real business of the church, which is to save the world.

How shall we gather enough funds for the Master's business? After information and prayer, a gift each week from every member, using the means of grace, and according to biblical business methods.

Our church is located in the richest farming section of the world, and has in her possession an abundance of wealth. The farming products of this country have, in the last 14 years, increased 100 per cent.

According to the Bureau of Census, the value of church buildings and parsonages of the Reformed Church advanced from $7,975,583 in 1890 to $14,-

THE LARGER FIELD

During the last two decades church-members have multiplied in a remarkable degree.

The net gain for the twenty years (1890-1910) in our land was 14,626,989. It must not be forgotten that before any net increase can be reported the losses due to death, removal, withdrawal, excommunication, etc., must be made good out of new accessions. The 14,626,989 of net increase in the twenty years represent a growth of nearly 71 per cent.—The Religious Forces of the United States,—H. K. Carroll.

There are more than 1,690,739 Sunday School officers and teachers in America, a gain of 19,893 over the record of three years ago.

The total Sunday School enrollment is 18,441,036, being a gain of 1,823,686, meaning that 1665 new members join our Sunday Schools for every day of the year.

The Home Department shows a membership of 788,057, being a gain of 143,640.

The Cradle Rolls now number over 44,000 with an enrollment of over a million. This indicates a gain of 347,000.

The New England Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has recommended $850 as the minimum cash salary for ministers in small towns, with a parsonage and at least one acre of land; in large cities and towns no minister should receive less than $1000 in cash, with a parsonage.

Eleven Churches now have missions in Alaska, the two leading denominations being the Presbyterian, with thirty-one mission stations, and the Protestant Episcopal, with twenty stations.

During the past four years the Northern Presbyterian Church received 333,599 members, and the net gain in membership was 128,179.

The monies for the coming year's benevolent work in the Presbyterian Church is presented to the people of that communion in an annual budget, which amounts to $4,275,000.

There were a large number of Daily Vacation Bible Schools held in the city of Philadelphia during last summer. In all there were one hundred, with 300 teachers and over 7000 children. Fourteen of the schools were for the benefit of the children of Hebrews.

The Michigan Christian Advocate says: "One of the recent books on church efficiency has called attention to the fact that eighty-two per cent of the church members in America come from Sunday School, but that only fifteen per cent of the Sunday School scholars ever unite with the Church."

The Michigan Christian Advocate says: "There are about 37,000,000 nominal Christians in the United States. Of this number, about 24,000,000 are Protestants, and about 13,000,000 are Catholics. That is, one person in every three in this country is a nominal Christian, one in every four is a Protestant, and one in every eight is a Catholic."

The report of the Book Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church shows that in the year ending January 1, 1914, the losses on their leading publications are as follows: New York Christian Advocate, $19,000; Western Christian Advocate, $15,000; Northwestern Christian Advocate, $17,000; Central Christian Advocate, $14,000; Epworth Herald, $12,000.

The offerings for Foreign Missions during last year on the part of the four leading Protestant Churches of America are tabulated with the following results: The Methodist Episcopal Church leads with $2,376,628. The Protestant Episcopal Church comes next with $1,973,608, the Presbyterian Church slightly less, with $1,861,910. The Baptists of the Northern Convention gave $1,195,523.

The Outlook quotes from the book called "The Profitable Wage" by Edward E. Sheasgreen, the suggestive paragraph as follows: "In 365 days there are (twenty-four hours to the day) 8670 hours. The Church is open on an average of 600 hours a year, the schools about 1900 hours, the average factory about 2400 hours, and the average business concern about 2800 hours, while the saloon and other like resorts are open about 4725 hours."

The average contribution for every communicant member of the Canadian Presbyterian Church, last year, was $18.31. The Church has 304,832 communicants. Last year there was a net gain in membership of 13,367. The reason why the members of this Church are so liberal may be found in another item in the report to the effect that the Presbyterian Record, the official organ of the Canadian Presbyterian Church, has a subscription list of 68,000. That nearly means a Church paper in every family.

GERMAN HOSPITAL

3305 FRANKLIN AVE. CLEVELAND, OHIO

THE purpose of this institution is the care of the sick and needy under the direction of an association organized for this purpose. In connection with the Hospital a Training School for Nurses is being conducted, in which a thorough training is given to young women who desire to prepare themselves as trained nurses.

The association under the direction of which the institution is conducted is composed of persons who upon application are received into membership by the Board of Trustees and pay annually the sum of one dollar or more as membership dues. To become a member of the association has a twofold value. In the first place, all members, in case they need hospital care, are entitled to a rebate of 20% on the regular hospital charges; in the second place, if such service is not needed, there is the assurance that the fee has aided in the support of a good and charitable work.

The Hospital is a distinctively Christian institution. The Board of Trustees are members of the Reformed Church. We invite friends to become members of the association and also ask for additional liberal support for this worthy cause. The attention of the young women of the church is directed to our Training School.

BARLOW'S Indigo Blue

The Tried and True Wash Blue of America

IT is over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for half a century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard Blueing throughout the country.

Little's Cross and Crown System

Doubles, Sunday School Attendance and Offerings

How to Use the System

Begin by presenting every scholar with the No. 0 celluloid pin. For every term of three months' un-interrupted attendance the pupil earns a reward. For the first term the No. 1 pin; for the second the No. 2 pin; for the third the No. 3 pin; for the fourth the No. 6 pin. Thirteen consecutive Sundays may be considered as three months. Pupils absent without a satisfactory excuse lose the interrupted term, but may begin a new term the next Sunday they attend, continuing to wear the pin already earned.

Each pin obtained is to be worn until the next higher grade is earned, but surrendered upon receiving the new one. The No. 6 solid gold pin is presented outright, and with it a handsome lithographed certificate, 9x11 inches, with seal and ribbon attached (for framing). For each additional reward earned another seal and ribbon is attached. These certificates are free to schools. Send for sample.

The System pays for itself by increased offerings as evidenced by numerous testimonials, and may be started successfully at any time. This has been repeatedly proven by actual results.

The computations for this Almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia and are expressed in Eastern Standard Time. For places not on the standard meridian where standard time is kept, the following rule applies: For places west of the 75th meridian add in the proportion of four minutes for each degree of difference of longitude; for places east, subtract. For moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, simply reduce from Eastern to required Standard.

THE ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK

OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

SPECIAL significance is attached to the ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for 1917, the quarto-centenary of the Protestant Reformation. The Reformed Church historically occupies an important place in the great Protestant movement and the celebration of the 400th Anniversary will be enthusiastically observed throughout our denomination.

It is quite natural, therefore, that the contents of the ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for 1917 should be, in part at least, of an historical character.

The Reformation cannot be considered as an isolated event in history. Associated with it were a great many "latent tendencies," and involved in it were a great many "ulterior consequences." For the purpose of this brief introduction, Ullman's definition serves our purpose very well: "The Reformation, viewed in its most general character, was the reaction of Christianity as Gospel against Christianity as law." It emphasized the authority of the Scriptures and aimed as Neander says, "to carry forward the work of purifying the Christian consciousness to its entire completion."

It is not within the province of the Almanac to discuss the Reformation. The question of priority, as to the time of the beginning of the work of the various Reformers, we regard of minor importance.

The ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK has the largest circulation of any one periodical in the Reformed Church, and its space, therefore, is very valuable. Having this in mind, we entered into an arrangement with the Association of Schools, Colleges and Seminaries of the Reformed Church, to stress the cause of Education by devoting a large proportion of the contents of the ALMANAC for 1917 to the interests of the various institutions of learning in our denomination. This is the first time in the history of the Reformed Church that the cause of Education is presented to our people in a perfectly united effort. The Reformation, while it is, "in its distinctive character a religious event, is not an isolated phenomenon." To a large extent it was an educational movement and, as pointed out elsewhere, the Christian Education Movement associated with the celebration of the 400th Anniversary of the Reformation "is both logical and important."

In the selection of pictures we made use of the very best accessible. From the very nature of the case it was impossible to give to our readers a list of illustrations which would be in any way comprehensive. For convenience we grouped the pictures around the three great characters, Zwingli, Luther and Calvin. The readers of the ALMANAC will no doubt appreciate the time and expense involved in the publication of a periodical so profusely illustrated. For many of the illustrations we are indebted to Rev. James I. Good, D. D., who kindly placed his valuable collection at our disposal.

The increased cost of paper and half-tone illustrations necessitates a general revision of prices in the publication business. In this respect the ALMANAC is no exception.

THE REFORMATION

BY KAULBACH, BERLIN

DESCRIPTION OF THE ILLUSTRATIONS

The readers of the ALMANAC will recognize the picture on the cover as the birthplace of Zwingli. It is a reproduction from an old engraving.

Group I Page 9

Ulrich Zwingli, the Great Swiss Reformer

Marburg, Germany—an interesting old German town, beautifully situated, chiefly on a hill, at the base of which extends the lovely valley of the Lahn. The castle was built in 1065. In one of its halls, the Conference between Luther and Zwingli took place.

The Conference at Marburg—this picture represents the Conference in action between Luther and Zwingli on the Lord's Supper. Zwingli and Luther are standing to the right, the latter pointing his finger to the table.

Thomas Wyttenbach—a close associate with Zwingli in the Swiss Reformation. "He was a man of liberal tendencies, as well as, devout character, who predicted the downfall of the scholastic theology and imparted impulses to his pupils which eventually carried them beyond his own position."

Jacob Faber (or Lefevre), 1450-1536—one of the pioneers of Protestantism in France. He taught some time, pursued classical studies in Italy and became a professor in Paris. Very early in the Reformation period he taught the doctrine of justification by faith in his lectures.

John Ecolampadius—an eminent co-adjutor of Zwingli's. He was a noted scholar and temperamentally resembled Melancthon. He belonged to the school of Erasmus. He was the leader of the Reformation in Basle. He was born in 1482.

Berthold Haller—one of the Reformers of Berne, was born in Wurttemberg in 1492. He was a fellow student with Melancthon. He was assistant to Wyttenbach in St. Vincent's Church. Early in life he made the acquaintance of Zwingli, who was ever afterward his faithful friend.

Zwingli Preaching at Berne—an outstanding feature in Zwingli's work was his preaching. It was at Berne where he preached with great effect on three of the articles of the Apostles' Creed. "These articles," he declared, "contradict the mass." In connection with this incident is associated the conversion of a Catholic priest, who, casting aside his priestly robes, exclaimed, "Unless the mass rests on a more solid foundation, I can celebrate it no longer."

Dr. J. H. A. Bomberger at Zwingli's Monument.—Zwingli was killed in the battle of Cappel, October 11, 1531. He died refusing the ministrations of a priest. His body was quartered and burned. His last words were, "They may kill the body but they cannot kill the soul." On one of Dr. James I. Good's many visits to Switzerland, Dr. J. H. A. Bomberger accompanied him, and the venerable Doctor was photographed standing beside the monument of Zwingli at Cappel.

Wittenberg.—Famous as the place where Luther nailed his "Ninety-five Theses" on the door of the Castle Church.

Reading the Ninety-five Theses.—The Theses were received with popular favor. In a few weeks their influence had spread over entire Germany, and within a few months throughout Europe.

Luther's Father and Mother.—His parents were of the peasant class. Before his birth the family moved to Eisleben from Mohra, a village in the Thuringian Forest, near the spot where Boniface, the apostle of Germany, first preached the Gospel. Luther says, "I am a peasant's son; my father, my grandfather, my great-grandfather were thorough peasants (rechte Bauern)."

Philip Melancthon, 1497-1560.—Luther's fellow-laborer in the Reformation. He was educated at the University of Heidelberg and Tübingen. In his life he made an early stand for the Reformation and brought to the aid of Luther his great attainments and learning. He was possessed of "remarkable power both of clear thinking and of clearly expressing his thoughts, and with all, a gentleness and moderation that most advantageously tempered Luther's vehemence." He was conciliatory in the extreme, and as such he will ever be revered.

Elector Johann, Surnamed "The Constant."—Elector Frederick was succeeded by his brother Johann. Johann was devoted heart and soul to Luther's cause and was glad to let it be known. He died August 16, 1532, and was buried in the Castle Church at Wittenberg, Luther officiating.

Burning the Papal Bull.—Luther's defiance of papal authority reached a crisis when he burned the bull, which the pope had published against him on December 10, 1520, at Wittenberg.

CALVIN, THE GREAT THEOLOGIAN OF THE REFORMATION

St. Peter's Cathedral, Geneva.—This is the church in which Calvin generally preached. It is sometimes referred to as "the Westminster Abbey of the Reformed Church," because here are buried many of the great men of the Reformation period.

Calvin's Theological School, Geneva.—Calvin was a firm believer in education, especially for the ministry. Such a school was founded in Geneva in 1588 with the learned Beza as its principal. At the time of Calvin's death it had 1500 students.

Theodore Beza, 1519-1605.—He was born of a noble family. Next to Calvin he was the most energetic and influential of the Genevese Reformers. He was especially learned in the Greek language. He was thoroughly grounded in the principles of his master, Calvin, in whose spirit he vigorously ruled the Genevan Church for forty years, exercising the influence of a patriarch.

William Farel, 1489-1565—the greatest Evangelist of the Reformation—was a man of great force of character. It is said, "He feared no man, only God." It was Farel, who prayed that God might send him a helper. The answer came in the person of John Calvin, already famous. Farel and Calvin thus became co-laborers in the Reformation.

Peter Viret, 1511-1571—"the Boy Preacher of the Reformation." He was ordained by Farel in 1531. In 1534 he became his assistant at Geneva. Beza and Viret became friends at Lausanne. He occupied many positions of influence and importance, though his career was characterized by differences which made themselves felt during his life. "He was brave and true in his adhesion to the evangelistic Church. He did not develop the prevalent theology, but merely made it accessible to laymen and defended it against opponents."

Martin Bucer, 1491-1551.—He was one of the boldest and most decided of the German Reformers. In 1523 he went to Strausburg, where he introduced the doctrines of the Reformation. In the dispute between Luther and Zwingli, he adopted a middle course, and endeavored to effect a reconciliation between them. In the Conference at Marburg, in 1529, he was rated among the Zwinglians.

Farel's Call to Calvin.—Calvin was on his way to Germany from France and was compelled to pass through Geneva. Here he was confronted by Farel who challenged him to become his helper. At first he objected, but Farel pressed the call, to which Calvin yielded. "You are following only your own wishes, and I declare God Almighty, that if you do not assist us in this work of the Lord, the Lord will punish you for seeking your own interest rather than his."

Calvin's Death.—Calvin died May 27, 1564. He fell asleep in Jesus, dying in the faith "I have no other defense or refuge for salvation than his gratuitous adoption, on which alone my salvation depends. With my whole soul I embrace the mercy which He has exercised towards me through Jesus Christ, atoning for my sins through the merits of his death and passion, that in this way He might satisfy for all my crimes and faults, and blot them from his remembrance."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION MOVEMENT

ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOLS, COLLEGES AND SEMINARIES

THE four hundredth Anniversary of the Reformation is being widely observed. The various Boards of Education representing the leading Protestant denominations have been preparing for a general movement that shall serve to arouse the people of America to the supreme importance of Christian education. The interdenominational features of this nation-wide campaign are conducted under the guidance of a Council of Church Boards of Education, consisting of representatives of each denomination, with headquarters in New York City. Enthusiastic public meetings and educational exhibits have been and are being held in cities appropriately selected as centres of various districts of the whole country.

This is both a logical and a necessary movement. It is logical because the Reformation was to a large extent an educational movement; and it is necessary since the schools of higher learning are the fountains from which flow all other activities of the Church. The burning question of the Church in America today is that of the denominational educational institutions. If the stream of the Church's life is checked, follow it back far enough and you will find the defect in the Seminary, or back of the Seminary in the Colleges and Academies, or back of these in the attitude of the Church to these denominational schools. Inasmuch as the churches look to these schools both to furnish men for the ministry and men and women thoroughly trained for intelligent leadership in all spheres of Christian activity, the problem of our educational institutions is the one question before the Church that now overshadows all others in its importance.

The sole excuse for maintaining denominational schools, where the state is ready to provide the highest intellectual training without cost, is that the Christian school can furnish a clearer moral and religious atmosphere for the student. But even so, if it is to merit patronage, it must be equipped, though in a more restricted sphere, as the State institution. If, therefore, we are to maintain these denominational schools we are in honor bound to give them adequate endowment and proper facilities. This is not a task for a few men. It is the task of the denomination. It is high time that the denomination should face the task, realize its importance and determine to accomplish it.

In addition to the program of this general movement, each denomination is working out plans along suitable lines. In the absence of a denominational Board of Education, recognition of this movement in our own Reformed Church in the United States is found in the initial step taken by the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee of General Synod in sending a representative to the annual meeting of the Council of Church Boards of Education at Chicago. In response to a request of this Committee, the heads of our several institutions of learning entered into conference, and organized, on January 14, 1916, the Association of Schools, Colleges and Seminaries of the Reformed Church in the United States. Henry Harbaugh Apple, D.D., LL.D., of Franklin and Marshall College, was made President; George Leslie Omwake, Pd.D., of Ursinus College, Secretary, and Joseph H. Apple, LL.D., of Hood College, Treasurer. These officers, with the Rev. William C. Schaeffer, D.D., of the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, and William Mann Irvine, LL.D., of the Mercersburg Academy, were constituted an Executive Committee. Rev. Clayton H. Ranck was selected as General Secretary. After making a careful study of the demands in all the spheres of activity in the Church and the needs of the educational institutions to meet these demands, the Association outlined a plan of campaign which sets for itself the following tasks:

1. To awaken our people to the vast importance of Christian Education;
2. To inform parents of all Reformed families of the advantages of Education under Christian auspices;
3. To increase the enrollment of our Reformed Schools, Colleges and Seminaries;
4. To increase the material equipment and endowment of all our institutions to standard requirements.

This plan was submitted to the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee and after a thorough examination of all that is involved in it was given unanimous approval in the following action:

"Whereas, the General Synod has repeatedly emphasized the need of growing interest in the work of education; and the year 1917, because of its historic value to the Reformed Church, furnishes opportunity to solidify the educational interests of the Church in the commemoration of the 400th Anniversary of the Reformation, and the year 1916 witnesses the awakening of educational consciousness on the part of the Christian forces of America, and from which great good would result,

Be it Resolved,

1. That we hail with delight as an advance step the growing interest of Christian education for the training of our young people for Christian leadership, for the home, business, secular work and the Christian ministry and missionary service, as presented by the Association of Schools, Colleges and Seminaries,

2. That we heartily approve of the principles and purposes of said Association as submitted to unify the educational work of the Reformed Church,

3. That we sympathize most heartily with the idea of presenting the matter to every individual member of the Reformed Church through the proper judicatories, in order to awaken and foster a large interest and support in the educational work on the part of every member of the Reformed Church."

The approval of this Committee, the sympathetic reception of the plan by various Classes and Synods, and the genuine and enthusiastic interest manifested generally promises to make this the official celebration of the Anniversary of the Reformation by the Reformed Church in the United States, thus guaranteeing a movement that shall serve to express in a personal enrollment by gift, the worthy estimate of Christian education in this period of our history as the Tercentenary Commemoration voiced the consciousness of the Church in a former time. The large purpose of this movement, the participation by each and every member of the Church, and the united action of our educational institutions in its behalf, promises a Reformed Church greatly strengthened and unified as it sets forth in the new epoch which this anniversary will usher in, with its already clearly discerned tasks of Home and Foreign Missionary endeavor.

It is significant of a new age in the Church that now, for the first time in her history, all the educational institutions are united in a common movement. The success of the plan proposed is vital to such future activities as shall be worthy of the historical heritage of our denominations, whose beginnings we commemorate in this Anniversary of the Reformation.

THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

Lancaster, Pa.

The Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in the United States, located at Lancaster, Pa., was organized at Carlisle, Pa., in A.D. 1825. It was born of the urgent needs of the Church. Ministers were few; and congregations were dying for want of pastoral care. With the organization of the Seminary, a new era dawned; for, as the Church now trained her own young men for the ministry, her congregations began to take on new life, new ones were organized, and other activities were fostered and encouraged.

Like all beginnings, those of the Seminary were slow and difficult. The arrangements at Carlisle, where there was but one professor, and where the Seminary had no buildings of its own, were soon found to be unsatisfactory; and the institution was moved to York, Pa., where a flourishing High School had been organized by Dr. F. A. Rauch. After the High School was moved to Mercersburg and became Marshall College, it was natural that the Seminary should follow. Here it had an honorable and useful career, and became known throughout the entire Protestant world through the fame of its great professors, especially Drs. Nevin and Schaff. But high thinking here was accompanied by great poverty; after years of hard struggle, Marshall College was united with Franklin College at Lancaster in 1853; and eighteen years later, in 1871, the Seminary was once more put on wheels to follow the College, in order that the two institutions might once more labor side by side.

During the ninety-one years of its existence, the Seminary has had but one aim. It has never swerved from its original purpose of educating young men for the ministry. It has no other aim now; and it seeks to devote all its strength to the realization of this its original purpose. It has no supplementary courses; and it admits no students who are looking to other professions in life.

In the realization of this single aim, the Seminary has from the beginning had its own ideals. It has sought to send forth its young men well equipped for their work, workmen that need not be ashamed. A thorough College training has always been regarded as necessary for the attainment of the best results; and the proportion of College graduates among the students has always been high. The curriculum includes full courses in the Old and New Testaments, in Church History, in Systematic and Practical Theology.

The Seminary has always believed the promise of the Lord, that the Holy Spirit would abide with the Church all the days to lead her into the truth. Its professors have hence always held themselves open to the new light which is in all ages breaking forth from the Word of God. While firmly holding on to the truths of the past, they have been forward looking men; and they have encouraged their students to study the new problems of the age with their eyes fixed on the great goal of the realized kingdom in the future.

In theology the Seminary has always been churchly and progressive. Believing with Saint Paul that the Church is "the body of Christ," in which he dwells, and through which he works by his Spirit, it has emphasized the sacraments and the Christian ministry. The sacraments are more than empty signs; and the ministry, with its priestly and prophetic functions, is more than a merely secular office. As each age has its own peculiar problems and needs, the seminary has always tried to interpret the old Gospel in such a way as to meet the requirements of a new age.

The Seminary has stood for educational religion. It has believed that the children of Christian parents belong to the covenant of grace, that they should be early consecrated to the Lord in Holy Baptism, and that they should be carefully trained in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. This does not mean that it is indifferent to the needs of those who have been unfortunate enough to grow up on the outside of the Church; but it teaches that these should be diligently sought out and brought under the saving influences of the Gospel.

The Seminary has likewise responded to the later calls of mission and social service. Many of the Church's most prominent and successful missionaries in the foreign field belong to its alumni. So of the home field. The Seminary also recognizes the greater task of the Church, imposed by her Lord in the command to teach all nations to observe whatsoever He has commanded. Not only must the nations be evangelized, but the entire social order must be made Christian. To enable its students to bear their part in this great work, it has earnestly addressed itself to study and to teach what Jesus has to say on the social problem.

With an honorable history of ninety-one years, the Seminary, like a growing boy, still has needs. Among these may be mentioned a dormitory, an enlarged library, and an increased endowment fund. We dwell here only on the first. After many years of unsatisfactory arrangements for the housing of its students, a dormitory is in the process of erection; and it is the confident expectation that it will be ready for occupancy by September, 1917. For the realization of this much needed improvement, it is confidently hoped that the members of the three English Eastern Synods will respond with liberal contributions.

CENTRAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dayton, Ohio

The training of men for the ministry is serious business. The minister is the factor of greatest influence in the making of the Church. His personality, his vision and his method all are incarnated in the Church. He is the leader and the congregation follows in the direction of his leadership. The kind of men who enter our institutions of learning is of great importance in the making of our leaders. This suggests the opportunities of the local pastor and the local church in finding the boys and young men of the proper type for the leadership of the Church. A school is limited very much by the materials at hand. However, the colleges and theological seminaries have large power in inspiring and fashioning the life of the student.

One does not feel the rich heritage of the Central Theological Seminary if he thinks of it as beginning its existence in 1907. Back of that is the record of the fifty-seven years of pioneer work done by the Heidelberg Theological Seminary, with the splendid record of three hundred and forty-nine alumni, and the thirty-five years of the Ursinus School of Theology, with two hundred and five alumni. To this rich heritage of honored service the Central Theological Seminary has fallen heir and its two-fold aim indicates its harmony of spirit with what has gone before, viz., First, to furnish Christian young men with spiritual, intellectual and practical preparation for the discharge of the highly responsible duties of the Christian ministry in the twentieth century; and, secondly, to afford to students opportunities to pursue theological learning in any of its numerous branches.

LANCASTER, PA.

Never were these aims more important than now, and never were there greater demands for them. To meet these needs, in fact to anticipate them in the student and prepare him to meet conditions he does not know, is indeed a hard task. This the Central Theological Seminary is trying to do, and emphasizes the following things in so doing; thorough scholarship, looking toward self-mastery and a maturity of mental power which commands respect and inspires imitation; practical efficiency, with an aim to assisting the future minister in his pastoral ministrations; and personal character and spiritual strength without which all must be of no avail.

A faculty of eight professors are the guides in this and the courses cover three years of work. In addition to the full courses of required work a broad and comprehensive system of electives are offered which give students an opportunity to broaden their education.

While it is of course desired that as many of the students as possible shall have finished the regular under-graduate course at some accredited college, the Seminary offers a minimum requirement of earnest young men who have not had an opportunity to attend college, and make possible, by so doing, the training up of a number of useful servants in the Kingdom.

The Seminary is located in the eastern part of the city of Dayton on an eminence known as Huffman Hill and commanding a fine view of the city. The campus, containing over eight acres, is very picturesque with its large forest trees and affords ample room for present and future needs of the Seminary.

Three buildings afford comfortable and convenient accommodations for all purposes and are planned to meet the needs of future growth. An additional endowment fund to increase the number of the faculty, and to secure additional books for the library, will increase the power of the institution in her efforts to serve her Church.

THE MISSION HOUSE

Sheboygan, Wis.

A school for educating young men for the ministry of the Gospel, was established in 1862, and today 80 per cent of the students are students for the ministry. To this institution we owe the progress the Church has made among the German and Swiss settlers especially in the Northwest of our great country. It is the property of the four German, or now German-English, synods. Like the mission houses of Germany and Switzerland, it has carried on its work not by the interest from endowments, but by free annual contributions from the churches. After a year of probation worthy young men without means can at the recommendation of classis be enrolled as beneficiaries to whom the greater part of their school expenses are remitted. Over 19 per cent of our ministers are Mission House men, and they have done good work in country and city. Quite a number of the ministers that have to preach in German in the Reformed Church in America and in the Christian Reformed Church have studied here at their own expense or that of their Churches. The full course now covers a period of 10 years, but in 1916 many of the entrants were high school graduates or students from other higher institutions and could enter the Freshman or some higher class and shorten their period of study here accordingly. The Mission House is bilingual; it is its aim to have its graduates equally efficient in German and English. About $80,000 are at the disposal of the board for new buildings and better equipment, and landscape engineers and architects are now working out plans for campus and buildings that are to be approved by the board and carried out during the coming year or two.

FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL COLLEGE

Lancaster, Pa.

Franklin College, one of the Colonial colleges and the third oldest in Pennsylvania, was established in Lancaster under Charter of March 10, 1787. Marshall College in Mercersburg was authorized by Charter of March 31, 1856. The Charter of the union of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., was given April 19, 1850. After more than a century and a quarter of faithful work the college remains true to the ideals of her founders, and the solidarity of her educational system has been preserved. The claim for patronage and support is based on the advantages which are offered for obtaining a thorough, liberal and Christian education. Students in their entire course come in contact with Christian professors of ability, experience and enthusiasm in their respective departments and receive in this way not only the highest measure of personal attention but also the inspiration which the genuine scholar and teacher, by personal influence, always communicates. The lives and records of successful alumni in various professional, educational and business pursuits bear abundant testimony to the efficiency of her work.

The College is under the ownership and general control of a Board of Trustees, thirty in number, to be held in trust for the Eastern Synod, the Pittsburgh Synod, and the Synod of the Potomac of the Reformed Church in the United States. It is essentially a denominational college aiming to serve the best interests of the Church and dependent upon her people for such support as will contribute to the highest service and usefulness.

The area of grounds is fifty-eight acres, on which are conveniently grouped twelve buildings, including Library, Recitation Hall, Science Building, Observatory, two Literary Society Halls and Gymnasium with complete athletic field.

The College has won deserved recognition of the standard four-year courses in the Arts and Sciences leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. The course is based upon such intellectual discipline as has been established by centuries of testing as well as by channels opened up by modern scholarship.

Early traditions have been maintained in the stress laid upon the value of Philosophy and the Classics which have given lustre to the reputation of the college for sound liberal education. Graduates who have gone into various professions or entered universities and attained eminence are sufficient evidence that the strength and efficiency of these departments have been worthily maintained. In recent years these have been joined with the new scientific spirit in the Social and Natural Sciences in a curriculum which aims to develop the useful citizen, enlarge scholarship, broaden views, and arouse an intelligent interest in all that is best in modern civilization. An increasing number of students are entering her doors to prepare for the professions of Theology, Law, Medicine, Teaching or Technical and Industrial Training. The facilities offered by the new Science Building are not surpassed by similar buildings in any American college and the modern laboratories afford the required preparation in Physics, Biology, and Chemistry for entrance to the best Medical Schools, as well as the pursuit of Industrial Chemistry and Biology.

The College has received unusually high commendation for the pre-medical course. Emphasis is also being laid upon the courses in Psychology, Pedagogy, Philosophy and the Social Sciences for such students who expect to become teachers.

The Watts de Peyster Library with 48,000 books and reading room with nearly a hundred current periodicals; the Daniel Scholl Observatory with an 11-inch Clark Repsold telescope and other necessary astronomical and surveying instruments; the two halls owned and used by the Diognothian and Goethean Literary Societies; a fine large Museum occupying the whole third floor of the Science Building are among the valuable advantages open to the use of students.

The distinctive history of Franklin and Marshall College has been marked in three definite stages. The first under the administrations of Presidents Emmanuel Vogel Gerhart, D.D., LL.D., 1855-56; John Williamson Nevin, D.D., LL.D., 1866-76; William Marvel Nevin, A.M., Pro Tem., 1876-77; and Thomas Gilmore Apple, Ph.D., D.D., LL.D., 1877-89, may be termed the period of laying a strong foundation. These men, with worthy colleagues in the Faculty, established a wide reputation of the college for philosophical and classical scholarship. The second under the administration of John Summers Stahr, Ph.D., D.D., LL.D., witnessed a healthy outward development indicated in the erection of the Gymnasium, Library, Science Building and the New Academy Building, the extension of the campus, the enlargement of the Faculty, as well as the broadening of the curriculum in the natural and social sciences. The third commencing in 1909, under the administration of Henry Harbaugh Apple, A.M., D.D., LL.D., inaugurated January 10, 1910, commences the era of a greater Franklin and Marshall College. During this time the Faculty was again enlarged, a higher standard of admission adopted, the group system of studies organized, student government and the honor system in examinations instituted, the enrollment of students increased sixty per cent and an endowment movement successfully completed, adding to the invested funds the sum of $358,512.51. The value of buildings and grounds is now about $475,000 and the total endowment about $550,000, making a total possession of more than a million dollars.

Distinguished for her service in the past, the College faces the future in determination for greater usefulness as a denominational college. She depends in confidence upon the support of the Church to provide additional means to meet the demands of the coming age. Among the immediate needs will be a specific endowment to aid students for the ministry as well as worthy and needy students in other spheres of preparation for life; suitable dormitories; an administration building with large auditorium; a central heating plant; a president's house adequate for receptions of students, alumni and friends; and a separate church building to increase and intensify the moral and religious influence of the College, enrich worship and stimulate religious ideals and service as the culmination of all the elements of a college education. These things are kept steadily before ourselves and our friends in the hope that some generous benefactors may arise to supply some of them and others can be made the objects of united efforts.

URSINUS COLLEGE Collegeville, Pa.

At no time in her history of almost half a century has it been necessary for Ursinus College to raise the question as to her mission, so plainly has this been indicated at every stage, in the duties of the hour. Every year has contributed to a cumulative appeal, which, as time passes, becomes almost a passion. From her earliest days to the present time her place in the educational field has been rendered more and more definite and her purpose more and more explicit. The service which Ursinus College ought to render, therefore, is indicated in general by that which she has rendered. What is the meaning of the fact that a large majority of her graduates and former students are ministers, missionaries, university and college professors, school superintendents, teachers, physicians, lawyers, editors and social workers? It means that the College sends forth her graduates, not only educated, but charged with a passion for humanity.

As her field and purpose are thus explicitly set forth in her past and present distinguished achievements, Ursinus College finds herself face to face at the present time with a tremendous challenge coming from humanity itself. The industrial reconstruction and the commercial realignments which will follow the present great war will not be the most important readjustments that shall have to be made. In some lands, civilization itself will have to be rebuilt, and in all lands there will be the desire for a new and better life. The world, in fact, is already yearning for that help which can be given, not by mechanical engineers, but by human engineers—ministers, teachers, missionaries, journalists, social workers—those who can mend broken hearts, who can enlighten beclouded intellects, who can restore human friendships, who can establish ideals and regulate conduct, who can sterilize society of sin and give it moral health and spiritual growth.

In the light of these facts, Ursinus College is made to feel, in a peculiar way, both her strength and her limitation. Her forty-six years of growth have made her precisely the type of institution which the present world crisis demands. As if by Divine guidance, the founders and their successors seem to have labored for a time such as this. Was it from some higher viewpoint, also that those pious men who sought a place where they might plant their new college, were led to this strategic point, a spot of rare æsthetic charm, located midway north and south on the Atlantic slope, hard by a prosperous city, itself one of the greatest educational centers of the western world, and in the very gateway to the great interior of Pennsylvania with its untold resources of wealth and people? When considered in the light of her heritage in ideals and life, her constituency of alumni and friends trained to support these ideals, her advantageous location, her excellent equipment thus far provided, it would seem that nothing should deter earnest and patriotic benefactors from making this institution an abundant spring of health-giving, vitalizing human life for the up-building of civilization at home and abroad.

In obedience to a sense of duty, and in response to the inquiries of friends, the Advisory Council has recommended, and the Board of Directors has adopted a program of further development and improvement which ought to be carried out in order to qualify Ursinus College for her enlarging task.

1. A college whose function it is to prepare men and women to take up professions and occupations in the interest of humanity should extend its program of studies especially in those directions in which knowledge is derived concerning man himself and his work. To provide the additional instruction necessary to make Ursinus efficient in these respects will require additional endowment of $200,000.

2. In order to carry on the work that should be covered in a college of the type and purpose of Ursinus, in the natural sciences, it is imperative that a much more adequate equipment be provided than is at present possible in the laboratories in Bomberger Hall. The cost of a science building would be approximately $90,000, and $60,000 should be provided as endowment for its maintenance.

3. The college library has too long suffered from its present cramped and overcrowded rooms in Bomberger Hall. In providing a building, the extensive use of a library in this sort of institution should be kept in mind. Its cost would probably be $50,000. An endowment of $50,000 for the present, would yield an income, in addition to that now received, sufficient to maintain the library.

4. A central feature in any college should be that in which care is provided for the physical development and the health of its students. For these purposes Ursinus should be provided with a complete gymnasium and with a small but well equipped infirmary. The latter could be provided for $7500. The cost of a gymnasium would depend much upon the type of building contemplated and might vary from $50,000 to $65,000. A department of physical education should also be organized and this, with the maintenance of the building, would require an endowment of $50,000.

5. The present residence halls for both men and women are crowded to their capacities. In view of the success of Ursinus in making the domestic life of her students a distinct educational and cultural asset, the policy of providing comfortable residence buildings to accommodate the growing numbers of students must be adhered to. A building for men to meet present needs would cost $50,000. A building of equal capacity and cost should be provided for women.

In providing the several funds enumerated in the foregoing program for the further development of Ursinus College, the following objects suitable as memorials and representing varying amounts are suggested for the consideration of benefactors: Scholarships, $1000 to $5000; Departments in the Library, $3000 to $5000; Scientific Laboratories, $5000 to $10,000; Professorships, $30,000 to $50,000; Buildings, as represented above, $50,000 to $90,000; Departments of Instruction, $50,000 and upwards.

HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY

Tiffin, Ohio

The history of any organization is illuminating but none more so than that of an institution of learning. The men who sixty-six years ago chose the name of "Heidelberg" for the educational institutions at Tiffin, Ohio, showed an appreciation for both religious and educational history. For Heidelberg is the oldest of the German universities and her part in the early and formative years of the Reformed Church is celebrated.

How wisely these fathers of the Reformed Church in Ohio builded is indicated by the fact that during the first year that the institutions were opened, one hundred and forty-nine students were enrolled. Sometimes schools grow rapidly because there are few of them. One very good authority says that not less than three hundred colleges have been founded within the bounds of the State of Ohio within the past century, and of that number about five out of every six have proved their unfitness and have ceased to be. Heidelberg therefore, in the midst of such competition, has proved her value to her community and has prospered while others have passed away. In fact so marked has been her progress that her enrollment has increased sixty-five per cent within the past five years, until she has now quite outgrown her accommodations.

Of course there are reasons for such development. Chief of which are, the faculty, the courses offered, the spirit, and the equipment.

Her faculty numbering thirty-four have been brought together from many educational centres. They have been trained in the various colleges and universities of renown in the East and West and students coming under their influence get a truly broad outlook on the thought world and social world because of this breadth of faculty.

The University offers courses in the College of Liberal Arts, in the Academy, in the Department of Pedagogy, in the Department of Oratory, in the Conservatory of Music, in the Art Department and in the Commercial Department. An attractive and helpful part in the cultural advantages offered is a long list of addresses and entertainments covering a broad range of subjects. Opportunities of this nature while they can not be counted of course in the regular work of the curriculum, yet give largeness of vision and a grasp of life problems which cannot be overestimated.

The spirit of an institution of higher learning like the wind cannot be seen, but it can be measured by its effects. The spirit of Heidelberg lives in the useful lives of her sons and daughters, serving the world in many walks of life. Many of them are in the ministry of the Reformed Church, and in that way are serving their church and generation. She is honored also by a long list of sons and daughters dedicated to the uplifting of men and women in non-Christian lands, while others are doing their full share of the world's work in other fields of service.

These institutions with an enrollment last year of six hundred and eighty-five are located on a high part of the city of Tiffin, called "College Hill," where twenty acres and ten buildings are in use. Some of these buildings are modern stone structures not surpassed by those of any educational institution in the Middle West. The whole equipment, of grounds, buildings, and endowment is valued at three quarters of a million of dollars.

As is to be expected from what has been said above, Heidelberg has received the recognition she deserves. She is a member of the Ohio College Association and of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, each of which carries with it a recognition of a very high standard of excellence. An equally significant recognition is to be found in the fact that her sons and daughters get full credit for work done at Tiffin when entering technical, professional, and graduate schools of any kind.

But with her present equipment her capacity for work is limited. She cannot accommodate more than her present number of students. To enable her to do more will require additional buildings and endowment. Shall she be satisfied with her present prosperity and stop growing by turning away those who knock at her doors or shall she enlarge her capacity? Of course she must. Her Board of Regents on the thirteenth of last June issued a call to all the friends of Heidelberg to join at once in an effort to secure a half million dollars for additional endowment and new buildings. This is a large sum of money. A generation ago many schools were widely known without having half of that amount invested in their entire equipment. But our age demands more than did former ones. There must be more courses, more buildings, more expensive equipment. Furthermore the church institutions are surrounded by tax supported institutions whose wealth is fabulous. With these the church college of today must compete, or we will not be given an opportunity to train men and women with Christian ideals. As denominations have come to see this challenging opportunity they have invested more and more largely in their higher education work.

Is it surprising that some of the most benevolent men of this age have given enormous fortunes to educational institutions in which there is little or no place for religious training in their work? They did this because they believe in education. Should not we of the Church to whom education without religion is incomplete give just as eagerly to our own schools? We believe in Christian education. To strengthen our institution of learning is to help build the strong leaders of the state and nation who are to follow us. Not to do so is to waste one of the largest opportunities of Christian service open to us today.

CATAWBA COLLEGE

Newton, N. C.

The Reformed Church in North Carolina dates from the first half of the eighteenth century, but without regular pastors it struggled for its existence for about a century. Then came more definite organization and from the new life grew a desire to have an educational institution within their own bounds. Catawba College is the result of that desire and has been serving the needs of the sons and daughters of her State.

The success of the College since that time and the value of her services to Church and State are amply attested by the long list of graduates who have gone into the ministry in our own Church and in sister denominations, and by the numerous professional and business men who have attained to eminence and achieved success. Among these are two State Superintendents of Public Instruction, one Congressman, a Judge of the Superior Court of North Carolina, three college presidents and a large number of physicians, lawyers, and teachers.

The threefold aim of the institution in all its departments is to secure knowledge, culture, and efficiency, by endeavoring to teach young men and women not only to think, to know, and to feel, but also to will, to do and to be. Its need therefore for a larger equipment of dormitories, gymnasium and a science building constitute a definite challenge to the Church it serves.

THE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN "CEDAR CREST"

Allentown, Pa.

"Cedar Crest" was founded in 1867 and was then known as the Allentown Female Seminary. The charter granted June 1, 1868, empowered the trustees as follows: "They shall have the care and management of the institution, with full power to make and establish all such reasonable and proper rules and regulations as may be necessary for the government, instruction and education of the pupils and the same to repeal and alter from time to time as they see proper, and also power and authority to grant and confer at their discretion all such degrees, diplomas, honors, and licenses as are usually given or conferred in similar institutions." In September, 1915, the institution was moved into its new buildings on a 53 acre campus and is now commonly called "Cedar Crest," a College for Women. For the last ten years the institution has been owned and controlled by the Eastern Synod of the Reformed Church. Geographically she is fortunately located to serve her constituency; for if one draws a circle having Allentown as the centre and a radius of 50 miles one will include within that circle 50 per cent of the entire membership of the Reformed Church.

Including the advantages offered by first class institutions, "Cedar Crest" has the following special advantages to offer her patrons:

(a) A 53 acre campus with an elevation from 95 to 135 feet above the surrounding country.

(b) The buildings are located upon a plateau; all of them being new, fire-proof, artistically designed and decorated, modernly equipped and specially adapted to the higher education of woman.

(c) Academic exclusiveness now deemed essential to thorough collegiate work.

(d) Three miles from the heart of Allentown, a progressive city of 60,000; affording all the recognized advantages of a metropolitan centre.

(e) Small homes in which the students live rather than institutions into which they are crowded.

HOOD COLLEGE

Frederick, Md.

Hood College must be considered as belonging to three epochs,—prior to 1893 as part of the educational activity of Mercersburg (Pa.) College; from 1893 to 1913 as the Woman's College, conducting college and preparatory departments as a continuation of the advantages of the Frederick (Md.) Female Seminary, and since 1913 as Hood College. The last epoch indicates not only the change of name, in honor of the largest benefactor, Mrs. Margaret S. Hood; but also a separation of college from preparatory work, leaving the latter in the old buildings as Hood Seminary; and a removal of the college proper to its own grounds and buildings.

To be exact, Hood College entered upon its new and independent career in September, 1915, when its three new buildings were first occupied upon its 45 acre campus, in the suburbs of Frederick, Md. The arrangement, construction and equipment of these three modern buildings are almost ideal, and each fits correctly into a plan which anticipates further development during the years to come. Next in order of building needs must come, and that very soon, a second dormitory to accommodate the steadily growing stream of applicants for enrollment.

Two degree courses are offered, the A.B. and the B.S., each requiring for entrance fifteen units, and for graduation sixty college hours. The B.S. course is in Home Economics in which the finest advantages are offered. Diploma and certificate courses are also offered in Music, Art, and Expression. Most recent in development is the course in Education, leading to a certificate for elementary teachers after two years, and to a diploma for High School teachers after four years. This conforms to recent legislation in Maryland and neighboring States.

Hood College, while strongly vocational in its trend, is still primarily cultural in its ideals—a culture so pervasive that it will permeate all vocational activity and outlast any temporary occupation.

Its development has been steady rather than rapid, and its future seems well assured as to plans and purposes, requiring only the necessary accompaniment of friends of generous impulses to progressively realize its broadly laid plans and its high ideals.

Two needs are pressing: the new dormitory costing about $60,000, and additional contributions toward our present development with a view "to overtake what we have already undertaken." The former is imperative to care for the normal growth of the institution and to meet the demand for its advantages on the part of those for whom it was established. The latter is no less imperative in order to avoid a burdensome debt that might seriously hamper the institution's usefulness and prevent her future growth.

Hood Seminary, under a separate principal and faculty, is having a very satisfactory growth. Its life, government and general system are better suited to girls of secondary school age, and the atmosphere and environment of the college is also benefited by the separation.

Among the Directors who have given of their time and service to the College, mention should be made of Dr. E. R. Eschbach, President of the Board from 1893 to his death in 1910; and Rev. Dr. Wm. C. Schaeffer, President of the Board since 1910.

MAIN HALL

MERCERSBURG ACADEMY

MERCERSBURG, PA.

Dr. Joseph H. Apple has been President of the College since 1893 and during the past five years has been ably assisted by Charles E. Wehler, D.D., as Vice-President.

The enrollment has grown until it now exceeds 300, and the faculty numbers twenty-five officers, teachers and instructors. With a fair and honorable past, it is now the conviction of the authorities of Hood College that its more extended and brilliant career lies just ahead, and its best record will be made in the third and subsequent decades of its history.

FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL ACADEMY

Lancaster, Pa.

Franklin and Marshall Academy represents a work that has been in continuous existence ever since its beginning as the preparatory department of Franklin College in 1787. Sargent's Handbook of American Private Schools gives a "Chronological List of Historic Schools still Existent" in which Franklin and Marshall Academy stands 27th among 148 schools, beginning with the Boston Latin School, founded in 1635.

The relation between the College and preparatory school or department varied from time to time until 1872 when the Trustees passed a resolution "to make the school a separate and distinct institution, and by making more ample provision for its efficiency, enlarge its usefulness." The "more ample provision" found expression in a new building erected in 1872, and the school was then given its present name. The policy of the Board has been wise in providing that the Academy could be "separate and distinct" in the sense that it has its own principals and faculty, uses separate grounds, buildings and equipment apart from the college, and the student body can thus have its own complete and distinctive school life and interests.

The Academy prepares boys for any course in any college in the country. There are always a certain number of Reformed boys who may want courses other than those given at our own college and it is better that such boys should have been in touch with their own institutions at least in their preparatory course rather than never to have known or cared for them at all.

The Academy is a training school for boys who desire to go to college. The most obvious part is the mental training, and that the Academy is doing this well is attested by the fact that Academy boys rank high at many colleges. They took first honors at two colleges this year and high rank at a number of others. Another characteristic of the school is an atmosphere that develops in almost every student the ambition to get a college education. Last year the Academy entered 38 boys to 13 colleges. This year there were 41 graduates, every one of whom expects to go to college. Above all, however, the school seeks to develop that sense of personal responsibility and that foundation of character without which no student will make a success of his college course no matter how thorough his mental training may be. The fact that an unusually high percentage of Academy boys who go to college stay there, is evidence that their preparation developed the personal qualities they need in order to manage their time and themselves at college.

The Academy, by reason of its location and equipment, affords a fine school home. The Main Building is probably the finest private boys' school dormitory in the State. The discipline of the school allows boys somewhat more privileges in certain directions than some schools do. Students have certain privileges, under supervision, so long as they do not abuse them, on the theory that a student who develops some responsibility in the use of privileges in his preparatory school life will manage himself better in the greater freedom of his life at college.

The Academy maintains all the student interests and activities that can properly go with preparatory school life—literary societies, Y. M. C. A. glee club, student publications, and all forms of school athletics under proper direction and supervision.

The Academy is as much an institution of the Church as is any other educational institution, yet, unfortunately, it has received far too little support from the Church. Most of the money that went into the fine main building in 1908 came from sources outside of the Church. There is all the more reason that the Academy, which is dealing with boys at a most important age, should fare well at the hands of the Church in connection with the great thank offering that will be made for Christian Education in connection with the coming Reformation Anniversary.

MERCERSBURG ACADEMY

Mercersburg, Pa.

Mercersburg is the cradle of education in the Reformed Church. For eighty years she has given a beautiful service in the moulding of manhood and during that time thousands of seminary students, college men and preparatory school boys have gone out from her walls carrying her ideals into many walks of life. When the Seminary and the College moved away, they left something of their spirit as a heritage to their descendant,—a struggling, young preparatory school. Many an academy has been founded by large financial gifts and has failed to grow beyond its original strength, but Mercersburg Academy was founded in the inspiration of noble lives, clear thought and high ideals and these have given her courage and determination in her climb to power. A graduate of the old Mercersburg may return now to find the campus greatly changed, but in the four hundred students he will see a reflection of the spirit of his own school life.

The growth of Mercersburg has been steady,—dominated by the plan of the headmaster, and the buildings have risen in gradual fulfillment of his vision of "the greatest preparatory school in America." Standing on the hill at the highest point of the campus, Dr Irvine looks down across the smooth sweep of lawn to the Eighty-Eight Dormitory just below him and, beyond, to Keil Hall, the beautiful dining room. Laucks Hall, the newest and finest dormitory, is below the crest of the hill in the curve of the road that bounds the athletic field and that leads to the Carl Lewis Nolde Memorial gymnasium. This stately building, with its complete equipment for increasing the health and strength of the Mercersburg boys is the latest step in the progress toward the Ideal Mercersburg. On the hill beyond it are two cosy looking cottages, the infirmaries that insure skillful care of sick boys. These are the only buildings that a visitor can see from the crown of the hill; for South Cottage, Main Hall and North Cottage are hidden by the great elms and maples that shade the front campus. In Dr. Irvine's mind, however, there is such a keen sense of the further pressing needs of the school that he seems to find the hopeful outlines of an Administration Building, a Science Hall, a Y. M. C. A. building with much needed club rooms for faculty and boys, a Library, and—greater need of all—a beautiful Gothic Chapel crowning the hill. As the gymnasium stands for the strength of the fathers, so the chapel will remind the boys of their mothers and the faith they learned at home.

Some schools have reached the limit of their growth and are content to hold a place among their competitors with their reputation to support them. Mercersburg uses her high reputation as a background and keeps the keen spirit that is possible only to a growing school. Each boy feels that he has a share in helping to make his Alma Mater what he wants her to be. Each fall, when he returns to school he notices, with a personal pride, the improvements that have been made during the summer, a new drinking fountain by Main Hall, a splendid elk's head over the dining room entrance, an outdoor theatre, and many others. Among the boys there is the spirit of loyalty; among the forty-two members of the efficient faculty there is sympathy with the boys and co-operation with the headmaster. While each teacher considers his own department of paramount importance in the curriculum he takes a keen interest in the success of his fellow workers and so the departments increase in efficiency as is shown by the records of Mercersburg graduates in the ninety-nine colleges and universities in which they have represented their school. At Princeton, for instance, the fifteen Mercersburg members of the Freshman Class took ninety-six examinations in June last and received only four conditions. In the State College Freshman Class, Mercersburg graduates took twenty-two examinations and failed in one of them.

SEIBERT ATHLETIC FIELD

MASSANUTTEN ACADEMY, WOODSTOCK, VA.

But Mercersburg stands for more than scholarship. Her aim is not merely to get boys into college, but to fit them for life and her faculty represents a virile type of manhood that sends boys out from the classrooms with a knowledge of right living as well as with trained minds. There is a custom among the boys of the school to allow no freshman to wear the Mercersburg blue and white for the first two months after he enters school. At first it may seem unreasonable to visiting parents, but the older boys explain that no one shall wear school colors until he has caught the school spirit, the spirit of "hard work, fair play, clean life." This spirit is the inspiration and heart of the campus life; dominating the classroom work, the sports on the athletic field and the friendships which outlive text book knowledge and athletic victories. This spirit is sturdy, self-reliant, manly.

The "Blue Book" of customs and rules seeks to create a respect for order and the rights of others without setting down petty requirements to restrict independence. It is easy for a school to enforce good conduct while her boys are in her care. The proof of her influence comes when her boys are fighting their battles alone—beyond her control. So Mercersburg holds high ideals before her sons and then instead of forcing them into one mould, she tries to "make them make themselves," as Charles Kingsley has expressed it.

The president of one of our oldest and best colleges recently wrote to a mother, who asked his advice about a school for her son, "If I had a son whom I wished to place in a school of the highest Christian influence, I should send him to Mercersburg." Religion at Mercersburg is neither effeminate nor pessimistic. It is strong, manly and forceful. The Y. M. C. A. gives the boys chances for service, each in his own way. Groups of boys walk out to the mountains each Sunday afternoon to hold Sunday School Services in Country School Houses. Yearly subscriptions, taken by a canvass of every boy on a Sunday when the Rev. A. V. Casselman preaches the Annual Missionary sermon, support a Medical Missionary in Yochow, China. On each Sunday throughout the year there are two services in the Chapel to which the best preachers and speakers from all parts of the country bring their message. In the list are the names of Dr. H. M. J. Klein, Dr. G. W. Richards, and other leaders of the Reformed Church, and of Dr. A. P. Fitch of Amherst, Mass., Dr. J. A. Macdonald of the Toronto Globe, the Bishops of Cuba, Tennessee and South Carolina, Dr. Hamilton W. Mabie, Dr. Henry van Dyke, and many others.

Dr. Mabie, in a Sunday morning talk, likened Mercersburg to a shipyard, where great vessels are in construction for ocean service. Each rivet that is driven and each timber that is laid will sometime, somewhere, be forced to stand the storm when the vessel is far from port and no one will know or aid. So Mercersburg helps each of her sons in building his life, gives him her standards, and launches him fairly in the hope that she has made a man.

MASSANUTTEN ACADEMY

Woodstock, Va.

Massanutten Academy, located at Woodstock, Virginia, is our youngest educational institution. It was established by Virginia Classis in 1899. The reason for so doing was the need of religious education and training for their young people. They started modestly, in but one building and the progress was not without the usual pioneer struggles, but from their small beginning a very fine equipment has been developed. One hundred boys cared for by ten well equipped teachers is their ideal. With their three large modern buildings they can now care for seventy-five in their dormitories and the total enrollment is as large as they are planning to make it.

Massanutten, like Hood College and Mercersburg Academy, enjoys the inspiring presence of the Blue Ridge Mountains, and the whole emphasis of the school is one of simple earnestness. Art, for art's sake; work, for the love of it; education, for the sake of a trained mind, body, and heart, through which ability and an unselfish life may follow, are felt in all of the life of the institution. It is not surprising, therefore, that the school quickly gained recognition from the higher institutions of learning, and from a rapidly widening circle of patrons. The student body the past year coming from twelve States and three foreign countries.

Her equipment, originally valued at five thousand dollars, is now fifty-five thousand, and a gymnasium, a swimming pool and a house for the president are in their plans, for the future, of their work of developing true manhood.

DR. PHILIP SCHAFF

The new office building to be erected by the Reformed Church in Philadelphia for the Boards and general work of the Church is to be appropriately named the Schaff Building, in memory of the late Philip Schaff, D.D., LL.D. A Swiss by birth, a German by education, an American by choice, Dr. Schaff, brought to this country by the mother Synod of the Reformed Church, was for twenty years professor in the theological seminary, then at Mercersburg, Pa. The German hymn book still in use in the German section of the Church, was prepared by Dr. Schaff. He was the most prolific of American religious writers as Church historian, commentator, popular writer on contemporary national characteristics and personages. He wrote catechisms for children, published twenty-two works in German, forty-eight in English and was the general editor of one hundred or more commentaries, Organizer and Chairman of the American Committee for the revised translation of the Bible. He was the chief instrument in bringing together a notable gathering of the Evangelical Alliance in New York City in 1873, which was the forerunner of modern church federation movements. Leading participant in organizing the alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, he became the best known man the Reformed Church in the United States has yet produced, a teacher of theology for fifty years, historian of the Church and an advocate of the reunion of Christendom.

THE SCHAFF BUILDING

The Publication and Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church hopes to begin the erection in the Spring of 1917 of the Schaff Building, on the plot of ground adjoining the present Reformed Church Building, Philadelphia, Pa. The new building will occupy a space 90x120 feet, and the present Reformed Church building will be made a part of the new building, giving a total area of 120x120 feet, fronting on four streets. It will be twelve stories in height, with an auditorium on the first floor. The building will afford ample space for all the Boards of the Church, and in addition, will be the center for civic, uplift and undenominational agencies. The income from the Children's Endowment Fund invested in the building will be used for Educational and Missionary Sunday School work. The surplus earnings of the building will go toward paying off the mortgage indebtedness.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Foreign Mission Day, February 11, 1917.

Missionaries are literally the instructors of the New China.

Girls are waiting to enter our Schools at Yochow City and at Shenchowfu, China, but the buildings are too small.

A new recitation hall at Shenchowfu costing about $8000, is one of the great needs of the hour.

The special task of the foreign missionary is to train able native workers. This is the chief business of the Mission schools.

Out of the thirty boys in our Industrial Home at Sendai, Japan, twenty-two are Christians. One of the students died of pneumonia. The physician in charge said the old building was no place for a sick boy. $2500 would build a good home for these poor boys.

are: sound in the faith, sober in thought, safe in speech, serious in conduct, sincere in service and sympathetic with the people.

Our two Kindergartens in Japan, at Miharu and Yamagata, need proper buildings. They deserve the support of all our Mission Bands and Young People's Societies.

A business man said: "If we do not get the world vision now, in this crisis, in this moment of unique opportunity, we never will get it." Will the Church of Christ ever face a world crisis like the present? Is there not a call and an urgency in the world situation of today that should cause us to pray and work and give far more laborers for the many destitute fields?

Some of the needs of the Miyagi Girls' School at Sendai are a second Recitation Hall, a need which is most urgent; two missionary lady teachers, two organs and one piano. The North Japan College is in need of college buildings to properly care for the 500 students. In both schools competitive examinations are being held in order to select only the most capable. All are worthy to enter.

Fifty chapel funds of $500 each would enable our Japan and China Missions to provide houses of worship at many needy places. There are hundreds of towns and cities where there is not any place for the Christians to meet for worship. Can not some of our members turn their gifts to lands where the Gospel light shines not, and there erect small buildings for prayer and praise?

The Board of Foreign Missions should receive annually $250,000 for the support of its work in Japan and China. Half this amount will only permit of half support. Our missionaries plead for the other half.

The Annuity Bond of the Board of Foreign Missions is one of the safest and best-interest-guaranteed forms of investment. No taxes. No concern over collecting interest. No necessity for reinvestment. The gifts are secured for the Lord's work in Japan and China.

HOME MISSIONS Deaconess Work

The work of Deaconess in the Reformed Church dates back to an early day in Europe. It has, however, never developed into large proportions in this country. The principal Deaconess work is at present done among our Hungarian people. The following Deaconesses are at work:

Mrs. Helen Hetey, Zelenople, Pa.

Mrs. Elizabeth Basso, Indiana Harbor, Ind.

Mrs. Ida Harsanyi, Toledo, Ohio and vicinity.

Miss Irma Gaal, Lehigh Valley, Pa.

These Deaconesses are being supported by the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, and by several Synodical Missionary Societies. They are rendering a valuable service in the education of the young and in ministering to people of their own nationality who are in need of spiritual and material help.

Miss Rebecca Fohrman, a converted Jewess, is in training in the Philadelphia School for Deaconesses and Christian Workers, and will be ready for active service a year hence.

New Superintendent

At the Annual Meeting of the Board of Home Missions last July, the Rev. James M. Mullan, of St. Mark's Reformed Church, Baltimore, Md., was elected Superintendent of the Department of the East, covering the Eastern, the Potomac, and the Pittsburgh Synods. The Executive Officers of the Board of Home Missions now are as follows:

Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D.D., General Secretary.

Elder J. S. Wise, Treasurer and Superintendent of the Church-building Department.

Rev. James M. Mullan, Superintendent of the Department of the East.

Rev. D. A. Souders, D.D., Superintendent of the Department of Immigration.

Rev. John C. Horning, Superintendent of the Department of the West.

Rev. A. C. Whitmer, Superintendent Emeritus.

Rev. Josias Friedli, General Secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Erection of the Northwest, Central and Southwest Synods.

REV. JAMES M. MULLAN, SUPERINTENDENT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE EAST—HOME MISSIONS

Jewish Work

In response to repeated overtures, the Board of Home Missions has taken under its care a work in behalf of the Jews in Brooklyn, N. Y. This work had been carried forward for some time under the auspices of Rev. W. Walenta and other brethren of the German New York Classis. There is a ripe field for Christian work among these people. The Gospel was first preached to the Jew, but there are in this country three million Jews, most of whom are outside of covenant relations with Jesus Christ. It is stated that 98 per cent of them have never looked into a New Testament. The Board has appropriated $3000 for this work for the first year, with the hope that contributions for this purpose will come from friends who are interested in this cause.

The Board of Home Missions has 241 Missions on its roll. They are divided as follows:

English	138	Colored	2
German	85	Japanese	1
Hungarian	15	Harbor	1
Bohemian	2	Jewish	1

The total membership in the mission congregations is 26,803. The Missions contributed for benevolence last year $39,918.

The total receipts of General Synod's Board of Home Missions last year were $162,349.

The Committee on Evangelism in connection with the Board of Home Missions, is planning a four years' Campaign for the Reformed Church, with a view of increasing the membership by at least 75,000 until 1920, making the total membership 400,000. It also contemplates to stimulate and intensify the spiritual life of our people, with a view of raising the number of persons who commune by at least ten per cent. This is a most worthy undertaking, and should enlist the hearty sympathy and co-operation of every member of the Reformed Church.

The Church-building Fund Department, in charge of Supt. J. S. Wise, reports that during the fiscal year, the Board received 41 Church-building Funds; which now brings the total number of Funds up to 534, aggregating the sum of $361,167.86, of which $299,191.07 is in the form of Loan Funds, and $61,976.79 in the form of Gift Funds.

THE ORPHANS' HOMES

There is no cause so dear to the heart of the Church as that of the orphan. Happily the cry of the orphan strikes a tender chord in the human heart. It is by the kindly ministries we bring to the fatherless that we keep our faith alive. This is the best way to cultivate the spirit of love and the feeling of sympathy. We would all be the poorer without the presence of the orphans' homes and other charitable institutions. Heathen nations have gorgeous temples for their dumb idols; but they have no homes for the orphans, no hospitals for the sick and no asylums for the insane. All of these benevolent institutions are the offspring of the Christian Church. They have attained their greatest perfection of organization and practical usefulness since the Protestant Reformation and the festivities of the celebration of the Four Hundredth Anniversary should include a practical recognition of the cause of the orphan. It is the "pure and undefiled" religion of Jesus Christ that prompts, inspires and maintains these institutions of charity.

BARLOW'S Indigo Blue

The Tried and True Wash Blue of America

IT is over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for half a century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard Blueing throughout the country.

Trade Mark is registered and we caution the trade against handling goods imitating style and appearance

Doubles, Sunday School Attendance and Offerings

How to Use the System

Begin by presenting every scholar with the No. 0 celluloid pin. For every term of three months' interrupted attendance the pupil earns a reward. For the first term the No. 1 pin; for the second the No. 2 pin; for the third the No. 3 pin; for the fourth the No. 6 pin. Thirteen consecutive Sundays may be considered as three months. Pupils absent without a satisfactory excuse lose the interrupted term, but may begin a new term the next Sunday they attend, continuing to wear the pin already earned.

Each pin obtained is to be worn until the next higher grade is earned, but surrendered upon receiving the new one. The No. 6 solid gold pin is presented outright, and with it a handsome lithographed certificate, 9 x 11 inches, with seal and ribbon attached (for framing). For each additional reward earned another seal and ribbon is attached. These certificates are free to schools. Send for sample.

The System pays for itself by increased offerings as evidenced by numerous testimonials, and may be started successfully at any time. This has been repeatedly proven by actual results.

WEICKHARDT ORGAN IN FIRST REFORMED CHURCH
Rev. Dr. H. C. Nott Pastor, 1192 Ninth Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Organ can be relied upon to gratify the utmost demands. Those who desire a really high grade organ and would not be satisfied with just a "kist of whistles" will find it safe to choose the Weickhardt Organ and to disregard all offers based on the greatest number of registers and the most pipes.

August 19th, 1916.

Weickhardt Pipe Organ Catalog

Mailed on Request.

PIPE ORGANS

THE Wangerin-Weickhardt Co., of Milwaukee, Wis., has built the Pipe Organ for our new church, having received our contract after more than a dozen organ builders had competed for it. We knew from experience that the Wangerin-Weickhardt Co. produces church organs of the highest standard both as to excellence of tone and workmanship. This is the second organ the said firm has built for us, the first one having given perfect satisfaction to the rather exacting demands of our organist and congregation for fifteen years until it was sold with the old church. In view of the amazing progress realized in pipe organ building during recent years we determined to ascertain through strongly competing proposals and specifications the relative qualifications of, and by direct investigation the comparative value of the product offered by numerous renowned builders, but we still found the Wangerin-Weickhardt Co. in the very front rank of high-class organ firms and accordingly gave them our contract. Our new organ is of the electro-pneumatic type, with detached console, and has more than fulfilled our highest expectations in action, tone and construction. The undersigned therefore unhesitatingly recommends the Wangerin-Weickhardt Co. to any congregation contemplating the purchase of a Pipe Organ, as the Weickhardt that can be made on any modern organ of our time.

FOREWORD

The year 1917 will go down in history as singularly memorable. It marked the Four Hundredth anniversary of the Protestant Reformation and the entrance of the United States in the Great War. The coincidence is remarkable.

The quarto-centenary of the Protestant Reformation was very generally observed by the Reformed, Lutheran, Presbyterian and other denominations. In our own Church there was widespread interest awakened and the enthusiastic celebration proved to be inspirational to a large degree. Much of the interest centered about education. This was quite natural in the celebration of the anniversary of the Reformation. The educational campaign, special services, illustrated lectures and pageants combined to make the celebration efficacious in promoting the great cause of religious education.

The "Reformation Pageant" added much to the enlightenment, as well as to the entertainment of the people in celebrating the greatest event in the history of the Church. It was successfully given in Philadelphia, Lebanon, Pa., Allentown, Pa., Reading, Pa., and York, Pa., and aroused great enthusiasm in these centers of the Reformed Church. The people thronged the halls to witness the rendition of the most elaborate effort of its kind ever attempted in our Church.*

The Great War, from its beginning, has been viewed with considerable alarm by the Church as to its effect on the work and the participation of the United States in the conflict did not lessen the anxieties of the people. The Church, however, is facing the problem with heroic faith in the ultimate triumph of Christianity. The statistics, as seen elsewhere in the Almanac, are encouraging. Everywhere we see evidences of the devotion of the people. Churches are better attended; contributions for benevolence are increasing; the interest in temperance was never as great, and, all in all, these are propitious days for the Church of Jesus Christ. The Bishop of Utah in his convocation address on "The Supreme Duty of the Church," has well said, "Let me emphasize what I believe to be the supreme duty of the Church at this crisis, a duty which we should feel all the more strongly because we love our country, but nevertheless, a duty which transcends any national loyalty. The world situation, our entrance into the war, and the direful effects on industrial and home life and standards of conduct which are bound to follow, call insistently for a more vital expression of fundamental Christianity in all of our life. Are we concerned about the future of democracy? To be lasting it must be erected on the Christian basis. Do we want a peace that will endure? Such can only be found when the principle of Christian brotherhood is established. Are we concerned about the moral welfare of our boys and girls whether at home or abroad? Only the Gospel of Christ can protect them. Are the recent advances in social legislation threatened? It is the Christianized conscience only that is alert to guard such things. More and more the conclusion must come home to us that if better things are to come out of this world struggle, yes, if we are just to hold our own, the Church must redouble her efforts to stir the hearts, quicken the consciences, and enkindle the zeal of men with a vital and energizing religion. To accomplish that in any degree will be the best service to our land and to all the world. Whatever may be your conviction as to war, and however popular spectacular participation in the preparations for it may be, let us remember that the present lays upon us more compellingly than ever before the necessity for winning men to Christ and through them the world."

*The interest in this pageant will not cease with the passing of the year 1917. Rehearsals are now in progress in various centres.

The text of the pageant has been put into permanent form in the shape of a booklet of 102 pages entitled "The Reformation Pageant," and can be purchased from the Publication and Sunday School Board, Fifteenth and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. Price 75 cents single copy.

THE GENERAL SYNOD

The General Synod of Dayton (1917) was a notable gathering of representative ministers and laymen of the Reformed Church. The conditions under which the Synod convened were auspicious. The quarto-centenary of the Protestant Reformation added much to the historial interest, and also contributed to the inspirational character of the gathering. The anxiety incident to the entrance of the United States in the Great War challenged the faith of every delegate and accounted to a large degree for the consciousness of the great responsibility resting upon the Church.

The spirit of the Synod was fine. The unanimous opinion prevailed that it was one of the best, and that its impress upon the Church would be felt for years to come.

The president in presiding over the body proved himself to be a fine parliamentarian and the business was dispatched in a masterly fashion. The program as outlined, and for which the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee deserves great credit, was followed with few departures.

EPILOGUE
THE CALL OF THE CHURCH TO THE FUTURE

The Synod took an advanced position on every great question. It was an aggressive Synod. The representatives of the various boards were made to feel that the Church was back of them and expected them to lead the people into larger things for the Kingdom.

Among the encouraging signs of the times stressed by the Standing Committee on the State of the Church were the following:

"Our Boards of Ministerial Relief are doing all they can to awaken the Church to a deeper consciousness of her obligation to the needy ministers, who have given the best of their years and life to the service of the Gospel, often without a living salary. We hope for better days!

"There has been a noted increase in the liberality of the Church. Our Foreign Board reports the remarkable increase of $161,000.00 for the last triennium; over $500,000.00 were contributed. There is also an increase in the receipts of the Home Mission Boards. The growth of the "Church-building Funds" has been remarkable. The Board of the three German Synods in the Middle West has now over $100,000 in its Fund.

"The Sunday School work of the churches has taken rapid strides. The membership has largely increased; greater efficiency has been developed among the teachers and officers, thanks to the tireless labors of the General Secretary and his co-workers. The Publication and Sunday School Board has been faithful in meeting its obligations. The present year is certainly a notable one in our history. In connection with this celebration an extensive Sunday School increase campaign has been inaugurated, which has done much to stimulate this work.

"Our literary and theological institutions have all made progress. A new dormitory was erected for the Theological Seminary at Lancaster. Ursinus, Catawba and Heidelberg all are reaching out higher. Large sums have been gathered or are being gathered. Heidelberg University is making a heroic effort to raise a half million dollars. A new building is in the course of erection at the Mission House, after the troublesome question of a relocation has been finally settled. The new building is to cost in the neighborhood of $80,000.-00. A new Academy has been started at Scotland, S. Dakota. A new seminary building has been completed for the Central Theological Seminary.

THE NEW HYMNAL

The recent General Synod at Dayton approved the collection of hymns, together with the chants, Te Deum and musical responses as made by the Hymnal Committee of the General Synod and authorized the use of the text of the American Revised Version of the Bible in the responsive readings. The subject matter of the proposed Hymnal, including the index of first lines, tunes and authors, was printed and sent down immediately to all the Classes of the Church through the Stated Clerk. Synod directed the Classes, either at their annual meeting, if that had not yet been held, or at a special meeting, called as soon as possible after the meeting of General Synod, to take action upon the Hymnal, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution; and requested each Classis to send a copy of its action, as soon as possible, to the Stated Clerk of General Synod. In the event of the adoption of the Hymnal by two-thirds of the Classes the Stated Clerk was requested to communicate the fact of such adoption to the Hymnal Committee and the General Synod would thereupon approve of its provisional publication.

"At this date," (August 15, 1917), writes the Stated Clerk, Rev. J. Rauch Stein, "the required two-thirds of the number of Classes, a total of 41 out of a possible 61 votes, have been cast in favor of the adoption of the New Hymnal and the work of preparing the provisional issue will be urgently prosecuted. The committee is authorized to publish a word edition of the Hymnal at the judgment of the publishers. The Church may therefore soon expect to be busy familiarizing itself with the excellent work which has been received so favorably by the Reformed Church."

UNITED MISSIONARY AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

THE UNITED MISSIONARY AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

The General Synod, meeting at Lancaster, Pa., in May, 1914, created the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee. The Committee conducted its work during the next three years in such a way that the General Synod, meeting at Dayton, Ohio, in May, 1917, "heartily commended its United Missionary and Stewardship Committee for the very definite service it had rendered the Church during the last triennium."

The General Synod voted to continue the Committee and carefully outlined its functions and work, defining them to be:

"To carry forward the work of the Every-Member Canvass,

"To stress the claims of Christian stewardship, giving to the Church such an educational program as will stimulate larger gifts of life and means to the great work of the denomination,

"A Bureau of Finance to study the methods of Church finance that it may give expert advice to any boards, pastors, consistories, or members who may wish to consult it,

"To co-ordinate and arrange in an orderly manner the presentation of the work of the four Boards of General Synod,

"To offer with its recommendation to the next meeting of the General Synod a complete budget of expenses of the several boards,

"To prepare the Blue Book for the General Synod of 1920,

"To prepare, in co-operation with the Stated Clerks, the docket for the next meeting of General Synod."

The first four of these items refer to the regular work of the Committee throughout the triennium, and the last three items have to do with the work of the Committee in preparation for the next meeting of the General Synod.

The General Synod decreed that the Committee should consist of fourteen members: two appointed by the Board of Home Missions; two appointed by the Board of Foreign Missions; one appointed by the officers of the Laymen's Missionary Movement; one appointed by the Board of Ministerial Relief; one appointed by the Publication and Sunday School Board, and seven members, three pastors and four elders, elected by the General Synod.

The General Synod elected Rev. Drs. J. M. G. Darms, J. O. Reagle and E. S. Bromer, and elders William W. Anspach, F. von Tacky, Milton Warner and William H. Dechant; the Board of Home Missions chose Rev. C. E. Schaeffer, D.D. and Emory L. Co-blentz, Esq.; the Board of Foreign Missions, Rev. A. R.

Bartholomew, D.D. and Mr. F. M. Berkemeyer; the Laymen's Missionary Movement, Rev. William E. Lampe, Ph.D.; the Board of Ministerial Relief, Rev. J. W. Meminger, D.D., and the Publication and Sunday School Board, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D.D.

At the meeting of the Committee held on July 6, 1917, the following officers were elected: Elder William W. Anspach, Chairman, Rev. J. M. G. Darms, D.D., Vice Chairman; Rev. William E. Lampe, Ph.D., Secretary; and Elder Milton Warner, Treasurer.

The program of the Committee for the next three years is to encourage and assist the whole Church to raise annually 80 cents per communicant member for Home Missions, 80 cents for Foreign Missions, and 10 cents for Ministerial Relief, and to make an annual offering on Children's Day for Sunday School Work. The Committee will also stress the claims of Christian Stewardship and endeavor to raise the standards of giving throughout the denomination. It will encourage large proportionate giving and urge congregations to realize the standard "As Much for Others as for Ourselves."

The work of the Every-Member Canvass will be pushed throughout the triennium. More than one-half of all our congregations have already made at least one Canvass, but many of them should make it much more thoroughly and conduct it as an annual affair. It is hoped that before the end of the triennium there will not be a congregation which has not adopted this excellent system which has so thoroughly proved its worth.

The importance of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees can hardly be overestimated. They stand in close relation to the congregations of the Classes and they can render aid that it is not possible for the Committee of the General Synod to render. There are now Missionary and Stewardship Committees in fifty-one of the Classes of the Church. All of them are co-operating with General Synod's Committee.

Every congregation should have an active Missionary and Stewardship Committee. The General Synod and other judicatories have repeatedly pointed out the advantages of the work of such committees and urged their appointment.

Until a few years ago there had been only a few congregations which gave each year for the missionary and benevolent work of the Church as much as for their own expenses. The number is rapidly increasing for there were twenty-three such congregations in 1915 and twenty-eight of them in 1916.

The Reformed Church in the United States is not yet among the leading denominations in its giving to missions and benevolences, but the great possibilities are indicated in the following record of progress:

During the last three years the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee has contributed several hundred thousand leaflets, pamphlets and cards, nearly all of them free of charge. This literature, which is available to all congregations, includes valuable information regarding our missionary and benevolent work, the work of congregational committees, the weekly offerings, and the every-member canvass. Samples may be had by addressing the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, 15th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

The General Synod of Dayton (1917) marks a new epoch in the development of the Young People's Societies of the Reformed Church in the adoption of the following: 1. That the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies of General Synod be continued. 2. That a Young People's Department be established with its own secretary and office. 3. That it be independent from entangling arrangements with the Publication and Sunday School, Home Mission and Foreign Mission Boards, but in harmony with them seek to develop the various activities of the Young People's Societies of the Church. 4. That the third Sunday in October be established as Young People's Day in the Church calendar and devoted to the development of the department. 5. That the Standing Committees on Young People's Societies of the Classes each year carefully summarize the statistics according to the blank issued by General Synod and that the stated clerks of the Classes be instructed to forward them to the chairman of the General Synod's Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, until the secretary of the department be appointed.

The President then re-appointed the former Permanent Committee to serve during the new triennium. In order to support the new department it was found necessary to define ways and means. The following resolution was accordingly adopted without opposition: "Resolved, that the support of the Young People's Department shall be derived from various Young People's Societies of the Church; and, further, that during the triennium all deficits, if there be such, shall be paid in equal portions by the three Boards most interested in the development of the Young People's work, viz: The Home Mission, the Foreign Mission and the Publication and Sunday School Boards."

The committee is operating at present under three sub-committees, viz: Preliminary Work, Policy, and Secretaryship. The Committee on Preliminary Work is preparing a service for Young People's Day to be observed throughout the Church in October. It is also preparing a plan for financing the department. The Committee on Policy is working on a definite policy and plan of procedure for the triennium. The Committee on Secretaryship is authorized to find the right man to head the department.

THE CHURCH PAPER

A wide-awake pastor says, "A good religious newspaper is about the best thing next to the Bible that we have." It is altogether likely that this minister arrived at that conclusion in a thoroughly practical manner. In other words, he gave the Church paper a fair trial and found it to be beneficial to his people and helpful to him in his work. It is not likely that the people, any more than their pastors, will learn the value of the Church paper theoretically. It must be given more than a merely formal introduction by the pastor and it must be given a fair trial by the people if its real merits are to be discovered.

"The pastor needs the paper more as an instrument of service than he does as a medium of personal benefit and comfort. The Church members who are most benefited by preaching are those who know most about the things of God in the Bible and in the churches at home and abroad. The Church members who know most are the Church members who will do most, other things being equal. From both angles then the pastor needs the paper—to be blessed and to be a blessing. The denomination must have a paper, to be a denomination at all. There may be separate and unconnected churches of like faith and order scattered over the face of the earth, or joined wall to wall and still have no denomination. The Kingdom of God as it is represented by the churches on earth will be promoted by denominational life and a denomination is composed of churches of like faith and order associated together to promote the Gospel. In many things churches united to do what neither could accomplish alone, and in many other things all unite to promote the Gospel where all their strength is best employed in consecrated effort. The individual is blessed in the local church and all the local churches are blessed by co-operation with other like churches in a task commensurate with their combined strength. The religious paper is an essential factor in denominational life."

The Almanac and Year Book is published conjointly by the Publication and Sunday School Board and the Central Publishing House. These two interests publish and assume respectively the financial support of "The Reformed Church Messenger" and of "The Christian World," the former the official organ of the Eastern, Pittsburg and Potomac Synods; the latter of the Ohio Synod.

It is eminently fitting, therefore, that we should publish side by side the portraits of the editors of "The Messenger" and of the "Christian World." Of the former, the Rev. Paul Seibert Leinbach, D.D., succeeds the Rev. Cyrus J. Musser, D.D., who was elected editor emeritus by the Editorial Commission representing the Eastern, Pittsburg and Potomac Synods.

ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOLS, COLLEGES AND SEMINARIES OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

In the Almanac and Year Book of last year, considerable space was given to telling the story of the beginnings of the Association of Schools, Colleges and Seminaries of the Reformed Church in the United States. A brief sketch of each institution of higher learning was also given and pictures showing one or two in each instance of their several significant buildings. Since that time many of the members of our Church have had opportunities to see and hear a great deal more about these institutions through the stereopticon lectures which have been given throughout a number of the Classes. Anniversary addresses have been heard and the columns of the Church papers have been given with considerable freedom to this cause. But best of all thousands of the members of the church have been spoken to in a very informal way about the whole subject and enrolled by gift in the movement.

In the meantime great changes have taken place in the emphasis we as a nation have been placing on higher education, due for the most part either directly or indirectly to our nation's part in the great World War. But great as these changes are, the educational tasks before us are the same now as they were a year ago, except that we see them more clearly. Then they were stated thus:

1. To awaken our people to the vast importance of Christian Education;
2. To inform parents of all Reformed families of the advantages of Education under Christian auspices;
3. To increase the enrollment of our Reformed Schools, Colleges and Seminaries;
4. To increase the material equipment and endowment of all our institutions to standard requirement.

OUR CREED

It is interesting to note that not one word of this statement need be changed after one year's uses. The only change anyone might suggest is to intensify the statements of our convictions on all of these points. In fact they have come to be a sort of Educational Creed for us, for who cannot say most heartily, "I believe in the immediate need of awakening our people to the vast importance of Christian Education." Or, "I believe in the wisdom of an adequate effort to inform parents of all Reformed families of the advantages of Education under Christian auspices." Or, "I believe in the policy of a constant effort to increase the enrollment of our Reformed Schools, Colleges and Seminaries." Or, finally, "I believe in the immediate necessity of increasing the material equipment and endowment of all institutions to standard requirement."

Our Educational Awakening

All of us thought we could see the advantages of Christian education for times of peace, with possible uses for those thus trained when war should arise. But there is a different story to be told by our national history of the past year. It is told in three brief statements. "First, with the call to arms the government turned first and chiefly to the American colleges for the trained leaders of which it was in sore and immediate need. Secondly, the world war is clearly seen to be a battle for the dominance of certain ideals of life, and those ideals are forged and fashioned in the educational institutions of the world and by the teachers sent forth from College halls. Thirdly, the supreme need when the war is over will be that of highly trained leaders who will train and lead the people into the acceptance of and devotion to those ideals which alone will make the world a safe place for democracy and create a Christian democracy which is safe for the world." So it appears that whether in peace or at war, the leadership of the future must be sought for in our colleges and there it must be found. But if we are to have either the quality or quantity we need for reconstruction, it must be planned for.

Seeing Our Sons and Daughters as Possible Leaders

Perhaps the most difficult part for most parents of our church is to see that while this leadership must come from those now in their youth, yet it is our own sons and daughters whom God is choosing to do the large and hard tasks of the world's work, provided of course that we are giving them the ideals, and the power to lead aright. But this is to be done by cultivating their highest desires and all their powers, and the Christian college has no rival in this enormous and most important work.

College and Efficiency

This is an age of much talk about efficiency, which being interpreted means, "the shortest way to get there." So a great deal is said about not having time for this or that thing. Going to a college and taking the full course before specializing is one of the methods of applying this so called efficiency. But do we "get there" by such methods? It depends upon where we are trying to get. If the whole matter is one of the financial gain, we often do arrive but if making a living is secondary to making a life, as we believe it is, then the best way for a young man or woman to spend the years immediately following their preparatory work is in a good Christian College. Getting rich? No, but getting what a great American educator, William DeWitt Hyde calls:

The Offer of the College

"To be at home in all lands and all ages; to count nature a familiar acquaintance, and art an intimate friend; to gain a standard for the appreciation of other men's work and the criticism of your own; to carry the keys of the world's library in your pocket, and feel its resources behind you in whatever task you undertake; to make hosts of friends among men of your own age who are to be leaders in all walks of life; to lose yourself in generous enthusiasms and cooperate with others for common ends; to learn manners from students who are gentlemen, and form character under professors who are Christians,—this is the offer of the college for the best four years of your life."

The Awakening of the Churches

Now parents are not entirely to blame for overlooking the importance of seeing that their sons and daughters were educated under Christian auspices when we remember that for a few generations whole denominations have left the propagation of this idea entirely in the hands of those in charge of the institutions. Now Church people see farther into the future and the trend is back to the Church school again. And for sufficient reasons.

Your Church Schools are Your Schools

It has been observed that a surprising number of very earnest men and women in the Reformed Church have never set foot inside any one of the schools of their Church. For this reason two erroneous ideas have arisen, both of which are easily corrected by obeying the Apostolic injunction, "Come and see." They think the courses unpractical and the schools not efficient. Let us repeat, "Come and see." If this is impossible, some careful inquiries will show how well our own schools are doing all they attempt to do and how they stand among others of their kind.

Who Make Church Schools Possible

While there are many as has been noted above, who are not in close touch with the schools of our Church, there are others who have been faithful to them from the beginning of their histories. Were this not true our noble educational history would have been impossible. One of the purposes of this movement is to enlarge the circle of friends. Schools cannot receive support from taxation; the larger Foundations have very rigid restrictions in some instances, and of course no student body can pay for its own education. It remains for the Church herself to face this task, and she does it. On our mission fields we are giving about three out of every five dollars to work of this sort, believing with Humboldt, "Whatever you would put into the state, you must first put into the schools." Our forefathers believed in these institutions for of this nature were most of the early colleges of our land. Practically every denomination now believes in them, since from these fountain heads flow the healing waters, and they who come there and tarry for a season go forth to heal the nations and raise up the sons and daughters of God. For this reason, it is not strange that after some of the Churches have neglected their schools for a number of years, thinking that the state could take entire care of higher education, yet during the past five or six years almost every denomination has started a campaign looking toward the strengthening of its schools. "No Church is greater than her schools," is the slogan of one great Church, and others have similar thoughts in mind. The enormous sum of more than one hundred and twenty millions of dollars is involved in the campaigns of the Churches. Roughly speaking this calls for gifts of between three and four dollars from every man, woman and child in the Protestant Churches in the land. This is also about the amount per member called for by our Church, when she asks for the total of one million dollars. A large sum in the aggregate. A small one indeed when apportioned among the more than three hundred thousands of members, a large number of whom have never made a gift directly for higher education.

Why Should I Give to These Schools?

For these reasons we must come to the conclusion that education is not the work of a few men and women who have charge of our schools, but that it is one of the important branches of the work of the kingdom, and as such it must challenge every earnest member. For are we not all indebted to these schools? If I am helped by my pastor, if I enjoy the services of the Church with its songs and hymns, if the literature of the Church and the inspiration flowing out from our centers of learning have been a joy and a source of strength to me, then indeed am I debtor to these same schools, for while perhaps not directly yet indirectly they are my alma mater—my "nourishing mother."

There is another reason why I should support these institutions. When I make a contribution to either Home or Foreign Missions I am thinking of what I can do to help build men and women into the likeness of their Master, whether they live far across the seas or in the next street. Who is to lead, these shepherdless ones? Who are training leaders for them now? What will all of my dollars amount to unless there is some one who is trained to do the work? These institutions are therefore the means whereby you and I can make ourselves felt in the distant places of the earth through these noble companies of graduates laboring everywhere. We can give toward the endowment of them and strengthen their message. We can help them with their equipment. We can give toward scholarships and help poor boys and girls who apart from this small start cannot give themselves,—a far greater sacrifice than we are making,—and be great blessings to the Church and the world.

But perhaps you cannot give now. Perhaps you must have the funds for your declining years. Why not think of an annuity? Why not bequeath of your funds to these causes? This is a part of our duty to ourselves and to the causes we love. Such gifts are possible for many of us who are not at all able to make present ones of equal size, but they are nevertheless very helpful ways to help the work of the Church carry out what to us is of first importance.

How Shall I Remember My Dear Ones?

There are those who would erect memorials to their dear ones. Some of the most beautiful expressions to the memory of dear ones are not found in cemeteries, where they can render no service to the living. You will find them as professorships, making provision for the instruction of students for ages to come. You will find them as buildings, whether erected to serve as libraries, gymnasia, science halls or dormitories. You will find them as funds for the education of worthy but poor students. In short you will find about almost every school a number of gifts that are more truly memorial than the most elaborate shaft in the church yard. They are given to such causes as the departed counted dear and through this means his or her friend is made to live. The names of parents, brothers and sisters or pastors are by such courses recorded in a way that will remain after the shafts have become worn and beaten by time. This creed then of Christian education, of a deepened interest and acquaintanceship with our institutions, of a new emphasis on the things for which Christian Education stand, and of a definite gift from every member of the Church to her Educational Institutions, like every real creed is more than a creed. It is a challenge and as such must be faced thoughtfully by every earnest person who thinks carefully and prayerfully before doing anything in the work of the Kingdom, and who desires to work in harmony with all constructive forces. The generous and universal response received whenever this appeal has been made intelligently is a splendid testimony to the serious and thoughtful way in which our people face such facts.

THE STORY OF OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL MISSIONARY WORK

Eleven thousand towns and villages west of the Mississippi without even a Sunday School, not to mention a church. This is a part of the unfinished missionary task in the homeland. And east of the Mississippi! While there may be much overcrowding, there is yet much barren ground. Here too it is the Sunday School, in most cases, upon which the foundations are laid for the coming church.

The following story was recently told by a Sunday School Missionary in the West. He and his companion had canvassed a no-Sunday School town all afternoon, with the result that more than a dozen converts were made. After the evening meeting in the schoolhouse, the hostess told the missionary, this story. "When I was putting my little son to bed he said, 'Mother, I think I am going to love that man, but my how he swored and swore in the schoolhouse; but he must have been ashamed of himself, because he hung his head and kept his eyes closed all the while he did it.'" And this in Christian America. Certainly here is a place for the Sunday School Missionary. Daily these men are bringing to the children in the desert places a different knowledge of Jesus, than that which they receive on the street corner from profane men.

Space does not permit giving the thrilling story of the organization of, and help rendered Reformed Mission Sunday Schools in the early days of need, by the Publication and Sunday School Board. One notable example must suffice. All but two of the many flourishing churches of Akron, Ohio, either originated, or were supported in this way, and this largely through the agency of that splendid champion of the Missionary and Sunday School cause, Dr. E. R. Williard. The impress of such activity has contributed to no little degree to make Akron one of the leading missionary centers in the Reformed Church.

In addition to this extensive work, the Publication and Sunday School Board is tireless in its efforts to arouse the spirit of missions, and to develop missionary intelligence concerning our home and foreign work throughout all of the schools under its care. To this end, it has set up a missionary standard for the Sunday Schools, has furnished a missionary curriculum for the schools, published leaflets and text books and promotes the cause at Sunday School Conventions, and the Summer Conferences. For carrying on this important work, it is dependent upon the offerings on Children's Day, and private gifts of individuals. If you, my reader, are looking for a worthy cause in which to invest some money for the kingdom, here is one among the many other worthy ones, which makes a peculiarly strong appeal. For further information address the Publication and Sunday School Board, 15th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa..

Plans are going forward for the erection of the Schaff Building. War conditions made it impossible to begin in 1917. If you wish to permanently establish the general work of the Reformed Church—Missionary, Educational, Sunday School, make a gift to the Schaff Building Fund.

Thousands of our church members are enrolled in the Organized Adult Classes in our Sunday Schools. Every one—young and old—from the baby on the Cradle Roll to the aged person over eighty, should belong to the Sunday School.

Sunday School papers, Lesson Helps, Bibles, Hymnals, Books, are silent influences for good. Who can measure their value! The Publication and Sunday School Board circulates eight million copies yearly. Do you cooperate with the Board in this work? Have you good reading matter in your home for all the family?

The weekly Church paper ought to be in every home. Our Reformed Church can be justly proud of the Reformed Church Messenger, Christian World, The Kirchenzeitung. The publishers of this almanac will send you free sample copies.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

One of the important departments in the work of the Publication and Sunday School Board is the Music Department.

It has been a recognized fact for a long time that music plays a very important part in the work of Church and Sunday School. Many of the denominations had been giving more or less attention to the solution of what is becoming more and more of a problem. Our Board, by employing a musician to give his entire time to this work, set a precedent that has since been followed by other denominational boards.

The work of this department may be divided into three parts, namely:

1. Our Own Publications.

We are a little different from others in having a composer of recognized ability as the head of our department and our original publications have been unusually successful and appreciated not only in our own but all other denominations. We have issued Festival Services, Cantatas, Song Stories, Song Books, Anthem Books, Octavo Anthems, Sheet Music, etc., and they have had a remarkable sale throughout this and other countries.

2. Publications Issued by Others.

In addition to our publications, we carry almost everything issued by the various publishers throughout the country and what we do not carry in stock we can procure at publishers' rates and without delay. Many of our churches are glad to refer all orders to us and appreciate the real service we render in this respect. However, there are some who think that because they do not purchase our publications, they should go direct to the publishers. Why not order from us? For every order we place with another publisher, we make a small discount which goes into the work of the Board in instituting and assisting new Sunday Schools. No matter what you intend to purchase and from whom, let us have the order, please.

3. Our "Service" Department.

This is a very important feature of the department and is becoming more and more appreciated. There are problems, with relation to music, which come up from time to time and we want you to get into the habit of referring these problems to us. More than likely our Mr. Lowden can help you, but if not, he knows just where to find solution of the musical problem.

HOME MISSIONS

Evangelism

The Board of Home Missions appointed the following persons to constitute the Committee on Evangelism: Rev. E. S. Bromer, D.D.; Rev. C. E. Schaeffer, D.D.; Rev. C. B. Schneder, D.D.; Rev. F. A. Rupley, and Rev. George Longaker. This Committee has projected a three years' campaign for the Reformed Church. This contemplates an increase in the membership by at least 75,000 by 1920. This is clearly within the range of possibility, but it will require the mobilizing of all the forces and activities of the local congregations. The campaign also contemplates the deepening and strengthening of the spiritual life of our people, and urges more regular and faithful attendance upon the services of the sanctuary, and at the Holy Communion. The Church of Christ stands for a sane evangelism, and the campaign of the Committee deserves the most hearty and enthusiastic support of all our pastors and people.

Social Service

The following persons constitute the Committee on Social Service: Rev. William C. Schaeffer, D.D.; Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D.D.; Rev. H. L. G. Kieffer;

Prof. A. V. Hiester, Ph.D.; and Rev. J. L. Fluck, D.D. This Committee is endeavoring to define the social task of the Reformed Church as it relates itself to the community, the industrial order, the political life, as well as the other phases of applied Christianity. The Committee has issued a social creed clearly outlining its policy. The various district Synods have special Committees on Social Service which cooperate with the general Committee of the Board. The work of Social Service constitutes the larger task of the Church as expressed in the final command of the Master, "Causing them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you."

Work Among Marines and Sailors

The Board of Home Missions is supporting several workers at League Island, Philadelphia, among the marines and sailors who are in training there. The war conditions are making new demands upon the forces of organized Christianity and are making it necessary for these agencies to reconstruct their program of work. To minister in spiritual things to the ten thousand men stationed on the Island is a work of far reaching significance.

Progressive Project

This is a movement carried forward by the Board of Home Missions and the Synod of the Interior to make it possible to liquidate the debts on the Missions and to quicken the life of the congregations within the Synod. The Synod itself will raise $40,000, and the Board of Home Missions is to provide an additional $70,000 within a period of five years. The Synod has already pledged its full amount, and the Board challenges the Church at large to cooperate in raising its allotted part. One hundred congregations are being challenged each to contribute a Gift Church-building Fund of $500 for this purpose, so that the Board's portion may be provided for. The Board has decided that the Home Mission Day offerings for a series of years shall also be applied to this purpose.

Philadelphia Program

This is a movement confined to the Philadelphia Classis, whereby the Board of Home Missions and the Classis are to make it possible to provide every Mission within its bounds with an adequate equipment and go to self-support within a definite period. An aggregate amount of $125,000 is to be raised, of which sum the Board is to contribute $50,000 during a period of five years. This will greatly stimulate the work of these Missions and will enable the Board to launch out upon a number of new and promising fields.

These two Programs, the one in Philadelphia, the other in the Synod of the Interior, may lead the way for the adoption of similar plans in other sections of the Church where Missions stand in immediate need of such assistance.

Jewish Work

The Board of Home Missions has been carrying forward work in behalf of the Jews in Brooklyn, New York, for the past year. Rev. W. Walenta is serving as Superintendent of the same, and Rev. William Diekmann as Missionary and Field Worker. Stated meetings are being held during the week, and although no definite organization has as yet been effected, a large number of Jewish people and children have been reached by the gospel message. Receipts from the Church at large for this work have been very encouraging, enabling the Board to reduce its appropriation to the work for this current year by one thousand dollars.

Church-building Department

The Church-building Fund Department in charge of Supt. J. S. Wise, reports that during the fiscal year, the Board received 44 Church-building Funds; which now brings the total number of Funds up to aggregating the sum of $376,980, of which $302,075 is in the form of Loan Funds and $74,905 in the form of Gift Funds.

Hungarian Work

The Reformed Church started Home Mission work among the Hungarians in 1890. There are at present sixteen Hungarian Missions on the Roll, with a membership of 2,400, besides twice as many adherents. The Board of Home Missions recently organized a Mission at Northampton, Penna. Daily Vacation Bible Schools are conducted during the Summer months in most of these Hungarian churches. They are largely attended by Hungarian children who are being instructed in the fundamental truths of our religion.

Through the cooperation of the Woman's Missionary Society, the Board is supporting four Deaconesses among the Hungarians. These women care for the children of Hungarian families, assist in conducting Vacation Bible Schools, and minister to their countrymen in religious as well as temporal affairs.

The "Reformatusok Lapja" is the name of the weekly publication, edited by Rev. Alexander Harsanyi, Ph.D., of Homestead, Penna., which circulates among Hungarians in both the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches. The "Bibliai Tanito" is a monthly publication intended for religious instruction.

There are many opportunities for enlarging the work among the Hungarians at the present time. Many of them have within the last few years taken out naturalization papers and are determined to remain in America. In many instances our English and German Churches can interest themselves in behalf of these people and afford them religious privileges in our established places of worship. The children of these Hungarians will become thoroughly Americanized within a generation and they will in due time attend our Sunday Schools and Catechetical Classes and take their place among our church workers.

The Board of Home Missions has 251 Missions on its roll. They are divided as follows:

English.....	142	Japanese...1
German.....	88	Harbor.....1
Hungarian.....	16	Jewish.....1
Bohemian.....	2

The total membership in the mission congregations is 27055. The Missions contributed for benevolence last year $54,986.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

GROUP OF MISSIONARIES—ALLENTOWN CONFERENCE

Foreign Mission Day has been fixed by the General Synod. This year it will occur on February 10th. Its observance by all the congregations and Sunday Schools will prove a blessing to our people and a benefit to the work.

During 1918 the Board of Foreign Missions hopes to bring the evangelistic work of our Japan Mission vividly to the attention of parents and children. With a number of our evangelistic missionaries home on furlough the claims of this important arm of the work will receive due emphasis.

The Chinese appreciate the worth of our missionaries. They are telling us, "send us more workers—the more the better." This is the call that is ringing out of the darkness of heathenism.

ALLENTOWN CONFERENCE

To talk with our foreign missionaries is to be driven to one's knees in prayer for a great revival in giving at home. First, we need to give ourselves, and then, of our means to support the work. We send our men and women to the fields, but they need money to provide chapels and homes, and to pay the native workers.

Dr. James L. Barton, Secretary of the American Board, writes of "The Apostle of Ryo-U": "I am glad that this little book is out, and I hope and expect it will exert a wholesome influence upon missionary societies and upon missionaries in leading them to see that after all the supreme aim of all our work is to introduce men and women to Jesus Christ. Education is necessary. The medical is a strong arm of missions. Christian literature must be printed and circulated, and yet the final word of all is Christ, the redeemer of men."

No country in the world has greater need of physicians and nurses than China. There is no country more ignorant of the laws of health. It is true native doctors are in abundance, but anybody can be a doctor in China. No arm of Christian Missions exerts a more saving influence on the Chinese, in body and soul, than the practical benevolence of the medical missionary.

On a separate page in the Almanac will be found the names and addresses of our missionaries, and the latest facts and figures relating to their work.

For all the literature issued by the Board of Foreign Missions, including the Thirteenth Triennial Report, orders should be sent to the Secretary.

The three years' National Evangelistic Campaign in Japan has produced a deep and lasting impression upon the people who came within the sweep of its influence. The Christian Church in the empire has been brought to a sense of its unity and power. It has given the pastors a strong faith to undertake similar movements in the future. How to take care of inquirers is one of the questions that is stirring the minds and hearts of the leaders. More missionaries and chapels are the need of the hour to conserve this work, and nourish the young converts in working out their salvation.

One of the popular forms of Christian work in Japan is the kindergarten. There are about 180 schools with the number of pupils reaching nearly 8000. Everywhere these schools are doing excellent work. They not only influence the lives of the little children, but they become centers from which the gospel radiates into many homes. Our Japan Mission has three such schools. We should have at least two kindergartens in our China Mission.

The Almanac Man wants a Bethany picture and paragraph for the 1918 Year Book. Here they are. Look at the picture and then read the paragraph.

All those boxes, ready for the drayman, are filled with groceries, provisions, etc., gathered at the suggestion and packed under the direction of a young man who used his influence among the members of his church and Sunday School to induce them to make a donation to Bethany Orphans' Home. He and they succeeded very well and their help gave us much encouragement.

Now look at the picture again. It is prettier than it seemed at first glance. For, where you then saw only boxes you now see also cheerful sacrifice, loving service and a good example for you to follow during 1918.

OLD BUILDING

THE FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME

One hundred and fourteen children have been taken care of during the past year. The largest number present at any one time was 95.

Considering the high cost of all the commodities of life, it is almost miraculous how the Father in heaven provided for us. Surely, He blessed the loaves and fishes, so that this company of His children never suffered actual hunger.

Enlargement and training to efficiency are being stressed at this time. For many years we have been urged by our limitations and especially by the State Board of Charities and Corrections to erect another building to be used principally for a mess hall. This new building is an accomplished fact. The new building was constructed at an expense of twenty five thousand dollars, contributed by congregations and Sunday Schools for the most part, only a few larger individual gifts having been given.

In 1906 George W. and Agnes Hoffman presented to the Synod of the Potomac a farm of 200 acres for the establishment of an orphanage where the orphans should receive agricultural and household training. From the day of the opening under Superintendent J. S. Hartman until today many more applications have been received than could be accepted. Besides the farm buildings there are the Administration building, a cottage, the water and light plant and the laundry.

The Rev. Andrew H. Smith is the new Superintendent. With many needs confronting him—the most immediate is a second cottage to cost $10,000.00.

THREE CHURCH FATHERS

The fathers of the Church are the heritage of the Church. The names of Harbaugh, Gerhart and Bomberger are links in the chain of our church workers that bind us to a noble past.

The year 1917 marked the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of these three men. This event was noted in a number of places by memorial addresses.

Each of these leaders was well qualified by nature and grace to render a special service to the cause of Christian Truth.

As preachers of the Gospel, they were not ashamed to confess, with Paul, that it is the power of God unto Salvation to everyone that believeth. It fell to the lot of each one of them to help in preparing young men for the Christian Ministry.

Dr. Harbaugh was a prolific writer. His heart went out to the young people. He felt the need of literature for them, and this led him in 1850 to publish The Guardian, a monthly magazine, that supplied a real want in our Church. His Golden Censer is still without a rival as a book of devotion for the young. He was a typical Pennsylvania German, and by his voice and pen he did much to interpret the social and religious life of the Pennsylvanians of German ancestry.

To Dr. Gerhart belongs the distinctive honor of having been longest in service as a teacher in our institutions of learning. He was a professor in College and Seminary at Tiffin, Mercersburg and Lancaster. He had few rivals as a disciplinarian. His influence will abide in the lives and labors of thousands of men who came under the potent spell of his voice in the classroom and from the pulpit. Dr. Gerhart was the author of a number of books; among them the "Institutes of the Christian Religion" deserves special mention.

Dr. Bomberger as a pastor and preacher was a tower of strength in the Church. He became the founder of Ursinus College, an institution that has sent forth hundreds of young men and women into every walk of life. As time passes his influence, especially in the field of educational and religious activities, will become more apparent, and the character of his work more enduring.

"THE JAPAN PLAN"

The Board of Foreign Missions has approved the following outline of an Educational Program on Japan for the early part of 1918. Every worker in every local Church should become acquainted with it and lay plans now to fit it into next year's program.

Three specific organizations in each Church are to be reached intensively:

1. Young People's Organization. The Christian Endeavor Society, Heidelberg League, Jugend Verein, or Guild. For these the new Mission Study book, "Tohoku, the Scotland of Japan" is being prepared by Dr. Christopher Noss and his associates of the Japan Mission.

2. The Sunday School. Attractive wall charts and lesson stories will be prepared to make it possible for the whole Sunday School to take "A Tour of North Japan."

3. Children's Organization. Junior Christian Endeavor Society, Mission Band, etc. A book of stories on our work in North Japan is being written by Mrs. J. H. String of Cleveland, Ohio, known to the readers of "Leaves of Light", as Aunt Peggy.

Let every Church and Sunday School officer take note. Particularly let the Congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committee do so!

For full information and for materials write to the Mission Study Dept., Reformed Church Building, Fifteenth and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

SETTLE THAT MUSIC PROBLEM RIGHT

The Music Department of our Board is a department of helpfulness—it was organized for this purpose—and hundreds of our churches will testify to the fact that it has been of real assistance in many ways.

WE PUBLISH excellent material for use in all departments of Church activities and our publications are held in high esteem by Ministers and other workers in all denominations. We feel our own publications will more than please you.

BUT, in addition, we fill orders for everything published by others, and always at publishers' rate.

Founded at Carlisle, March, 1825

LANCASTER, PENNA.

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Reformed Church is conducted under the direction of three English Synods: The Eastern Synod, the Pittsburg Synod and the Synod of the Potomac.

The Course of Instruction embraces three years and includes all the branches of a complete education for the Christian ministry.

A fine Dormitory and Refectory were recently added to the equipment, in which room and board may be had at reasonable rates.

The Seminary year begins on the second Thursday of September.

BARLOW'S Indigo Blue

The Tried and True Wash Blue of America

IT is over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for half a century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard Blueing throughout the country.

Trade Mark is registered and we caution the trade against handling goods imitating style and appearance

FOREWORD

THE ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK has become a household necessity for so many thousands of good Reformed Church families that it is fitting that much time and thought should be given to its compilation. We have aimed to provide in the briefest possible form a resume of the important facts that will be of most service in our Church households and feel that the general introduction of this little book into the homes of our people will be of no little service in the upbuilding of the Kingdom. It is altogether appropriate that the 1919 Almanac should have the accent of Christian patriotism and that we should pay special attention to the work of the Reformed Church in helping to win the great war for democracy and justice. We have a right to be proud of the part our people are taking in furthering this righteous cause, and we are confident there will be no faltering on the part of the loyal homes of the Reformed Church, but a resoluteness to make the needed sacrifice, no matter how costly, to aid in securing complete victory.

Much of the energy of our people during these war times must inevitably be given to the cause of country, but we are grateful to be able to report that in spite of this drain upon our resources most of the interests of the Church are being maintained with gratifying generosity. There is along some lines a dangerous tendency to relax the work of the Kingdom of God and "wait until after the war" to prosecute religious duties, but forward-looking people are recognizing how fatal that attitude and method would be, both for the best interests of the State and of the Church. We are summoned by the highest authority to "speed up" all the interests of the Kingdom rather than to permit them to lag in any particular, and we are to regard this not only as a religious obligation, but as a supreme patriotic duty. Let us not forget what the Commander-in-Chief of our Army and Navy has declared to a delegation of religious leaders who asked him what they could do to help win the war. President Wilson replied: "Keep the Church at the flood-tide of spiritual power. This war cannot be won by material forces alone. We need the moral and spiritual, and the Church of Christ is the only agency that can adequately develop these." In the face of this challenge it would be arch-treason to the Flag of our country, as well as to our Divine Lord, if we permitted the work of the Church to deteriorate and retrograde in this crisis. Whatever work we have done in the past, every one of us is challenged to work harder now. Whatever sacrifices we have made hitherto should be counted as nothing in comparison with the sacrifices of the present. If in any true sense we match here at home the spirit of the splendid boys who are representing us "over there," we will succeed in making this country a far greater and more glorious land to welcome our "conquering heroes" when they come back home.

It is a delight to present in this issue of our YEAR BOOK the pictures of our National Service Commission and of the Chaplains and Y. M. C. A. workers from our ranks, in so far as these could be secured. And it is with solemn pride that we present, also, the pictures of a number of our martyred heroes, some of those, from the splendid flower of our young manhood, who have paid "the last full measure of devotion" in this great struggle for freedom.

Attention should be called, also, in this Foreword to the loss sustained by our Board and by the readers of the Almanac, during 1918, in the death of Rev. John H. Bomberger, D.D., and Rev. Prof. A. T. G. Apple, two splendid servants of the Church, Christian gentlemen of the best type, who contributed so largely toward the value of this ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for many years. We shall greatly miss their active and inspiring ministry and can only hope that the departments so long in their charge may continue to prove helpful to our many readers.

We send out this little volume in this serious time with the hope that 1919 may bring to us, if possible, complete victory in the war of nations, and unprecedented triumphs in the Church of God.

RELIGIOUS LITERATURE

It has been well said that "morality, piety and efficiency wait on Christian information and understanding." Very little service, and that of an imperfect sort, is to be expected from people whose knowledge of Christian principles and activities is slight. The way to get better officials and members for the Christian Church is to teach them the thoughts and the business of Christ. This can be done not only from the pulpit, but by means of the Church paper. There are only too many members of the household, who do not attend regularly the services of the sanctuary, but in an attractive religious journal we have a means of putting the pulpit into the homes of the people, and it was one of our most wide-awake pastors who said, "A good religious newspaper is about the best thing, next to the Bible, that we have to stimulate the work of the Christian Church."

This war has taught us the value of propaganda, both for good and evil. When put to base uses, it can succeed in poisoning individuals and nations. When used for good ends, it can arouse the enthusiasm which guarantees success. We are coming to see more and more that the Church paper in the home makes for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God in a remarkable degree, and that pastors, by wise and tactful methods, can make the people realize that it is not "more than they can afford" to invest three or four cents a week in order to discover what is being done and what ought to be done in the Church of Christ throughout the world. Those who have formed the splendid habit of reading good religious literature realize that they simply cannot afford to do without a Church paper, which brings them the information they need and the inspiration so essential to the proper development of the Christian life.

This ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK is published jointly by the Publication and Sunday School Board of General Synod, and the Central Publishing House. These two interests publish and assume, respectively, the financial support of the REFORMED CHURCH MESSENGER and THE CHRISTIAN WORLD. The former is the official organ of the Eastern, Pittsburgh and Potomac Synods; the latter of the Ohio Synod. By the joint action of the General Board, Ohio Synod, and the Central Publishing House, plans are under way to unite these two papers early in 1919 and have one organ for a united Church. If you desire the people of your congregation to be wideawake, up-to-date, devoted and generous, we believe that you will find great blessing in promoting the use of your denominational literature in the homes of the people. It will bless your own congregation, and it will bless the Church of Christ as a whole.

THE NEW HYMNAL

An outstanding event for the people of the Reformed Church in 1919 will undoubtedly be the publication of the new Hymnal. This splendid volume, prepared by a joint committee of the Reformed Church in America and the Reformed Church in the United States, which has met with such great approbation on the part of all who have studied its contents, is likely to be on sale, unless unforeseen contingencies arise in these war times, very early in the new year. We believe that it will find wide acceptance among our people and that hundreds of our congregations will take advantage of the opportunity to secure this collection of the great hymns of the Church which will so much more adequately meet the needs of these new times.

THE UNITED MISSIONARY AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

Near the close of the year 1917 General Synod's United Missionary and Stewardship Committee adopted a definite policy and program of work for the triennium. The work since then has been on a very definite basis and the entire Church has been united in carrying it forward. At the meetings of the Classes in the spring of 1918 there was unqualified support of the Missionary and Stewardship Committees of each Classis and all the work which is carried forward by General Synod's Committee.

The most apparent evidence of progress during the year is in the activities of the Classical Committees. Several years ago only about half of the Classes had committees and some of them were not active. There are now committees in fifty-five of the sixty-one Classes, the only exceptions being the Hungarian Classis, one Classis in Southwest Synod, and four Classes of the Synod of the Northwest. The committees in a few of the Classes are not nearly so active as they should be, but the large majority are vigorously prosecuting their work. These Classical Committees are to be most highly commended, for without them the great work of the denomination could not be done nearly so effectively as it has been in the past year.

Meetings of the chairmen of the Classical Committees have been held several times by Synods. These meetings have resulted in passing on plans of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee and the most successful plans of the Classical Committees to all of the workers throughout the Church. In September, 1918, a meeting was held of Classical Chairmen from all of the Synods with the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee; the great results from this meeting will be of lasting benefit to all of the missionary and benevolent work of the Reformed Church.

As the outcome of many conferences and of the successful work done in many Classes the following has been adopted as a statement or program of work of Classical Committees:

"Stimulates in all the congregations the development of the missionary spirit, and assists them in the raising of their benevolent moneys, the full apportionment as a minimum.

"Assists the pastors, consistories, and congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committees, in devising and installing better financial methods.

"Urges appointment of congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committees, and assists them in their work.

"Requests special meeting of Classis each year, early in the fall, to discuss special report of this Committee.

"Holds special conferences with congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committees, members of consistories, and others.

"Visits consistories and congregations.

"Advocates an annual exchange of pulpits to present missions and stewardship, the Every-Member Canvass, etc.

"Publishes leaflets, financial statements, and other literature, and sends circular letters to pastors and consistories."

The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee determined to do every thing possible to secure the entire apportionment each year of the triennium and to give especial attention to this during the first year. It is encouraging to note that the Board of Foreign Missions and the Board of Home Missions secured about $25,000 more for each cause on the apportionment than in any previous year. The receipts of the Board of Foreign Missions for the year June 1, 1917, to May 31, 1918, were $132,491.37. The Board of Home Missions of General Synod received from the six Synods $127,665, while the Northwest, Central and Southwest Synods contributed for Home Missions on apportionment the amount of $25,793.82, making the total amount of $153,458.82 received for Home Missions on apportionment during the Classical year. For Home and Foreign Missions Interior Synod paid 97 per cent. of its apportionment, Pittsburgh Synod 95 per cent., Ohio Synod 84 per cent., Potomac Synod 58 per cent. and Eastern Synod 58 per cent.

The Classes at their meetings in 1918 were enthusiastic in their efforts to secure the full apportionment during the next year. Every Classis in the five English Synods, with a single exception, adopted the new apportionment of General Synod, 80 cents per communicant member for Home Missions, 80 cents for Foreign Missions and 10 cents for Ministerial Relief. The entire Church should rally to the support of the Classes and their committees and raise this apportionment in full this year.

The success of the Every-Member Canvass as a method of financing the congregation and its benevolent work has had additional proof during the last year and about 150 congregations adopted the method and made the Canvass for the first time. We are soon reaching the time when a congregation that does not conduct an Annual Every-Member Canvass and use the double envelope will be an exception, and probably be one of the congregations unable to finance its work successfully While continuing all of the other work already referred to, the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee will place special stress upon the promotion of Stewardship this year. Our people should be led to see that the highest type of Christian life and experience is that of the Christian who recognizes that all that he has and is is a trust, to be administered for our Lord and on behalf of His Kingdom. Definite plans for promoting Stewardship have been outlined for the work in the Classes and in the congregations.

During the third year of the triennium an effort will be made greatly to increase the number of congregations whose standard is "As much for Others as for Ourselves." The number of such congregations in the Reformed Church had increased to 23 in 1915, and was 28 in 1916. We are glad to report that there were 31 of these congregations in 1917.

When the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee was created by the General Synod in 1914 one of its duties was defined to be, "A Financial Bureau for Consultation without Charge by Ministers, Laymen and Congregations of the Church." During the first three years the Committee was so used by many throughout the Church, but during the last year it had very many such calls made upon it, and it is becoming a clearinghouse from which can be secured help and information of all kinds regarding financial matters.

The address of the Committee is, The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, 302 Reformed Church Building, 15th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

HOME MISSIONS

The Board of Home Missions is conducting its work under different departments.

I. General. This department includes the Missions and Missionaries which the Board is supporting, either in part or in whole. The monthly payroll for the Board's appropriation to the Missionaries amounts to $10,000. This money is provided for by the Church through the apportionment. The full apportionment is $250,000 annually. If this entire amount were paid by the Church, the Board could greatly enlarge its present work.

II. Church-building. This is under the direct supervision of Mr. J. S. Wise, who also serves as Treasurer of the Board. This Department concerns itself with the raising of Church-building Funds of $500 or more each, and the investment of the money in the erection of church buildings for the Missions. During the last year the following churches were assisted by the Board in the erection of church edifices: Grafton Avenue Church, Dayton, Ohio; Avon Street Church, Akron, Ohio; Grace Church, Detroit, Mich.; First Church, Gary, Ind.; First Church, Charlotte, N. C.; Church at Winston-Salem, N. C.; St. Paul's Church, East Allentown, Penna.; St. John's Church, Bethlehem, Penna.; and the Jewish Mission at Brooklyn, N. Y.

III. Immigration. This department is in charge of Supt. D. A. Souders, D.D. This includes work among the Hungarians and Bohemians in this country. We have at present fifteen Hungarian Missions, and two Bohemian Missions. There are four deaconesses employed in our Hungarian Churches. The Board is also doing extensive work among the Japanese in San Francisco, and among the Jews in Brooklyn, N. Y. It is likewise supporting a Harbor Mission on Ellis Island, N. Y.

IV. Department of the East. This is in charge of Supt. James M. Mullan, who is looking after the detailed work of the Missions within the bounds of the Eastern, Potomac and Pittsburgh Synods.

V. Department of the West. This is in charge of Supt. John C. Horning, and covers the territory of the Ohio Synod, and the Synod of the Interior.

The Board is likewise carrying forward the work of Evangelism through a separate committee of which Dr. E. S. Bromer is the Chairman, and also the work of Social Service through a committee of which Dr. William C. Schaeffer is the Chairman.

New Problems

The present world situation and the part which America has come to play in it, brings many pressing and perplexing problems to the Church. Applied Christianity is the only remedy that can right the social, industrial and moral wrongs of a people. The work of Home Missions means the task of christianizing Christendom. This involves more than the founding and fostering of new Churches. It implies the application of the principles of Jesus Christ to all relations of life in their individual and social expressions. The task of Home Missions, therefore, has greatly enlarged within recent years. The war-time industries which affect approximately one hundred cities in America are precipitating new problems upon the Board of Home Missions. These industrial centers are attracting large masses of people from other sections of the country. The Church must care for the physical as well as the spiritual needs of these people. This involves a high degree of spiritual statesmanship, and of true consecration to the best interests of humanity.

Americanization

The problem of Americanization presses with peculiar force. There are in this country, approximately, thirty million people who are either foreign born or the children of foreign born parents. These need to be assimilated into our American life. The immigrant in our midst, especially the children, must be taught the English Language and be made acquainted with American ideals, life and customs.

The negro is precipitating a Home Mission problem upon the Churches of the North. Vast numbers are being imported from the South-land. Philadelphia alone expects two hundred thousand negroes during the current year. The principles of democracy for which we are fighting demand the recognition of equal rights on the part of all the different races in America.

Home Mission Day

The annual Home Mission Day is observed on the second Sunday in November. This furnishes congregations and Sunday Schools the opportunity to bring before their people the needs as well as the work of the Board of Home Missions. For several years the offerings on this day have been devoted to the Missions within the bounds of the Synod of the Interior.

Grateful Acknowledgment

The Board of Home Missions gratefully acknowledges the help which it receives from the Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod. This organization is annually contributing towards the general work of the Board and also furnishes a number of Church-building Funds. It is likewise assisting in the support of the deaconesses among the Hungarians, as well as along other lines of Home Mission Work.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Foreign Mission Day comes on Sunday, February 9th, 1919. The offerings in congregations and Sunday Schools will be for the evangelistic work in Japan and China.

Christian Stewardship is being emphasized in the Reformed Church as never before. A Christian cannot administer his Stewardship in any better way than by contributing liberally to the cause of Foreign Missions.

From January 27th to March 20th, 1918, our Mission in China underwent the horrors of war. Our missionaries were prepared and acted the part of the Good Samaritan. 3,000 Chinese women and children sought refuge in our Compound at Lakeside during the latter part of January. On March 25th, 10,000 found refuge in the temporary sheds on the Yochow Compound and were fed. There is wide-spread readiness to hear the Gospel.

In order to rebuild the Main Street Chapel and the Day School in Yochow City, the Dining Hall and Gymnasium at Lakeside, to pay for the care of the wounded soldiers in the hospital, the enforced flight of our missionaries to Kuling, and many other expenses, not to speak of the alarming loss by exchange, the Board of Foreign Missions must receive at least $50,000.

The second Recitation Hall of Miyagi the Girls' School was dedicated on May 28, 1918. It is brick vener frame, 90 ft. long and 45 ft. wide, and two and a half stories high. It cost $19,000, which was contributed by the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod. The Principal, Dr. Allen K. Faust, believes that the addition of this new building to the equipment of the School will mark the beginning of a new epoch in the history of the institution. It is another monument of the loyalty of our devoted womanhood.

"Tohoku, the Scotland of Japan," by Dr. Christopher Noss, of our Japan Mission, is being widely used as a Mission Study book and for general reading. The noted author, William Elliot Griffis, writes: "It is a wonderful book. I do not know of any volume in the whole range of the library of books on Japan written by foreigners that presents such clear, intimate, penetrating and conclusive views of the northern part of Japan's main island." The price is 60 cents in cloth and 40 cents in paper binding.

"Miss Wistaria at Home," by Mrs. Jesse H. String, is a fascinating book for Mission Bands, Junior Endeavor Societies, and Primary Sunday Schools. It will interest the young people in our work for the girls and young people of Japan. Price, 50c in cloth.

The late Dr. John H. Bomberger was loyally devoted to the cause of Foreign Missions. He started and fostered the first Christian Endeavor Missionary Fund many years ago. The Board of Foreign Missions has designated the Christian Endeavor residence at Sendai, Japan, as The Bomberger Memorial Christian Endeavor Residence, and requests the friends of Dr. Bomberger, and the Young People's Societies, which have already contributed $1500, to contribute the full amount of the cost of the lot and building, which is $5500.

During the classical year, June 1, 1917, to May 31, 1918, the receipts for Foreign Missions on the Apportionment were $132,315.37, and from Specials, $85,826.00, making a total of $218,141.37. The expenses of the classical year were $236,480.46.

There is a conflict going on in Japan, China, India and Africa of which one hears but little amid the din of battles in Europe. The Church of Jesus Christ is waging a mightier warfare than the armies of all the nations. The only remedy for a world war is a world salvation, which Foreign Missions is publishing as the Gospel of all mankind.

THE PUBLICATION AND SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD

Some Important Sunday-School News Items of the Year

Grants of Literature amounting to $866.35 were made by the Publication and Sunday School Board to Mission Sunday Schools and other schools needing financial help. A special gift of $400 annually is set apart for Sunday School mission work in the Northwest. Summer Weekday Religious Schools among the immigrants are supported regularly.

Teacher Training Classes are now being conducted by the Hungarians and Bohemians.

The Department Graded Lessons can now be obtained from the Business Department, up to the Seniors (ages 15, 16 and 17) inclusive.

1,615 Participating Share Certificates and 625 School Reformation Endowment Certificates were issued in commemoration of the 400th Anniversary of the Reformation.

Total receipts for Children's Endowment Fund net $24,822.88. General Synod authorized the completion of this fund, which is set at $100,000, and is intended for the enlargement of the Sunday School Educational and Missionary work of the Reformed Church. Gifts from schools which have not yet contributed, from individuals, and in the form of bequests, should be sent to Rufus W. Miller, 15th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

The past year was the banner year in the gifts on Children's Day, by our Sunday Schools, for Sunday School Educational and Missionary work. $6,946.09 were received. Gradually our schools are responding to General Synod's request that the annual giving for this purpose be $15,000. The increasing demands made on the Board require it.

During the past year our schools in several of the large cities distinguished themselves by their interest in community efforts along Sunday School lines. At Buffalo, in January, the Reformed Sunday Schools furnished the largest attendance—twice their expected quota—at the Efficiency Institute conducted under the auspices of the International S. S. Institute.

Our Cleveland Reformed Sunday Schools in March furnished 25 per cent of the more than 3000 students enrolled at the Interdenominational Institute conducted by the Cleveland County Association. Of these the First Reformed Sunday School, Rev. C. Hoffman, pastor, had the largest enrollment. Our Educational Superintendent, Dr. C. A. Hauser, and Mrs. J. H. String represented the Reformed Church on the faculty.

Our Sunday Schools all over the country are rendering loyal war service. Be sure to have a Service Flag and Honor Roll.

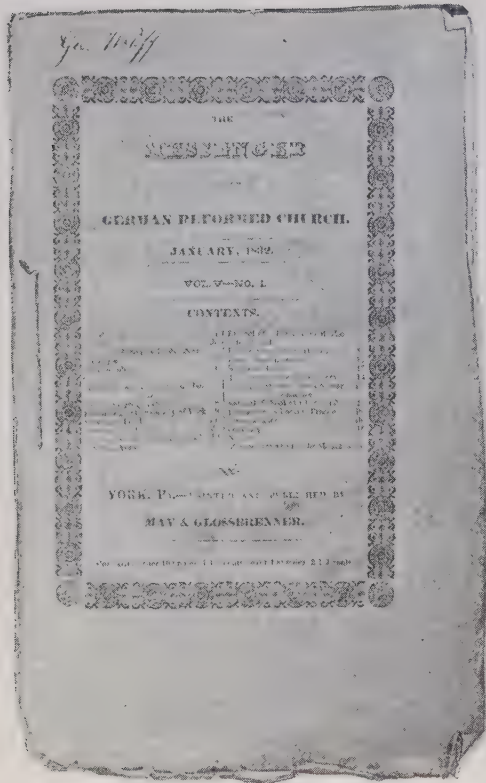

Your Publication and Sunday School Board will gladly aid your school through its literature, at your Sunday School conventions, institutes, and in otherwise solving local problems.

Mr. W. J. Frank, Akron, O., was recently appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. J. H. Bomberger in the Publication and Sunday School Board. Mr. Frank has been a member of the Reformed Church for 47 years, an elder for 43 years, connected with the Reformed Sunday School for 60 years, and since 1876, Superintendent of Grace Sunday School, Akron, O. For 20 years he has been a member of the Board of Regents of Heidelberg University. He is keenly interested in the general work of the denomination and his business ability, combined with his cordial nature and splendid spirit, will make him a most useful member of the Board.

During the past year our former Fieldworker, Miss Blanche A. Zieber, conducted a series of important Elementary Institutes, which met with much favor and indicate a line of Sunday School work which needs to receive special attention.

Salem Church, Dr. J. M. G. Darms, pastor, and St. Andrew, Rev. R. M. Kern, pastor, Allentown, each, for a number of years, has been conducting successful summer Weekday Religious schools.

The First Church, Milwaukee, Rev. Dr. H. C. Nott, pastor, for several years has been carrying off the banner for the best Daily Vacation Bible School in the city.

Akron, Ohio, has added the tenth school to its already fine list of energetic Sunday School dynamos.

The Southland is awake, not only to its possibilities in cotton, but is stirring its spiritual energies as well

This is evidenced by its renewed interest in Sunday School work. It is tackling its job at one of the hardest points, Teacher Training. They are talking much down there about the Sunday School Standard of Efficiency and are reaching the mark, too.

Trinity, Wilkinsburg, has the rare distinction of having the largest Teacher Training alumni list in our Church. At the last report the number hovered about the century mark. The school looks it.

The schools numbering 1000 or more are increasing in the Reformed Church. We take pleasure in paying special tribute to Dr. E. Herbruck, who, through many years of unceasing prayer and effort, saw one of these schools grow to nearly twice this size. May the enforced cessation from his labors, due to failing eyesight, be only of short duration. The Church wishes Dr. Herbruck a speedy recovery.

One of our rural churches, Rev. J. D. Hunsicker, pastor, located at Livonia, Center County, Pa., numbering only 22 attendant members, and 15 in the Cradle Roll and Home Department, has been a "Front Line School" for a number of years. Things go where the people have "a will to work."

Zion Sunday School, Reading, Pa., Rev. C. H. Gramm, pastor, has one of the most thoroughly organized schools in the denomination. Organization here means pull and push, not merely puff. There is a reason. Rev. Gramm spends every Thursday afternoon in his Sunday School office, reviewing records, reports of officers and teachers and planning for the work.

Westmoreland Classis is a banner Classis, as far as Sunday School Conventions go; Departmental Conferences, under strong leadership, constitute their strong point.

The continent-wide, simultaneous, interdenominational Teacher Training Drive, from September 15th to October 15th, under the auspices of the Sunday School Council and cooperated in by the International Sunday School Association, no doubt was the outstanding Sunday School event of the year. Our record of 4819 students enrolled in Teacher Training during the Classical Year of 1916-1917 should be doubled as a result of this effort.

Two Teacher Training Classes last year attained the rare distinction of making a grade of 100 throughout the course. These schools were: Evangelical Reformed, Covington, Kentucky, Rev. Wm. H. Miller, pastor and teacher, and the First Reformed, Cincinnati, Ohio, Rev. J. O. Vitz, pastor, Mrs. E. Weinberg, teacher. Many other high records were made.

Zion's Sunday School, York, Pa., has a well worked out plan of service activities related to its Bible teaching. In this system is included the entire work of the denomination, as well as all local and war work challenges. Nothing is left to hit or miss methods. This year, for instance, the school worked out beforehand what its pro rata share of the Children's Day Offering according to General Synod, should be; fixed the amount, planned to secure it; and in consequence raised several times the amount secured in former years and is happier than ever over the result. If all schools should follow this plan the needed $15,000 for this work, annually, would be in sight.

The Reformed Sunday Schools of Indianapolis are doing an exceptional piece of local Sunday School and young people's team work. Both the Educational and Extension or Missionary phases of the work are kept in view.

The Annual Lesson Helps for 1919, Tarbell's Guide, Peloubet's Notes, Pocket Commentaries, etc., are necessary tools for Sunday School teachers and scholars. Write to your Board for prices and suggestions.

THE CAUSE OF THE COLLEGES

The people of the Reformed Church have a three-fold interest in their educational institutions.

In the first place, they have a personal interest in them. In these days of educated men and women, many of our people are graduates of one or more of the institutions of the Church. Time was when only the ministers, and here and there a layman, had had the advantage of college training. Nowadays more laymen than ministers are graduated from college. Thus there are men in every walk in life who are bound by strong personal ties to the colleges in which they were educated.

Our day is also one of women's colleges and of coeducational colleges in which the proportion of young women students almost equals that of young men. The influence of the college is gratefully felt not alone in the forum and in the marketplace but likewise in the home. Women of classical training and of fine literary and scientific attainments are presiding over the destinies of the race in home and Church and school. These women feel, apparently more keenly than their brothers, the tie that binds to alma mater.

Beyond the hundreds, however, who are interested in our colleges as graduates are the thousands of staunch and loyal Church members who through their own efforts have come to appreciate culture, and to enjoy the refinements of cultivated society. All of these feel a personal interest in our seats of learning both for what they are and for the good they do.

Perhaps the keenest personal interest of all is that of the rising boys and girls—the youth who in our splendid academies and in the great public high schools are getting visions of college days ahead. In few places are colleges discussed more earnestly and more critically than among the boys and girls in the preparatory schools. Here resolves are made to go to college by young persons who in similar circumstances a generation ago would never have thought such a step possible.

Secondly, our Reformed people have a denominational interest in our Church colleges—that is, they see that the Church's welfare, present and future, is wrapped up in her educational institutions. The Reformed Church in the past has not had a very deep denominational consciousness, but with the closer relations which are fast coming to prevail among religious bodies a great new emphasis is bound to be laid on our denominational life. This interest will not be sentimental or selfish but practical and altruistic. We shall all want our Church to be strong, and to react as one body among the other Churches in the combined efforts at world redemption. In this situation the educational centers of the Church are of vital importance. It is readily noted in American religious life that strong colleges make a strong Church. This is especially the case when the several institutions of the Church work in harmony and cooperation as they now do in the Reformed Church under the auspices of the Association of Schools, Colleges and Seminaries. Perhaps no more influential unifying agency has come into our Church's life than this. Under its fostering care our colleges are becoming not only stronger in material resources but richer in spiritual resources.

Thirdly, our people have a patriotic interest in our educational institutions. Who will venture to estimate what it has meant for the cause of liberty and humanity that the United States of America has had back of her for four hundred years the leavening influence of Christian colleges? More powerful in shaping American ideals than any other factor in our national life have been these nurseries of giant men whence have come the nation's leaders in Church and State.

How truly, in the present crisis, our own institutions of the Reformed Church have reacted to American tradition! Presidents, faculties and students were quick to discern the great issues of the war and stepped forth promptly at the call of their country.

Just as the Christian colleges have in the past conserved learning, propagated ideals, and engendered faith, so they will continue to do in the future. These great spiritual forces, ever characteristic of true American life, must continue to rule in this great democratic nation.

As individuals, therefore, as Churchmen and as citizens, we have a personal, denominational and patriotic interest in those fountain heads of learning and spiritual power which we proudly own as our Church colleges.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

The work among the young people in the various Protestant Churches is in a chaotic state. Our denomination has above eight hundred societies, consisting of Christian Endeavor Societies, Heidelberg Leagues, Young People's Societies, Missionary Leagues, Brotherhoods, etc. Beside these are organized Sunday School Classes, and a few organized Sunday School Young People's Divisions.

Recognizing this complex condition the General Synod of Dayton (1917) authorized the establishment of a Young People's Department under the direction and authority of General Synod's Committee on Young People's Societies and the advisory assistance of the Publication and Sunday School, Home Mission and Foreign Mission Boards.

After a thorough study of the problem as it is in our denomination, particularly as related to the present war conditions and the financial difficulties of the Church at large, a working organization was effected at a meeting in Lancaster, Pa., September 10, 1918, when Rev. Edward S. Bromer, D.D., was elected Young People's Secretary for the remainder of the present triennium. The office of the new department will be in the First Reformed Church, Greensburg, Pa. All communications and remittances are to be sent to the departmental address, Box 459, Greensburg, Pa.

The general aim and policy of the department centers in the conservation and the development of the lives of our young people. It seeks to recognize the two main trends in young people's work, viz., the present Young People's Society and the organized Young People's Division of the Sunday School. A typical constitution and program of work for these two trends will be developed. Both will be recognized as Young People's organizations. The closest possible cooperation will be cultivated with the Young People's Work as related with the Publication and Sunday School and Home Mission and Foreign Mission Boards.

The financial support of the department for the triennium is based on the following plan:

1. The annual observance of Young People's Day by all societies on or near the third Sunday of October, at which an offering for the support of the department shall be given.

2. At least five, and not more than ten, annual contributions of Ten Dollars each within the bounds of each Classis, by friends of the Young People's work, secured by the Committee of Three.

3. The contributions of five men of truly denominational and interdenominational vision who will annually, during two years (1918-1919) contribute from $100 to $500 each for the larger development of the department. These five persons will be secured by General Synod's Committee.

All money received will be used for the support and the development of the department. For the present triennium the actual executive expenses will be nominal. The programs and the new educational literature and the traveling expenses will be the biggest items. It should be remembered, however, that the above given financial plan aims at the laying of solid foundations for the new department and looks forward into the coming years beyond the present triennium.

If they will see to it that the pie can be made large enough, the Superintendent will see to it that it will be properly shared, and the children will see to the rest. In that case, there will be pie enough for everybody and there will be no waste. There are 180 children in the Home.

During the year just closed, 114 children were under the care of this institution. They enjoyed good health, made exceptional progress in their lives, and were greatly benefited by their experience. Many others were refused admission because of lack of room. The constantly increasing number of children, seeking a share in the blessings and privileges of this Home, is a challenge to the friends of the orphans for larger giving to this sacred work. We have no doubt at all of their response.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these . . . ye have done it unto me."

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME

Rev. W. B. Werner, Superintendent

This Home is now twelve years of age and has already rendered a fine service. They have an excellent dormitory for the boys, which has all modern improvements with the exception of steam heat and electric lights. These they need very badly, both for protection from fire and for convenience. Other improvements, such as modern laundry machinery and better farm implements are likewise greatly needed. We urgently appeal to the Church at large to provide the funds for these essential improvements. We know that the Orphans' Homes occupy a warm spot in the hearts of our Reformed Church people and Nazareth Home is entitled to a share in their interest and affection.

HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE

Littlestown, Pa.

Rev. Andrew H. Smith, Superintendent

When the Synod of the Potomac accepted the George W. Hoffman bequest in 1909, many of its members understood that if, after ten years' trial, it was proven that there was no necessity for another orphanage in our Church, the property would be used for other purposes. Charter was obtained January, 1910, and the Home opened. Buildings were erected and provision made for forty-six children. For several years they have been crowded. Applications from pastors and consistories in behalf of forty more orphans have come from May 1, 1917, to August 1, 1918. Only nine of these could be admitted. The necessity for the existence and support of this Orphanage is not only an established fact but it is urgent. The continuance of the war not only increases the cost of maintaining the Home but makes the necessity for it more acute. The thirty-one orphans we had to deny admission would more than fill the cottage we now have. Owing to the abnormal condition of things, we hesitate to challenge our people to contribute now towards another cottage, but abnormal conditions demand enlarged efforts and generous sacrifices. Notwithstanding the unusual demands upon the Treasurer, he has paid $5,500 on the Home's indebtedness from January to April, 1918. The lean months of May to December will again increase the debt. This is due to the fact that the bulk of the support is given by the Churches at Christmas. We must depend upon our friends who see and know our needs to support the Orphans' Home, and we believe that our confidence in them is well founded.

FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME Fort Wayne, Ind.

Rev. John F. Winter, Superintendent

The past year was a good one at this institution for orphans and homeless children. The new building, the refectory, is completed and was dedicated November 4, 1917. The industrial work has been expanded and the schools are entering upon a new stage of development and usefulness. There is ample opportunity to exercise mind and body so as to develop the boys and girls into strong and helpful men and women.

THREE MAIN BUILDINGS, FT. WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME, FORT WAYNE, IND.

CHRISTMAS MORNING—HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE, LITTLESTOWN, PA.

There are now fifty-one boys and thirty-nine girls in the Home. The fiscal year was closed with a deficit of $215.88. The total indebtedness is $16,500. The Home enters upon the 36th year in the history of the institution, convinced of the necessity of this work, and in the faith that the Church will continue to support it generously. We commend Fort Wayne Home anew to our Sunday Schools, congregations and friends, counting upon their prayers and gifts.

Our Reformed Church Orphanages have not been merely institutions: they have been real homes. Consecrated men and women, giving themselves up to the service of these needy children, have lived themselves lovingly into the lives of these boys and girls, and hundreds have arisen to call the housefathers and housemothers and teachers in these Homes blessed. It is a most difficult task, weighted with heavy responsibility, testing to the utmost the temper of one's religion. All honor to those who have met this test so nobly and given so generously of their heart's love to provide a truly Christian household for the deserving wards of the Church. There are but a small proportion of Christian families, if the truth be spoken, where the emphasis is so decidedly spiritual or the standards quite so high as in the Orphans' Homes of the Reformed Church. In these Homes "first things are put first;" in these Homes the family altar is not broken down but is a very vital factor in the life of every member of the household; in these Homes the Lord Jesus is really recognized and honored as Lord. Thank God for such Homes as these!

THE NATIONAL SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

When the General Synod, in 1908, authorized a representation in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America by duly elected delegates to that Council, authority was given to the delegates to cooperate with the Council in such activities as were generally promoted. The omission of a movement in behalf of the war work on the part of our Church by the higher judicatories of the denomination made it necessary for the delegates to the Federal Council to make use of the authority deputed to them by the General Synod. The National Service Commission was accordingly organized by the following delegates on January 25, 1918, to cooperate with the General War-Time Commission of the Churches of the Federal Council in war work in behalf of our own Church: Charles E. Schaeffer, D. D., H. H. Apple, D. D., LL.D., H. J. Christman, D. D., Rufus W. Miller, D. D., J. M. G. Darms, D. D., W. Stuart Cramer, Philip Vollmer, D. D., Theodore F. Herman, D. D., E. H. Marcus, and Frank Brown. Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D. D., was elected the President of the Commission, and Rev. W. Stuart Cramer the Executive Secretary and Treasurer. Rev. Mr. Cramer maintains an office in behalf of the Commission in his study in Lancaster, Pa.

The activities of the Commission are varied. The Commission has succeeded in enrolling about six thousand Soldiers and Sailors in the military service of the United States Government from the Charges of the Reformed Church. Greetings and assurances are sent by the Commission from time to time to the men enrolled. Many beautiful acknowledgments are sent to the Commission expressing appreciation of the affectionate concern of the mother Church in her boys. Ministers especially adapted to the work are sent from time to time to the Camps of the country in which large numbers of Reformed boys are found. The enrollment of the names of the boys makes it possible to communicate with them about the visits of our representatives, thus bringing Reformed ministers into personal contact with Reformed boys. These visits to the Camps are through the courtesy of the Y. M. C. A. and the Chaplains.

The Commission is supporting, at an expense of $1,200 a year, Mr. M. C. Brayman as a Community worker at Gettysburg, Pa., and Rev. Wm. F. Naefe in a similar service at Louisville, Ky.

The Commission has taken a great amount of interest in the appointment of Chaplains from the ministry of the Church, both soliciting suitable men for this important office and encouraging their cause before the Army and Navy Chaplaincy Committee of the Federal Council, located in Washington, D. C. The Chaplains have been given typewriter and communion sets and their equipment for service in the Army and a present of one hundred dollars each, with which to purchase their initial uniform. The amount of ten dollars per month is also contributed to all of the Chaplains for their personal work among the men. At this particular time the Reformed Church has twelve Chaplains in the Army and one in the Navy, to wit: Army: Revs. H. N. Bassler, R. S. Snyder, E. W. Stonebraker, A. V. Casselman, S. R. Wagner, L. V. Hetrick, G. A. Ehrgood, Emory Deitrich, Paul B. Rupp, J. M. Newgard, J. R. Hahn and A. M. Billman. Navy: Herbert Dumstrey.

Ten applications from our ministers are now in the hands of the Adjutant General, all of whom will eventually go to the Chaplaincy Training School at Louisville, Ky.

The Commission cooperates with the General War-Time Commission of the Churches, through representation on its Executive Committee by Rev. W. Stuart Cramer. Two hundred dollars were given by the Commission to the General War-Time Commission.

The Commission is active also in stimulating the responsibility of the Churches at home in behalf of the boys who have gone forth as soldiers and sailors, endeavoring thereby to "keep the home fires burning" in their behalf. Letters of comfort are written to the parents of those boys who fall in the service.

The financial support of the Commission has been purely voluntary. About six thousand dollars has been offered without personal solicitation for this work. This amount is insufficient for the larger program that is reasonably expected of the Reformed Church in behalf of war work. A budget of not less than $25,000 will be proposed to the denomination for next year's activities.

The National Service Commission has, through the various forms of activity so briefly outlined above, made the Reformed Church at large feel that she is endeavoring, at least in a small way, to fulfill her responsibilities that arise in the presence of the great war crisis. Those who have a conscience in behalf of this subject appreciate the great service that the Commission is rendering to the Church. Besides this the Commission has put the Reformed Church side by side with the other denominations of the Nation in which extensive service is rendered for the spiritual and moral welfare of the boys. Denominations are spending all the way from five thousand to a million dollars each in this form of Christian activity.

OUR BOYS IN THE FRONT LINE TRENCHES

A Message from Chaplain Harry Nelson Bassler

In all my experience with men in the danger zone I seldom meet one who is profane, no matter what his habit has been in the past, for many a soldier after his first advance has changed his views of what is right and what is wrong and I firmly believe that when these men return to the good old U. S. A. they will bring with them a strength of character and a conception of true manhood that they did not have when they boarded the transports for the trip across the sea.

One not only ages quickly on the field of battle but lasting decisions are made. When a man has gone forward two or three days without sleep, with but one meal, and has passed through the long hours of the dark nights, lighted only by the flare of enemy guns, he has learned lessons not taught in the ordinary walks of life—and they are lessons that are not easily forgotten. A few nights ago a young First Lieutenant crawled into his shack and for the first time knelt to pray. The poor boy had run into a bit of mustard gas and the Boche shells had dropped all around him but he had come through with his command all right. When he rose from his knees and crept into his blankets he said, "I tell you, Captain, if ever a man appreciates what it means to pray he does so here."

A chaplain has no trouble to get a congregation on Sunday no matter what conditions may be, and when the boys unite with him in the Lord's Prayer they are not glancing around or praying in a half-hearted manner—no, they PRAY—every one of them, be he Protestant, Catholic or Jew, and their hearts and souls are in the prayer.

The facing of death at the front has been clearing the minds of many young men of the snares and delusions of false religions that have obscured their spiritual vision and have kept them from a saving knowledge of God and His Christ.

CHAPLAIN

Those awful hours have swept away the barriers that have held men apart from their fellows and have made them live narrow, selfish lives. They have given a deeper meaning to the value of life; and the virtues of reverence, temperance, moderation, kindness, helpfulness and unselfishness are among those that shine brightly in the lives of the men who have been to the front.

I believe that when the young men who have taken part in the war come back home they will take a hand in the affairs of the Church and the nation that will be surprising to many, for the lessons of the war will be lasting ones—the cause for which a man risks his life and all that he holds dear is not one to be easily forgotten—and our young soldiers will stand for the ideals for which they have fought.

Many will have “gone West,” for France will be the last resting-place for many of our brave sons. But we shall ever cherish their memory, and feel that their bravery and unselfish sacrifice has made the world a far better place in which to live. Do not worry about the men at the front, but pray that every one may be kept faithful and true and that the great evil that has brought on this conflict and bloodshed may be swept away, and that the peace of God that passeth understanding may abide in the world forever and ever.

EDUCATIONAL AND PATRIOTIC CAMPAIGN

Every Church is recognizing the necessity for an extraordinary program in such an extraordinary time as we are passing through. The Publication and Sunday School Board, the authorized agency for the supervision and promotion of religious education, has wisely issued a challenge for an Educational and Patriotic Campaign for home, country, and brotherhood, which, if carried out, will certainly keep our "home fires burning" brightly: This program calls for emphasis upon the following five points.

1. The Service of Worship and Preaching. It is high time that we strike the note of the importance of regularity in attendance at the services of the Sanctuary, and urge our membership not only to come themselves to the House of God but to bring others. Dr. Charles H. Spurgeon said, "It is the business of the preacher to fill the pulpit; it is the business of the people to fill the pews."

2. The Sunday School. It is certainly timely to attempt to increase the membership of our Sunday Schools at least 10 per cent. and to intensify the study of the Bible. The strategic importance of the Sunday School will loom larger than ever in the days ahead in view of what this war has taught us.

3. The Family Altar. To make our homes centers of religion, to spiritualize the family life of our people—this is certainly a fundamental duty if we want to make democracy safe. The best way to improve both Church and State is to make better homes in which shall be found more religion, more true affection, more real discipline, better literature and higher ideals.

4. The Church Paper. To increase its circulation, to read and discuss its articles, to appreciate how essential it is to the propagation of our religion, these are duties which we believe will appeal with growing force to every thoughtful mind today and in the days following the war.

5. The Prayer Meeting. The mighty power of prayer in the upbuilding of individual character and in the promotion of real brotherhood can scarcely be overestimated. It is here that we have the spiritual thermometer of our Churches.

OUR FALLEN HEROES

One cannot look at the faces of these splendid young men, sons of the Reformed Church who have given their lives for God and country, without deep emotion. But our sincere sorrow is mingled with the solemn joy and pride that they have given themselves so gladly for a great cause. Since this ALMANAC went to press many others have been added to this martyr army of the gold stars, but the pictures we have received in time represent practically every section of the Reformed Church and are in themselves more eloquent than any words that could be written.

THE GREAT ADVENTURE

Only those are fit to live who do not fear to die; and none are fit to die who have shrunk from the joy of life and its duty. Both life and death are parts of the same Great Adventure. Never yet was worthy adventure worthily carried through by the man who put his personal safety first. Therefore it is that the man who is not willing to die, and the woman who is not willing to send her man to die, in a war for a great cause, are not worthy to live. In America today all our people are summoned to service and sacrifice. But all of us who give service, and stand ready for sacrifice, are the torch-bearers. The torches whose flames are brightest are borne by the gallant men at the front and by the gallant women whose husbands and lovers, sons and brothers, high of soul, are facing their fate on the shell-shattered earth. These are they who have dared the Great Adventure.—Theodore Roosevelt.

OUR ROLL OF HONOR

THE LITTLE FLAG ON OUR HOUSE

By William Curtis Demorest

The little flag on our house
Is floating all the day
Beside the great big Stars and Stripes;
You can almost hear it say
To all the folks in our street,
As the breezes make it dance:
"Look up and see my one blue star—
We've got a boy in France!"

The little flag on our house,
It floats sometimes at night,
And you can see it 'way up there

When the street lamp shines just right.
And sometimes, 'long towards morning,
When the cop comes by, perchance
It signals with its one blue star:
"We've got a boy in France!"

The little flag on our house
Will wave, and wave, and wave
Until our boy comes home again,
Or finds in France his grave.
Nay—tho' its blue star turn to gold,
Because of War's grim chance,
It still shall wave to say: *"Thank God!

FROM COLLEGE TO THE TRENCHES

Many of our splendid young men who have paid "the last full measure of devotion" on the battlefield in these recent days were the most promising among the students in our colleges and Theological Seminaries. One cannot think of this great loss without deep emotion, and several of the heart-cries which have been called forth by the splendid sacrificial spirit of the young manhood of our day are likely to become immortal. Such are the lovely lines entitled, "Spires of Oxford," by W. M. Letts, and the pathetic message of Joyce Kilmer, who himself was killed in action in France. These gems of poetry are given here for your remembrance:

"Spires of Oxford"

I saw the spires of Oxford
As I was passing by,
The gray spires of Oxford
Against a pearl-gray sky.
My heart was with the Oxford men
Who went abroad to die.

The years go fast in Oxford,
The golden years and gay,
The hoary colleges look down
On careless boys at play.
But when the bugle sounded war
They put their games away.

OUR ROLL OF HONOR

God rest you, happy gentlemen,
Who laid your good lives down,
Who took the khaki and the gun
Instead of cap and gown.
God bring you to a fairer place
Than even Oxford town!

"For God and Country"

They have taken their youth and mirth away from the study and playing-ground

To a new school in an alien land beneath an alien sky;

Out in the smoke and roar of the fight their lessons and games are found,

And they who were learning how to live are learning how to die.

And after the golden day has come and the war is at an end,

A slab of bronze on the chapel wall will tell of the noble dead.

And every name on that radiant list will be the name of a friend,

A name that shall through the centuries in grateful prayers be said.

And there will be ghosts in the old schools, brave ghosts with laughing eyes,

On the field with a ghostly cricket bat, by the stream with ghostly rod;

THE FAMILY ALTAR

Have you a family altar? If not, why not? Was there ever a time when Christian families had more reason for meeting at "one common mercy seat?" The revival of old time Home Religion is the fundamental need of both the Church and Society, but it is claimed by those who have studied the subject that Bible study and prayer in the home seem to have become a lost art. And yet it is true that "as the home, so the Church, as the home, so the community; and we cannot expect either to be better than the average home composing it." The atmosphere of the average home today, we must sadly confess, it not what it ought to be and many of our boys and girls are going out from their homes without any spiritual vision. We do not need to consult social service experts or clergymen to ascertain this. Stop the policeman on the street and ask him why it is that so many of the youth of our day are going to the bad, and he will tell you in the larger number of instances it is because they do not get the proper home training. When so many of our boys are in the great war, when so many hearts are torn and bleeding, when our needs and our perils are so unspeakably great, is it not the time of times to "get together before the Lord?" If your family altar for any reason has been destroyed or has fallen into disuse, now is the time to rebuild it and make it glorious for God and country, for home and loved ones

Note: For the topics which suggest lessons from people with Bible names use also stories of any who seem to have the same spirit as the Bible character. For instance, in using the topic, "Abraham, the Friend of God, and Abrahams of Later Times," speak not only of Abraham Lincoln, but of others with or without Bible names, who have so lived that we believe they too might be called "Friends of God."

For the missionary topics on the Philippines, use the little book called "Jack and Janet in the Philippines."

When You Have Music Problems, Consult Us

The Music Department of our Board is a department of helpfulness—it was organized for this purpose—and hundreds of our Churches will testify to the fact that it has been of real assistance in many ways.

WE PUBLISH excellent material for use in all departments of Church activities and our publications are held in high esteem by Ministers and other workers in all denominations. We feel our own publications will more than please you.

BUT, in addition, we fill orders for everything published by others, and always at publishers' rates.

Doing Business with a Yard Stick

Stephen Girard—that hard-fisted, hard-hitting, straight-thinking merchant prince, banker, ship owner, who still wields a considerable influence through the powerful banking institutions and charities that bear his name, never did business on sentiment.

He was not moved by any appeal save that of security for his investments and property. Stephen Girard transacted his business with a yard stick.

It is significant that this man, the first of our great National business men, should insure all his property in the North America.

And it was the confidence of these early leaders, who won during the days when nothing was certain, that has ever since been an Inspiration and an Incentive.

Barlow's Indigo Blue

THE TRIED AND TRUE WASH BLUE OF AMERICA

IT IS over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for half a century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard blueing throughout the country.

FOREWORD

The year 1919, events and statistics of which are recorded in the ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for 1920, will pass into history as a year of great jubilation on account of the signing of the treaty of peace. Last year's ALMANAC was in course of preparation during the period of greatest suspense over the outcome of the World War and the element of supreme sacrifice, which was the price of victory, was brought vividly to our notice by the pictures of many of the sons of the Reformed Church who gave their lives in the service of their country. The ALMANAC for 1920 contains as complete a list as was possible to secure of the names of the young men of our denomination who will never return to their homes, but whose spirits have gone to God who gave them. The ALMANAC for 1920 naturally sounds a note of victory and of rejoicing. The year which is upon us, however, is one of great confusion because of the conflicting emotions and of underlying currents of opinion which are seeking to find expression. The readjustments which are being made are causing considerable anxiety, but it is becoming more evident every day that the solution of the great problems of reconstruction is to be found in the teachings of Jesus of Nazareth. This, therefore, is the great opportunity of the Church and that her leaders are awake to the real situation is evident from the progressive movements which followed so closely the signing of the armistice.

The special meeting of the General Synod held at Altoona, March 4-6, 1919, will be remembered as one of the most memorable gatherings in the history of the Reformed Church. The Synod was epoch-making and the enthusiasm of a faith unshaken which prevailed in the face of the greatest task ever undertaken will be recalled as unique in the annals of the Reformed Church. These great movements which are stirring Protestantism had their origin in the Christian consciousness of the great body of believers, who were not slow in discerning the "trend of things" in the world.

JOSEPH H. APPLE, LL.D.

REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

The Forward Movement in the Reformed Church is no less important because it was projected after several similar activities in other denominations had been launched and had advanced to a point which practically guaranteed a successful conclusion. It is all the better prepared to carry on its work.

It would be a dereliction of duty on our part should we fail to give first place in the ALMANAC to the Forward Movement. It embodies the things that are most sacred in the Christian life; it stresses duties springing from the highest authoritative sources; it lays responsibilities upon the hearts of the people of the Reformed Church which we dare not shirk. From the consequences of the great struggle of humanity which has been going on there is no escape and the siren call of the age that is upon us, is to go forward. The Commission of Twenty-five, a group picture of whom appears on the next page, was appointed by action of the General Synod. It is constituted of men of vision and consecration. The Commission was fortunate in its selection of Prof. J. H. Apple, LL.D., as Executive Secretary.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

The FORWARD MOVEMENT of the Reformed Church in the United States was launched at the special meeting of the General Synod held at Altoona, Pa., March 4-6, 1919. Several important events and conditions of the years preceding were responsible for its origin at this time. Ever since the time of the Peace Commission of 1879 the Church had been coming closer together, and our Foreign Mission work, begun in Japan about that time, had united us in a common task. The Laymen's Missionary Movement in 1909 had challenged the Church to engage in a comprehensive program to evangelize our share of the world in this generation. Through the annual every-member canvass and the use of the duplex envelope to receive the weekly offering, the Church was being trained to better financial methods. A Survey of the Church, in order to discover her world task and her resources, and a treatise on "Local Church Efficiency" were published in widely studied volumes. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee was another step toward unifying the Church and enabling her to realize and discharge her full duty. Following the great Men's Congress at Allentown, Pa., in November, 1915, the Association of Schools, Colleges and Seminaries was formed, in order to secure greater coöperation among the educational institutions and to provide a large sum for their equipment and support. In and through all of this, harmony and coöperation among boards and institutions were displacing rivalry and competition, and the Church was both realizing her full strength as never before, and seeing more clearly her full duty to the whole world. The war disturbed many of these plans, but it also revealed in an unlooked-for way the world's dire need and the Church's resources with which to meet that need. Under such conditions the General Synod convened, and each of its many members felt a deep sense of the responsibility resting upon the Church in this grave crisis. Many came together in advance of the meeting to engage in prayer and counsel as to what steps the Synod should take. Largely attended meetings for prayer were held in the early evening of each day of the sessions. In this atmosphere the Forward Movement was born. The spirit breathed into the Movement at its start was that of penitent acknowledgment of the Church's shortcomings, and of humble seeking after God's will; of renewed consecration to the work of His Kingdom, and of high resolve to accept the double challenge of the world's need and the Church's opportunity.

To the Synod, each of the boards, institutions and agencies of the Church reported its needs, covering a period of five years, and its opportunities for advance if these needs were supplied. Under the stimulus of this series of challenges and in adopting the report of a committee of sixteen, appointed to consider them, the Synod unanimously took the following action:

1. That the General Synod inaugurate a new era movement for the Reformed Church in the United States.

2. That the General Synod endorse and coöperate in the inter-Church World Movement.

3. That the primary objectives of this campaign shall be the quickening and deepening of the spiritual life of the Church, the broadening of her interests and outlooks, the increasing of her efficiency, the promotion of the sense of Stewardship of life and possessions, the enlistment of men and women for service; the creation of a profounder sense of responsibility for the Christianizing of all human relationships and for bringing men in ever increasing numbers into the Kingdom of God, and the increasing of the spirit of unity and coöperation with the other Protestant Churches of America.

4. That the General Synod recognize that the following amounts represent the estimated needs of the various interests of our Church for the next five years, over and above the regular apportionments: Home Missions, $1,000,000; Foreign Missions, $1,115,700; Publication and Sunday Schools, $250,000; Ministerial Relief, $1,100,000; Schools, Colleges and Seminaries, $2,125,000; Board of Education, $200,000; total, $5,790,700, but that the final respective amounts be determined by a commission hereinafter recommended to be named, after a careful survey of all the various interests of the denomination has been made.

5. That the General Synod appoint a commission of twenty-five members for the conduct of the campaign on the basis of the following representation:

- (1) A representative from each of the nine Synods, and five from the Church-at-large, to be appointed by the President of the General Synod.

- (2) The President and the Stated Clerk of General Synod.

- (3) One representative from each of the following interests, to be selected by the interests themselves: Woman's Missionary Society, Foreign

6. That the Commission shall have the power to project the Campaign and erect such Committees and Agencies and incur such expenditure of funds as may be necessary.

Eastern Synod, Rev. Charles E. Creitz, D. D.; Ohio Synod, Rev. John O. Reagle, D. D.; Northwest Synod, Elder Philip Koehring; Pittsburgh Synod, Rev. Edward S. Bromer, D. D.; Potomac Synod, Rev. Abner S. DeChant, D. D.; German Synod of the East, Rev. Carl H. Gramm, D. D.; Interior Synod, Rev. Ernest N. Evans; Central Synod, Rev. Adolph Krampe, D. D.; Southwest Synod, Rev. William H. Knierim; President of General Synod, Rev. Charles E. Miller, D. D.; Stated Clerk of General Synod, Rev. J. Rauch Stein; Representatives of the Church at large, Rev. Josias Friedli, Elder Emory L. Coblentz, Elder Harry E. Paisley, Elder H. F. Texter, Elder George B. Smith;

Board of Foreign Missions, Rev. Allen R. Bartholomew, D. D.; Board of Home Missions, Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D. D.; Publication and Sunday School Board, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D. D.; Board of Home Missions of Northwest, Central and Southwest Synods, Rev. Henry W. Vitz, D. D.; Woman's Missionary Society, Mrs. W. R. Harris; Central Publishing House, Rev. F. W. Leich; Board of Ministerial Relief, Rev. J. W. Meminger, D. D.; Association of Schools, Colleges and Theological Seminaries, Rev. Henry H. Apple, D. D.; Laymen's Missionary Movement, Rev. William E. Lampe, Ph. D.

The Commission met promptly on March 25, with a large attendance, and effected the following organization: Chairman, Dr. Charles E. Miller; Vice-Chairman, Dr. Charles E. Creitz; Recording Secretary, Dr. William E. Lampe; Treasurer, Elder Harry E. Paisley, these officers to constitute the Executive Committee. It was decided to name the movement thus inaugurated THE FORWARD MOVEMENT, and to choose as its text, Exodus 14: 15, "Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward." The general management of the campaign was placed in the hands of an officer to be known as the Executive Secretary, and President Joseph H. Apple, of Hood College, was challenged to accept this position.

At the second meeting of the Commission, April 29, the Executive Secretary was present, and in accepting the challenge of the Commission proposed further organization as follows: that four departments be created, i. e., the Department of Spiritual Resources, the Department of the Stewardship of Life and Possessions, the Department of Education and Publicity, and the Department of Field Work, each in charge of a Secretary giving his full time, and these four with the Executive Secretary to constitute the Secretarial Staff. Three regions were provided for, the Eastern, the Central, and the Western, each containing three Synods and each having a Regional Secretary. The entire group of eight secretaries constitute the Secretarial Council. The organization from the regional secretaries to the congregations to be through Synodical and Classical Chairmen, and leaders in congregations and congregational groups of ten or twelve families, or about thirty members, each under a leader. It is proposed through this organization to reach from headquarters in the Reformed Church building at Philadelphia down through the regional secretaries, synodical and classical chairmen, and the congregational and group leaders to the last member or in some phases of the work to reach congregational groups and individuals through their leaders direct from headquarters.

The Department of Spiritual Resources was organized with Rev. E. S. Bromer, D. D., as Secretary. This Department proceeded at once to organize the Fellowship of Intercession, and to challenge the entire church to humiliation and prayer, as individuals, as families, as organizations and as a Church. This department is based on the conviction that "prayer unlocks the energies of God in man" and that these energies, wisely directed, will hasten the coming of the Kingdom.

Of the Department of the Stewardship of Life and Possessions, Dr. William E. Lampe is the Secretary. The first step in the further promotion of Christian Stewardship in our Church is to have our pastors and people make a thorough study of the subject, and, apprehending the meaning and scope of the principles of Stewardship, apply these principles fully in their earning, spending and giving. During the fall and early winter there will be sermons on Stewardship, our people will form Stewardship study classes, and on December 7 they will be invited to enroll in the Fellowship of Stewardship. After January greater emphasis will be placed upon the Stewardship of Life and the application of the principles of Stewardship.

Dr. George L. Omwake, of Ursinus College, is Secretary of the Department of Education and Publicity. This Department will issue all printed matter relating to the FORWARD MOVEMENT, including a Bulletin to appear every two weeks beginning about September 15, and folders, leaflets, texts, etc. A Forward Movement Manual is being prepared ready for study as a textbook by every congregational group beginning as soon as possible after January 1, and continuing through the spring.

The Department of Field Work has as its Secretary, Principal Edwin M. Hartman, of Franklin and Marshall Academy. Its first purpose is to bring the Message of the Forward Movement through the spoken word in conferences, conventions, congresses, at regular and special meetings of Synods and Classes and in congregations, to every member of the church. It will use pastors, members of Boards, of institutions and other agencies, special speakers, minute men and women, group leaders, etc., to proclaim the message throughout the Church. This department also coöperates in organizing the forces of the Church so as to facilitate the accomplishment of the tasks which the Church has undertaken in the Forward Movement.

For increased efficiency in all departments the territory of the Church has been divided into three regions. The Eastern Region includes the Eastern Synod, the Potomac Synod and the German Synod of the East, and has as its Secretary Rev. William F. DeLong, with headquarters at Harrisburg, Pa. The Central Region includes the Pittsburgh Synod, the Ohio Synod and the Central Synod, and has Rev. George W. Good as its Secretary, with headquarters at Akron, Ohio. The Western Region includes the Synod of the Northwest, the Synod of the Southwest and the Interior Synod, and has as its Secretary Rev. L. D. Benner, with headquarters at Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

A Committee on Survey was appointed by the Commission, with Dr. Charles E. Schaeffer as chairman. This Committee has for its task a complete survey of all the agencies and institutions of the Church, with a view of determining their resources, capabilities and needs for a period of five years, and of recommending the appropriate budget for each.

A Finance Committee, with Elder Emory L. Coblenz as chairman, has taken into consideration the entire financial side of the FORWARD MOVEMENT embodying ways and means of securing the total budget as agreed upon.

A committee is considering the relation of the apportionment for the current needs of the various boards to the FORWARD MOVEMENT budget.

The objectives of the FORWARD MOVEMENT are well set forth in the action of the General Synod already quoted. The Church will do well to have continually in mind these statements of purpose and to breathe ever anew the spirit of devotion and determination in which they were conceived. The entire Reformed Church has now united for the performance of her full duty to the whole world. The task is big enough and broad enough to enlist the active interest and coöperation of every man, woman and child.

It is essentially a spiritual MOVEMENT, and can accomplish its purpose only as we all have faith in God and in His overruling Providence. It calls for growth in grace and power through prayer and in the recognition and practice of the stewardship of life and possessions. It requires that the great objectives of the Kingdom of God become the personal hopes and aspirations of every member of the Church. It involves both individual and united effort in attaining these objectives.

In the FORWARD MOVEMENT the Reformed Church has constituted itself a committee of the whole to perform in one comprehensive program and in a larger and more effective way, the various undertakings which its boards and institutions have hitherto attempted to do separately and with only partial success. It aims to provide means, in men and money, adequate for the enlargement and maintenance of all our work as needed for a period of five years. The work includes home missions, foreign missions, ministerial relief, educational institutions, beneficiary education, publications and Sunday Schools. When the FORWARD MOVEMENT has accomplished this, the real forward movement of the Church will have begun.

THE UNITED MISSIONARY AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

During the last year unusually rapid and very substantial progress has been made in the Missionary and Benevolent work of our Reformed Church. Classes, congregations, and people are taking a much greater interest and are supporting the work with a somewhat greater degree of adequacy.

Modern financial methods, the Annual Every-Member Canvass, the weekly offering for Missions and Benevolences as well as for current expenses, and the double envelope, have been quite generally adopted. Congregations not using these approved and successful methods are now in a rapidly decreasing minority. The Committee is continuing its work of demonstrating the value of these methods to congregations which may not have adopted them, and is also assisting congregations which have already adopted them to apply them more thoroughly every year.

The general policy of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee for the present triennium, between the meetings of the General Synods of 1917 and 1920, is that during the first year (which closed with the meetings of the Classes in May and June, 1918) especial emphasis should be given to the raising of the Apportionment in full; the second year (until June, 1919) should be devoted to reaching the goal of securing the full Apportionment, and at the same time giving especial attention to the promotion of Christian Stewardship; the third year (ending with the meeting of the General Synod in 1920) should be a time when every congregation of the denomination should be appealed to, to give at least "As much for Others as for Ourselves."

In the classical year which ended with May 31, 1919, very substantial progress was made in the matter of the payment of the Apportionment. The records show that the Apportionment was paid in full by more than 500 congregations. Eight Classes paid in full—100% or more—and six other Classes almost reached their quotas, having paid more than 90%. The entire denomination paid nearly two-thirds (63.31%) of the whole Apportionment for Home Missions and Foreign Missions. There was a net increase of $48,487 for Home Missions and Foreign Missions on the Apportionment during the one year, and an increase of about 50% during the last two years for the four Boards of the Church. There seems to be a determination on the part of the denomination as a whole to pay the full 100% of the Apportionment this year. It will not be accomplished without hard work but it can be done.

There is greater interest in the Reformed Church in the promotion of Christian Stewardship than ever before in our history. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee voted December 7, 1917, to establish and promote the "Fellowship of Stewardship" throughout the Reformed Church. The principles of this "Fellowship" are: (1) God is the owner of all things; (2) Man is a steward and must account for all that is entrusted to him; (3) God's ownership and man's stewardship are to be acknowledged by the setting apart of a definite portion of income for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.

The number of congregations giving "As much for Others as for Ourselves" has greatly increased. There were twenty-three such congregations in 1915, twenty-eight in 1916, thirty-one in 1917, and sixty-four in 1918. It is hoped that there will be at least one hundred such congregations during the classical year 1919-1920.

The Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees have been very active during the last year; the value of these workers to the denomination can scarcely be over-estimated. There is a definiteness and enthusiasm in their work, and such a degree of unity and harmony in their coöperation with each other and with General Synod's Committee, that there is cause for real encouragement for all the work of the denomination. A Conference held at Lancaster, Pa., and another at Dayton, Ohio, included members of the committees of practically every Classis of the Church. These meetings afforded an excellent opportunity for passing on plans of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, and the most successful plans of the Classical Committees, to all of the workers throughout the Church. A Conference was held in June, 1919, at Allentown, Pa., attended by the Classical Committees, Classical Treasurers and Stated Clerks of six Classes of Eastern Synod. These Classes comprise more than one-fourth of the membership of the denomination, and they have been responsible for one-third of the deficit of the Missionary Apportionment. By helping each other they will be able to lift the standards of this important section of our Church.

Special meetings were held during the year in about twenty-five Classes of the Church. The main item of business at these meetings was "to hear and act upon a special report of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committee." At these meetings the Classes gave approval to the plans of the Classical Committees for programs of work during the year, and in practically every instance the Classical Committees carried them out faithfully, and thus helped the Classis and all of the congregations of the Classis to do their full duty. The General Synod, the District Synods, and a majority of the Classes themselves, have approved and urged the holding of these special meetings for the purpose of putting forward the work of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees, and at least one such meeting should be held in every Classis every year.

General Synod's Committee, with the coöperation of the Classical Treasurers and Classical Committees, prepared a set of Classical Treasurers' Account Forms, which have been adopted by a number of Classes and Classical Treasurers and are now in use. It is planned to make these Forms available for every Classis in the Church.

The Special Meeting of the General Synod at Altoona, Pa., March 4, 1919, marks an epoch in our denominational history. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, acting under instructions of the last General Synod, prepared the Blue Book containing the reports of all Boards and Committees, and also the Docket of business for this special meeting. In its own report to the General Synod the Committee set forth the conditions as they are in the new era upon which we have entered, pointed to the task that is confronting us as a Church, recommended a forward movement or campaign, and suggested certain fundamental principles which should be kept in mind in such a campaign. The General Synod inaugurated what is now known as The Forward Movement of our Church. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee is heartily coöperating. The promotion of Christian Stewardship during the time the Forward Movement is in progress will be through the Department of Stewardship of Life and Possessions of the Forward Movement. The Secretary of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee, during this year, is devoting the greater part of his time and energy to the secretaryship of the Department of Stewardship of the Forward Movement. All of the other regular work of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee—coöperation with Classical and Congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committees, the Every-Member Canvass, and the weekly offering, helping to raise the full Apportionment throughout the denomination, the distribution of literature, and serving as "A Financial Bureau for Consultation without charge by Ministers, Laymen and Congregations of the Church"—is being carried on and attended to as usual by the Committee.

A CALL TO SERVICE

The trumpet is sounding,
Its note is resounding

From ocean to ocean in stirring appeal!
Awake to the glory
Of telling Christ's story,

His Spirit is waiting the nations to heal!

Wait not, Christian brother,
Nor leave to another

The task of enlarging Christ's Kingdom today.
Be up and be doing
For God is renewing

All things—haste to labor, to fight and to pray.

—John H. Yates.

HOME MISSIONS

The Board of Home Missions of General Synod has 160 Missions on its roll. Its work consists in establishing new missions and giving them financial support until they are able to go to self-support. At the same time it has enlarged its work and is interesting itself in every phase of Christianizing the life of America in its manifold expressions.

The Board consists of twelve members who are elected by the General Synod. This Board meets annually in July. Five of its number constitute an Executive Committee which meets quarterly. The work is carried forward by a General Secretary and Department Superintendents, of whom there are five. It has arranged its work under different departments, thus making it possible for each phase of the work to receive full supervision and direction.

The Missionaries are supported from the General Fund, which is maintained by the Apportionment. The receipts in this Department last year were $159,878.33. At its annual meeting the Board increased the appropriations to its Missionaries by twenty per cent., which involves an additional expenditure of $30,000 for the current year.

The erection of church buildings is made possible by the Church-building Fund Department. The Board has 671 funds enrolled, aggregating $440,168. At its annual meeting it voted loans for Church buildings to the amount of $155,000.

Phases of Work

In addition to the work in English speaking Missions, the Board is carrying forward work among the following nationalities: Hungarians, Bohemians, Japanese, Jewish, Negro, Indians. The Board is also employing seven deaconesses. These are supported by the Woman's Missionary Society of the General Synod. The Woman's Missionary Society has signified its willingness to finance the erection of an educational building for the Japanese Mission in San Francisco.

The work in the German-English Synods is carried forward by two Boards of their own, known as the Board of Home Missions of the Northwest, Southwest and Central Synods, and the Board of Church Erection of these three Synods. Rev. Theodore P. Bolliger, D. D., has recently been elected as the Secretary of these Boards. They have 59 Missions under their jurisdiction.

Cooperating with the Forward Movement

The Board of Home Missions will cooperate with the Forward Movement Commission in its comprehensive program during the current year. A tabulation of its needs and opportunities in prosecuting its work during the next few years reveals the fact that at least one million dollars will be required for the work of Home Missions. If this sum of money can be secured through the instrumentality of the Forward Movement, the work of Home Missions will be enhanced and enlarged in a most satisfactory manner.

The part which America plays in the reconstruction of the world's civilization makes the enlargement of the work of Home Missions an imperative factor in Christianizing the life of our country. The problem of Americanization, which vitally concerns the work of Home Missions, makes larger demands upon the Board than ever before. The rapidly developing industrial centers in America furnish the strongest kind of an appeal for an aggressive Christianizing program on the part of the Church of Jesus Christ in this country.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Foreign Mission Day, Sunday, February 8, 1920.
Special offerings will be solicited for the growing needs of our schools and hospitals, and especially for our evangelistic work in Japan and China.

The World War has taught us anew the worth of the foreign missionary. He has been the strong link in the chain of inter-racial fellowship, and one of the real redemptive forces in the world.

Great as has been the progress of the foreign missionary enterprise, there is still work which remains to be begun, and a great deal of work that is left undone. Vast areas of population have never seen a missionary, nor heard of the Christ.

The destruction by fire of the North Japan College buildings, March 2, 1919, was a great loss to the work. Apart from the financial loss, the training of over 600 boys and young men was seriously retarded. The Church will need to supplement the $45,000 insurance by at least $60,000. One of the cheering signs of self-help on the part of the native Christians is the spirit of self-sacrifice that they are manifesting in liberal gifts towards the restoration of the Middle School building and dormitory.

PHOTOGRAPH OF THE JAPAN MISSION TAKEN AT THE FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ORGANIZATION OF THE WORK

The special contributions of $15,000, pledged by individuals and congregations at the special meeting of the General Synod held at Altoona, Pa., in March, 1919, made possible the sending out of the ten new missionaries to Japan and China during the past year.

Why are the people in non-Christian lands in need of our help? The causes for it vary in different countries. Wages are low and food is scarce. Poverty reigns supreme in China, India and Africa. More people suffer from the pangs of hunger in India than in Belgium and Poland combined. There is famine in some part of the Orient all the time.

An investment that yields rich returns to patrons and students is the support of the young men and women in our schools in Japan and China who are seeking a Christian education. Converts to the Christian faith should be able to give a reason for the faith that is in them, and they should have educational advantages if they are to be real helpers in evangelizing their native lands. Due to the present high cost of everything, the amount for a beneficiary student should be $50 per annum. Information can be had by writing to the Secretary of the Board.

The annual conferences of the Board of Foreign Missions with its new missionaries and those home on furlough are proving to be very helpful. Last July the Board assembled its missionaries at Hood College and with them spent three days in most delightful fellowship. It was good to talk over the intricate problems that face the Board and the Missions. Only echoes of helpfulness and appreciation were heard from those in attendance.

Frequently members ask the question, "How can we help to carry on the work in Japan and China?" Two of the most tangible ways of helping are by giving chapel funds of $500 or $1000, and by Annuity Bonds, the latter being a safe investment for well-doing, and a sure income for life. A sample Annuity Bond will be sent to any one who may desire it. Address the Secretary of the Board, Reformed Church Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

The ten new missionaries sent to Japan and China represent the best that our schools of learning impart, and we believe their parents are among the noblest type of Christians. So far as we can tell, the missionary fires have been burning at these home altars for many years, and there has been a growing desire in the hearts of these young people that they might go and preach the gospel in Japan and China. As such the Board has sent them forth in the name of the Church whose ambassadors for Christ they hope to be. Their names and fields of labor are as follows: Rev. and Mrs. George Randolph Snyder, evangelist, China; Rev. and Mrs. Sterling W. Whitener, evangelist, China; Miss Tasie M. Shaak, nurse, China; Rev. and Mrs. Frank L. Fesperman, evangelist, Japan; Mr. Arthur D. Smith, teacher, Japan; Miss Rosina A. Black, evangelist, Japan; Miss Elizabeth C. Zetty, teacher, Japan.

The outlook of missions has never been so hopeful, nor the times so critical. Christianity today is both on exhibition and on trial in Europe, Asia and Africa. We need to devote the best gifts, the rarest talents and the highest agencies to witness to its power and to represent its claims to an ever-increasing heathen-world audience. During the past century we are told 3,000,000 souls were won for Christ in heathen lands, but in that same period of time 200,000,000 were born into the world.

After years of faithful service, Prof. Paul L. Gerhard, Miss Kate I. Hansen, and Miss Lydia A. Lindsey are home on furlough from our Japan Mission, and Rev. Edwin A. Beck, Rev. Paul E. Keller, Miss Gertrude B. Hoy, and Miss Helen B. Ammerman from our China Mission.

Mr. Isaac J. Fisher of our Japan Mission did service for his country in England. Miss Miller and Miss Meyers accompanied a transport with about 2,000 Soldiers to Bohemia.

Director of Religious Education

The newly elected Director of Religious Education for Southwest and Interior Synods, Rev. William H. Knierim, received his early education in the public schools of New Knoxville, Ohio, the town of his birth. He studied in the Mission House at Franklin, Wis. graduating from the College in 1903 and from the Seminary in 1906. After completing his course at the Mission House he attended the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. After his ordination he received an appointment as missionary-at-large from the Tri-Synodic Board of Home Missions in the Dakotas, where he labored for 2½ years. In the fall of 1908 he received a call from the Immanuel Reformed Church of Indianapolis, Indiana, which charge he has served for the last 11 years. He was President of Indiana Classis in 1912 and 1917. In 1914 he was a delegate to General Synod. At present he holds the following positions: Chairman of the Missionary and Educational Conference of Indianapolis, President of the Sunday School and Young People's Board of Southwest Synod, Chairman of the Commission of Union of Southwest and Interior Synods, Treasurer of the Tri-Synodic Board of Home Missions and a member of the Commission of the Forward Movement representing the Synod of the Southwest.

Leading Sunday School Events of the Year

Adoption of the following Forward Movement plans— Appointment as soon as possible of: Synodical Directors of Religious Education, Specialists for the various departments of Sunday School work, Sunday School Missionaries, a Director of Week-day Religious Education. Provide text-books for Week-day Religious Schools.

The observance of the 25th Anniversary of the Publication and Sunday School Board, at 11 central points throughout the Church.

Dr. Rufus W. Miller closes 25 years of most successful labors as Secretary of the Publication and Sunday School Board.

Trinity Reformed Church, Canton, Rev. H. N. Kerst, pastor, has the largest Men's Bible Class in the denomination, numbering 250 members.

Salem Reformed Church, Cincinnati, Rev. E. H. Wessler, pastor, has the largest Home Department in the denomination, numbering over 200 members. Mrs. Wm. H. Frersing is the Superintendent.

4917 Teacher Training students were enrolled in 576 classes last year.

$8529.97 received last year is the high water mark in offerings received on Children's Day for the Educational and Missionary work carried on by the Publication and Sunday School Board.

The Educational Campaign for Home, Country and Brotherhood launched by the Publication and Sunday School Board last fall has given way to the Forward Movement of General Synod. The main features of the campaign are to be incorporated in the Forward Movement, as its Sunday School Forward Movement plans. The five points of this campaign were as follows: (1) The Service of Worship and Preaching, (2) the Sunday School, (3) the Family Altar, (4) the Church Paper, (5) the Prayer Meeting.

Teacher Training classes deserving of special mention are St. Peter's, Lancaster, taught by Dr. Theodore F. Herman, and two at Evangelical Reformed Sunday School, Frederick, Md., consisting of students of Hood College, taught respectively by the Misses M. Motter and R. Carty.

EDUCATIONAL SUPERINTENDENT OF SOUTHWEST AND INTERIOR SYNODS

The number of Summer Daily Vacation Bible Schools is steadily increasing in the denomination.

$738.64 was donated in grants of literature to Mission Sunday Schools and other needy schools during the year.

A Sunday School missionary has been authorized for Kansas City to be supported conjointly by the Board of Home Missions and the Publication and Sunday School Board. This type of work is to be enlarged in the future.

During the year a bequest to the amount of $2,000 was received from the estate of Mr. Augustus L. Kaub, for the promotion of the work of the Young People's Department of the Board. Mr. Kaub was for many years a member of the Executive Committee.

Immanuel Reformed Church, Baltimore, Rev. J. S. Kosower, pastor, has completed its $500 Children's Endowment Fund, known as the Hauser-Strott Fund, in honor of a former pastor and superintendent, respectively.

The most important event of the year is the proposed union, for purposes of Sunday School promotion, of the Sunday School Council of Evangelical denominations, and the International Sunday School Association. This step presages the greatest forward step in Sunday School work we have ever experienced. It presupposes:

1. Religious Education as a possibility for every child of the land, through local church or community schools of religion.
2. Week-day Religious Education as a regular part of the Educational system of the land, without any entangling relations between Church and State.
3. Community training schools for the adequate training of teachers to meet the coming needs of religious education.
4. A challenge to the higher institutions of learning to provide for educational supervision in Church schools.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME

Womelsdorf, Pa.

Rev. W. F. More, D. D., Superintendent

The girl in the picture pressed on through the forest and up to the mountain top where Eagle Peak gave her an unobstructed view in every direction.

The furnishing of a new cottage, the repairing of the old buildings, the continuance of exorbitant prices, the difficulty of getting a sufficient number of properly qualified helpers at the Home, the demand for higher salaries and increased wages—these are among the things which obstruct our vision and drive us to the hills whence cometh our help.

From our Eagle Peak of faith we look down upon our troubles, over our difficulties, out to our friends and up to our God with the confident assurance that He will direct and inspire His people and bless their efforts to make adequate provision for all of Bethany's needs.

THE YEAR AT ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' HOME

Greenville, Pa.

Rev. A. M. Keifer, Superintendent

The year just closing has been an exceedingly important one in the history of this institution. It has demonstrated beyond doubt that the present capacity of the Home is not sufficient to meet the demands for the kind of work she is doing, and that her many friends are willing to make larger contributions in order that the blessings and privileges of the Home may be extended to more children and that the work may be more effective.

In October, 1917, Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Ferner made a gift of stocks valued then at $80,700.00, and a little later gave notice of the donation of the dividends from January 1, 1918. Since then and up to June 1, 1919, the following additional legacies were received: in memory of Mrs. M. C. Davis, by her husband and children, $40.00; estate of Laura V. Hoffman Hodges, $968.75; Anna C. Heckbach, $500.00; Julius Bishop and his wife, Caroline, $100.00; Clara Bishop, $25.00; George Griser, $190.00; Clarion Classis, $40.00; Alexander Leonard, $1000.00; Catharine Anne Byerly, $500.00; the Ezra Taylor Memorial Endowment, $1910.36; the Peter Keil Memorial Fund, $13,000.00; and the Henry Knight Memorial Fund, $5000.00.

A program for enlarging the Home has been adopted and when completed will double the capacity. In view of this we are asking for additional endowment funds and larger contributions during the Christmas season.

GOING TO CHAPEL—ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' HOME

FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME

Fort Wayne, Ind.

Rev. John F. Winter, Superintendent

From July, 1918, to July, 1919, we cared for 117 homeless children from Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and Kentucky. Central, Ohio, Northwest and Southwest Synods have contributed to this number.

The health of our children was most excellent, except during the two weeks when 65 children had the "flu" in a very mild form.

A kind friend donated a new piano for our chapel. To enhance good taste for music a number of friends contributed toward the purchase of an Edison phonograph. Half of the purchase price was given by the children's work fund.

We must look forward to the erection of a cottage for quite small children, whom we must now deny admittance because of the lack of proper equipment. Here would be a most excellent opportunity for some one to rear a lasting monument.

HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE

Littlestown, Pa.

Rev. Andrew H. Smith, Superintendent

Will be ten years old next January. To accommodate more of the many destitute orphans in the different parts of Potomac Synod, we are building two more cottages, a school house, a heating plant and a sewage disposal plant. The old cottage will henceforth be called "Barkley Cottage" for boys, then to the right of the Helb administration building will be the "Emmanuel Cottage" for girls, the Zion Classis cottage for smaller girls and boys, and the Maryland Classis Schoolhouse.

The accompanying picture is that of two of our best cooks and general housekeepers. Since August 2,

COOKS, HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE

1917, these two girls, with the assistance of the younger girls, have been doing our cooking. Nellie Frock, the girl to your right, will be of age (18) February 25, 1920, the other, Mary Smouse, will be of age March 13, 1920. Both girls aspire to the teaching profession, for which they have many qualifications. In less than ten years we thus will have seven "graduates," four girls and three boys. The other two girls are, one a trusted clerk in the Pennsylvania Railroad offices in Altoona, the other a second-year student nurse in the York Hospital. The first boy is on a neighboring farm, the second an honored member of Uncle Sam's aviation boys in France, the third an assistant on an extensive and up-to-date poultry farm near Hanover, Pa.

Our expansion will mean more help. We trust that the women in our Church will heed our appeals for help in the line of matron, cook, and teacher.

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME

Rev. W. B. Werner, Superintendent

There are 54 children in the Home—30 boys and 24 girls. The boys have a good, comfortable dormitory in which they are housed. Our girls' building is very inadequate. The building is very inconvenient and old. The Board of Managers decided to erect a new and more commodious structure. For this we need the assistance of our friends. The building as proposed will cost about $25,000.00. The electric light plant of which I spoke last year has been installed and paid for. We thank our friends for their kindness.

The Home owns now about 120 acres of land. The Board just bought a tract of 16 acres of fine farming land. The soil on some of the land which we have is thin and not very productive. This additional land will be a great help to the Home. We ought to have still more land, if it could be secured. Our dairy should be larger, if it could be maintained. We trust in the course of time these circumstances will so shape themselves that this problem will be happily solved. Our truck patch is a very interesting portion of our farm. This little field yields all our vegetables used at the Home, and of some kinds more than can be used. We gathered cucumbers at first by the bucket, then the bushel measure, now several wheelbarrows are required; we also got other vegetables, and strawberries and raspberries, as many as could be used.

The number of farmers, mechanics and good citizens we raise at our institution is determined by the liberality of our supporters.

MOWING CLOVER—NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME

In this picture, seated on the mowing machine, you see one of our boys. During the last two years our boys did all the work on the farm and also the wood chopping. This work they are doing under the direction of the superintendent. During the war it was impossible to secure a desirable man to take the lead in the work and charge of the boys. While we keep our boys and girls busy with a proper amount of recreation alternating, the aim, however, of our institution is not to raise farmers only. Indeed but few of the boys who left the Home are following this vocation, but others have found their way into other avenues of life and are making good in their vocations.

THE CHILDREN'S SAVIOUR

Christ, Who once among us
As a child did dwell,
Is the children's Saviour,
And He loves us well;
If we keep our promise
Made Him at the font,
He will be our Shepherd,
And we shall not want.

There it was they laid us
In those tender arms,
Where the lambs are carried Safe from all alarms;
If we trust His promise,
He will let us rest
In His arms forever,
Leaning on His breast.

Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not:
for to such belongeth the Kingdom of God * * * And he took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them—Mark 10: 14, 16.

Though we may not see Him
For a little while,
We shall know He holds us,
Often feel His smile;
Death will be to slumber
In that sweet embrace,
And we shall awaken
To behold His face.

Jesus, our good Shepherd,
Laying down thy life,
Lest thy sheep should perish
In the cruel strife,
Help us to remember
All Thy love and care,
Trust in Thee, and love Thee
Always, everywhere.

W. St. Hill Bourne.

PHOEBE DEACONESS AND 'OLD FOLKS' HOME

Rev. F. H. Moyer, the newly elected superintendent of the Home, assumed the duties of his office September 1, 1919.

The Home is beautifully located in the western part of the city of Allentown, Pa. There are two buildings at present, one is used as a training school and home for the deaconesses, the other is devoted to the care of the old folks.

The deaconesses now in the service have given a good account of themselves in the parishes into which they have been called, both in nursing and in religious work.

The management aims to secure a new class to train for this work and invites women of the best Christian spirit to enter this noble calling. Applicants for admission to this training school should be of mature age and should have a good educational foundation upon which to build the three-year course given here.

REV. FRANKLIN H. MOYER
SUPERINTENDENT, PHOEBE DEACONESS AND OLD FOLKS'

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE W. M. S. OF GENERAL SYNOD

The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod has made a wise choice in the selection of Miss Carrie M. Kerschner as their Executive Secretary. She brings to this new position a varied experience. Miss Kerschner is the daughter of Rev. J. G. Kerschner, of Palmerston, Pa. Her two brothers are also ministers in our Church. She is a graduate of the Pottstown Business College, and attended Ursinus College. For five years she served as preceptress at the College for Women at Allentown, and during the past five years she was a teacher in our Japanese Mission in San Francisco. Miss Kerschner enters upon her important office with commendable zeal. She has the work at heart and is a magnetic speaker.

"It is well to remember that the greatest results in the moral and spiritual world are apparently effected in periods of time that seem altogether inadequate. This is not really so, but the truth is that God not only works in mysterious ways, but in ways that to the untrained and unpracticed eye are without observation."—Rev. George F. Pentecost, D.D.

THE WAR EMERGENCY CAMPAIGN

The War Emergency Campaign, as carried forward in the early part of 1919, was the answer of the united Protestantism of our country to the religious needs of our soldiers and sailors during the period of demobilization and to desperate needs of the Protestant churches in Belgium and France. In our Reformed Church the campaign was organized by our delegates to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ of America who, by General Synod at Dayton, had been constituted a body which came to be known as the National Service Commission. The organization perfected to carry forward the War Emergency Campaign was as follows:

OFFICERS OF THE COMMITTEE

Rev. C. E. Schaeffer, D.D., Chairman; Rev. Jas. I. Good, D.D., LL.D., Vice-Chairman; Rev. Paul S. Leinbach, D.D., Vice-Chairman; Rev. W. Stuart Cramer, Secretary; Mr. Harry E. Paisley, Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The above officers and Rev. E. S. Bromer, D.D., Rev. C. E. Creitz, D.D., Rev. A. S. DeChant, D.D., Rev. C. H. Gramm, D.D., Mrs. L. L. Anewalt.

ADDITIONAL MEMBERS

Rev. H. H. Apple, D.D., LL.D., Prof. Joseph H. Apple, LL.D., Prof. Calvin O. Althouse, Rev. A. R. Bartholomew, D.D., Mr. Frank Brown, Prof. H. J. Benchoff, Mr. F. C. Brunhouse, Rev. Henry J. Christman, D.D., Rev. W. F. Curtis, Litt.D., Rev. J. M. G. Darms, D.D., Rev. J. Friedli, D.D., Prof. E. M. Hartman, Mr. H. E. Hartman, Rev. T. F. Herman, D.D., Prof. W. M. Irvine, LL.D., Rev. W. E. Lampe, Ph.D., Rev. J. W. Meminger, D.D., Rev. C. E. Miller, D.D., LL.D., Rev. R. W. Miller, D.D., Mr. E. H. Marcus, Mr. Charles H. Leinbach, Prof. G. Leslie Omwake, Pd.D., Rev. J. G. Rupp, Rev. Geo. W. Richards, D.D., Rev. Wm. C. Schaeffer, D.D., Rev. Philip Vollmer, D.D., Mr. J. S. Wise, Mrs. W. R. Harris, Mrs. E. F. Evemeyer, Mrs. I. W. Hendricks.

This Committee challenged the Rev. James M. S. Isenberg, D.D., pastor of Trinity Church, Philadelphia, to act as director of the campaign. Trinity congregation cheerfully loaned for three months the services of its pastor. The months of December, 1918, and January, 1919, were given to perfecting an organization to reach down to every local congregation of the Reformed Church. In the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina and New York there were county or sectional units responsible for pushing the campaign. In all other states the appeal was made direct to the local congregation through the pastor or consistory. During January a small bulletin was issued weekly and sent direct to all pastors and superintendents. Special booklets were issued, covering the plan and purpose of the campaign, in quantity sufficient for one copy to be placed in every family in the denomination. A booklet by Dr. J. I. Good, entitled "Our Debt to the Protestant Churches of France and Belgium," was sent to all pastors.

February 2 to 10 was designated as the time to make the appeal for funds. The total amount to be raised had been set at $110,000. A quota had been determined upon and sent to each county or district unit and where there was no such unit, direct to the local congregation. Religion and patriotism were united in the appeal in an exceptional way with the result that the stream of generosity swelled in an unprecedented way. Some churches went far "over the top." The testimony of pastors was that it was the easiest money they ever attempted to raise. There were of course some pastors and some congregations which took no part in this great campaign. However, it was early evident that the goal of the campaign, namely $110,000, had been reached. By May 1 that amount had reached the hands of the Treasurer, Mr. Harry E. Paisley. By September 15 the total was $120,073.23, with more to follow.

REV. J. M. S. ISENBERG, D.D.

RUINS OF PROTESTANT CHURCH, VERDUN, FRANCE

The expenses of the campaign were less than $5000. The Fund was distributed as follows: $3000 to the American Bible Society, $23,000 to our National Service Commission, and $3000 to the War-Time Commission of the Churches, $50,000 was sent to France and Belgium through the Federal Council of Churches and $25,000 has been set aside for a proper memorial in some form, in France, to the boys of the Reformed Church who gave their all "over there." Dr. J. I. Good is investigating what will be the most fitting thing to do and at the same time the most deserving need to meet. The amount over and above the original sum will no doubt be added to that which goes to France as a memorial to our boys.

The successful completion of this campaign will prove a great stimulus to every other campaign which the Church may undertake. Let us hope it is prophetic of the success which will attend our great Forward Movement. It clearly demonstrates that our people, when they have the mind to do things, can do their share in all that pertains to the building of the Kingdom of God. We need not lag behind. We may march just where we will.

If ever America owed a debt to France, she owes it to her now, owes it to hear in the voiceless supplication of her soul hunger, the gentle reminder of the aged Paul to Philemon, "I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self, brother." Yes, we owe to her our spiritual sympathy and our prayers, but more imperatively still we owe it to her that not one human soul in the length and breadth of that "sweet land of France" shall be left in ignorance of what the Reformed religion of Christ is, and of what it has done for a hundred million fellow beings in this American country which she so ardently loves and honors.—Handbook, French and Belgian Protestantism.

As the midnight and the stars are essential to the glory of the heavens, so sacrifice and immortality are essential for the glory of the sainted. We live in seemingly commonplace relationships with one another, relationships created by circumstances, which arise aimlessly out of our drifting lives, too often without conscious design or purpose. Seldom through the heat and drudgery of the long day do we see the latent immortal image which God has planted in our companions. We meet and part, we eat and drink and are merry, we work and play together, and come and go, but our comrades are only a part of life's background. We take them for granted. In some crisis the test of that divine image comes and they rise above the sky, beyond our ken. It is always the midnight—the sacrifice, the self-obliteration—that brings to light the stars that were slumbering in their bosoms. And then what dazzling beauty! They are the midnight stars. That midnight which we dreaded, which we planned to avert, which we despised—that midnight reveals the thing we knew not, and, after knowing it, we cry, "Do not take away the midnight lest I lose sight of the stars."—From "The Midnight Stars," by Rev. W. Stuart Cramer.

Our Roll of Honor

WHAT'S HALLOWED GROUND?

What's hallowed ground? Has earth a clod
Its Maker meant not should be trod
By man, the image of his God,
Erect and free,
Uncourged by Superstition's rod
To bow the knee?

That's hallowed ground, where, mourned and missed,
The lips repose our love has kissed:
But where's their memory's mansion? Is't
Yon churchyard's bowers?
No! In ourselves their souls exist,
A part of ours.

What hallows ground where heroes sleep?
'Tis not the sculptured piles you heap!—
In dews that heavens far distant weep
Their turf may bloom,
Or genii twine, beneath the deep,
Their coral tomb.

But, strew his ashes to the wind,
Whose sword or voice has served mankind,
And is he dead whose glorious mind
Lifts thine on high?
To live in hearts we leave behind,
Is not to die.

Peace, Love! The cherubim, that join
Their spread wings o'er Devotion's shrine—
Prayers sound in vain, and temples shine,
Where they are not.
The heart alone can make divine
Religion's spot.

What's hallowed ground? 'Tis what gives birth
To sacred thoughts in souls of worth!—
Peace! Independence! Truth! go forth

How sleep the brave, who sink to rest
By all their country's wishes blessed!
When Spring, with dewy fingers cold,
Returns to deck their hallowed mould,
She there shall dress a sweeter sod
Than Fancy's feet have ever trod.

By fairy hands their knell is rung,
By forms unseen their dirge is sung;
There Honor comes, a pilgrim gray,
To bless the turf that wraps their clay;
And Freedom shall awhile repair
To dwell, a weeping hermit, there.

RECONSTRUCTION WORK IN FRANCE

The accompanying picture of Pastor De Grenier Latour and his family is of special interest in this country on account of the prominent place the several members occupy in the reconstruction work of France. The Protestants are taking an active part in rebuilding the life of France and even before the signing of the armistice, November 11, 1918, many patriotic French leaders viewed with alarm the relaxation of discipline and private morality which was sure to follow as an after-effect of the World War. At a reception Marshall Joffre said: "France is in such very great need that whatever you do cannot fail to be of service. The people will need not merely material assistance. Moral help will be required, for there is bound to be a tendency to let down morally in the face of such great losses."

French Protestants are able and ready to supply moral leadership and they have welcomed the coöperation of Protestants in America. Through their pulpits, their hospitals, their social settlements, their Boy Scouts, their re-education work for mutilated soldiers, they are planning to build the morale of France by spreading the spirit of Christ. Paris is the headquarters of the social work of the French Protestant churches. In the very heart of the city is the Central Hall of the McAll Mission, directed by Pastor De Grenier Latour. The feature of this settlement is its large children's work. Mme. De Grenier Latour and her daughter are able assistants.

The development of the Boy Scout movement is another important means by which the Protestants of France hope to do their part in training healthy citizens, both bodily and spiritually. This movement was introduced into France by Chaplain Gallienne, one of the ten Protestant chaplains in the French Navy.

These are but a few of the many examples of the reconstruction work which is being carried on in France. The people of the Reformed Church may well feel proud of their contributions to this work, the need of which is expressed in the following words: "No Protestant church in Paris is so small that it has not thirty or forty dead. Devastation and the high cost of living are causing more suffering in France and Belgium today than during the actual fighting. Seven hundred thousand Protestants are practically dependent for all relief on their church organizations. Under these circumstances the Protestant churches are barely able to keep going much less advance to meet the opportunity and the need."

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, HON. CHARLES H. RANDALL, M. C., MISS ANNA A. GORDEN, RUFUS W. MILLER, D. D., EDWIN C. DINWIDDIE, D. D., MRS. CHARLES SCANLON, MRS. LENA L. YOST, MR. F. E. WARING.

The above photograph represents a notable temperance group who were present at the Department of State, Washington, D. C., when Acting Secretary Polk officially announced the passage of the National Prohibition Amendment, January 16, 1918. In the center is Hon. William Jennings Bryan, President of the National Dry Federation, to whom was presented a loving cup; Hon. Wayne B. Wheeler, attorney for the Anti-Saloon League; Prof. Charles S. Scanlon, Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Temperance and General Secretary of the National Dry Federation; E. H. Cherrington, editor of the Anti-Saloon League publications; E. C. Dinwiddie, legislative superintendent National Anti-Saloon League and representing the Church Temperance Federations; Rufus W. Miller, D. D., chairman joint executive committee National Temperance Society and committee on temperance of the Federal Council of Churches.

Large credit is due the National Christian Temperance Union for the passage of the prohibition amendment. As early as 1890 this great organization secured the passage of teaching scientific temperance and the evils of alcohol in the various Legislatures throughout the United States, and under the leadership of Miss Frances Willard, the National Sunday School Convention meeting in Pittsburgh 1890, authorized the issue of Quarterly Temperance Lessons in the Sunday Schools of America. The seed sown in this way in the Church and Sunday Schools of America has borne fruit.

In the field of political activity the Anti-Saloon League stands foremost, while the Churches, through their temperance organizations and coöperation with temperance societies, including the time-honored National Temperance Society, have had much to do with the success of the prohibition amendment.

WHEN YOU HAVE MUSIC PROBLEMS, CONSULT US

The Music Department of our Board is a department of helpfulness—it was organized for this purpose—and hundreds of our Churches will testify to the fact that it has been of real assistance in many ways.

WE PUBLISH excellent material for use in all departments of Church activities and our publications are held in high esteem by ministers and other workers in all denominations. We feel our own publications will more than please you.

But, in addition, we fill orders for everything published by others, and always at publishers' rates.

TO YOU! By L. M. CROSS

If you knew that
A dollar twenty would Buy knowledge that would Give you information
That you could impart
To your children that Would give them
Character, health, and happiness,
Wouldn't you invest it?
If you knew that a Dollar twenty would Put into your hands
A book that would help
You to make your life
A successful one
If you are a young Woman or man, would
You withhold it?
If you knew that
A dollar twenty, if you Contemplated matrimony or

Were newly married, would Make you as a husband
Or as a wife
Wise in things that
You ought to know,
Wouldn't you be quick
To spend it?
If you were 45
And beyond, thinking that
You knew it all
And were assured
That you didn't really Know, wouldn't you be Happy to invest a Dollar twenty so that you Could round your life
To what it ought to Be
Here are the books
That will make you wise,
Whoever you may be.

"What a Young Boy Ought to Know"
"What a Young Man Ought to Know"
"What a Young Husband Ought to Know"
"What a Man of 45 Ought to Know"
"What a Young Woman Ought to Know"
"What a Young Wife Ought to Know"
"What a Woman of 45 Ought to Know"
Pick out the books you Need and send the Money on to us at
A dollar twenty for each Book ordered and you
Will have them delivered
To your home wherever
You may reside.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Founded at Carlisle, March, 1825

LANCASTER, PENNA.

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Reformed Church, is conducted under the direction of three English Synods: The Eastern Synod, the Pittsburgh Synod, and the Synod of the Potomac.

Its financial affairs are managed by a Board of Trustees, consisting of eighteen laymen. Instruction and discipline are subject to the authority of a Board of Visitors, consisting of twelve ministers. The Visitors and Trustees are chosen from the ministers and elders of the three Synods.

The Course of Instruction embraces three years and includes all the branches of a complete education for the Christian ministry.

A fine Dormitory and Refectory were recently added to the equipment, in which room and board may be had at reasonable rates.

The Seminary year begins on the second Thursday of September.

St. Paul's Orphans' Home of the REFORMED CHURCH in the UNITED STATES

Located on a farm of 400 acres, near Greenville, Pennsylvania; has seven substantial brick buildings arranged after the "Cottage Plan," making it possible to give each child personal care. This Home aims to give the children coming under its care wholesome food, comfortable clothing, clean and healthful surroundings, and just treatment; to teach them to work as well as to play, and to depend upon themselves; to be neat, courteous, and economical; to give them a good Christian education, and to prepare them to become useful men and women.

All friends of homeless children are invited to visit the Home, examine our methods, and note the results in the life and conduct of our children, and to give our work assistance in whatever way they can.

As this Home is constantly enlarging and increasing its capacity, contributions are needed to erect and furnish additional buildings; to provide for the constantly growing family; and to increase the endowment fund. Further information may be obtained from Rev. A. M. Keifer, Superintendent, Greenville, Pa.

There is nothing in all the world so important as children, nothing so interesting. If ever you wish to go in for some form of philanthropy, if ever you wish to be of any real use in the world, do something for children.—David Starr Jordan.

The HOME for AGED PEOPLE of the REFORMED CHURCH in the U. S.

The Home shelters at present nine aged people in the house leased, but with the help of God the Church will erect its own building in the near future.

The Home is founded, not only for ministers and their widows, but also for members of the Reformed Church who in their old age are in need of a home. Poor, but worthy, members of the Church find shelter therein; also people of means receive for their money a suitable home. All, however, may here spend the evening of their lives in peace and comfort, supposing, of course, that they can be happy in a home whose family life is pervaded by a spirit of Christian order.

Applicants must produce a recommendation from their pastor and consistory. More specific information will be given by

NELSON BIBLES SUITABLE FOR EVERY AGE AND NEED

Ninety-nine per cent. of our social problems would dissolve if the entire population of the United States were taught to read the Bible.
It should be the Best and Most Accurate Version.

THE AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE

that we have always used, but it gives the exact meaning of the inspired writers, in the language of today, instead of in the language used three hundred years ago.

The American Standard Bible is used by all the Colleges, Theological Seminaries, and Bible Training Schools in the United States, and has become with them as with the editors of all the Sunday School periodicals, The Authorized Standard Version.

ALL THE LEADING SUNDAY SCHOOLS

use it in their lessons, because they realize that it brings the plain reader more closely into contact with the exact thought of the sacred writers than any other version now current in Christendom.

Made in 250 styles and 10 sizes of type. From 55 cents up.

OUR BIBLE STORY BOOKS

Arrangement and plan of book: first, a short and clear statement of the Bible narrative, then a Golden Text, or central passage, followed by questions covering the lesson. In this way such Old Testament questions as the following are taken up: The creation, fall, deluge, tower of Babel, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Canaan, David, the Kingdoms of Israel and Judah, the Babylonian captivity and the return; the annunciation and birth of Jesus, public ministry of our Lord, suffering and death of Christ, Pentecost, spreading of the gospel by the apostles and many others.

This book is so complete and excellent in the field covered that we would wish it might be used in all Bible Schools in the Reformed Church, in order to ground our young people thoroughly in a solid basis of Bible knowledge. It is a lamentable fact that with all the pretense of the study of literature these days in our schools and colleges, the Bible is about the least thoroughly known of all the classics.

Bible Stories with Questions and Helps. Book III.

BIBLE STORIES ARRANGED ACCORDING TO THE CHURCH YEAR WITH QUESTIONS. Applications, Helps, and Maps. Size, 5½X7½ inches. 355 pages. By Rev. M. Vitz, A.M.

This is a collection of Bible stories told in the language of the Scriptures, with questions and practical applications following each story, making it a valuable aid in teaching the children in the family, the Sunday School, or the catechetical class.
